UNDERSTOOD IT.—Our Dan remarked to his bright dreams—as I have wandered through this great big world, of some time meeting one to whom I could reveal all this sad heart of mine would fain no longer conceal. You are the impersonation of my dreams, and now would you drive me from your lovely side? Say, has no bird sung in your heart? I saw you come as a star rises above the lorizon, and the light of your eyes has illumined and now she leaves him a legacy of $18,000. Hence?"

The sedate traveller ceased to speak.

The fire had gone down in the brunette's eyes, the reserver expression had vanished from her face, her stern lips had relaxed their rigidity and parted just stitute meat.—Norristown Herald,
