A New Jersey man boasted to an Englishman that he had swum ten miles in a street. The Englishman retorted by asserting that he knew a man who swam from Liverpool to New York.
Did you see him? inquired the other.
Yes I saw him just as he was coming into the harbor.
Well, stranger, said New Jersey, I'm glad you saw it for yourself. That man was me.

A woman had been detected in Cincinnati going round and stealing milk from the door-steps. The city is much excited to understand why she did not go to headquarters and steal it in its original form of clank, and manufacture it into liquid form.

A poor woman can see more sympathy in a policeman than in a torrent of tears.

Young Men's Christian Convention.
While in St. John a few days ago, the pleasure of being present at these interesting meetings, at which delegates from all the churches of the Dominion were present, was a great privilege. Among the delegates were: Mr. Armstrong, Rev. Mr. P. M. net, and others; some of the delegates were eloquent, and the convention was a great success.

THE FAREWELL MEETING.
The Farewell meeting in St. John on Sabbath evening was attended by 1200 persons, the aisles had to be used as well as the pews, indeed, the music hall was crowded. The music both in the hall and in the pews was very fine, and the farewells were affecting. On the platform of the Protestant church, present of the Palmetto, the good and pleasant it is together in unity. If our form Young Men's Christian town in the Province were.
