

John White, of Toronto, a singing evangekist, is expected in the city about the seventeenth of the month, and will conduct a month's services in the Main street Baptist church.

Margaret Friser, Nellie Deering and Gertie Patterson were then asked to stard up. In answer to the oharge/of being inmates of Hattle Smith's house of prostitution, they plead guility, al-though the Deering fird explained that the was simply calling for her friend Gertie Patterson when the raid was made, and was arrested with the others. Nevertheless she said she was guility, when the magistrate pressed her for an answer. Mary Brennan(?), a fine jooking man, with not a few grey hairs, said he was guility also. The man ap-peared to be bewildered. The maristrate then cealled Hattle smits. The board of works will meet at half-past three tomorrow afternoon. The maxistrate then recalled Hattle Smith. "How long have you been kceping this house?" asked his honor. "Since Friday." was the reply. "On the corner of Brittain and Pitt streets?" again asked the magistrate. "Yea." "Who do you rent the house from?" "Mr. Ruttledge." "How much do you pay?" "Fitteen dollars a week." ...." "That's $60 a month?"

Margaret Fraser, Nellie Deering and Margaret Fraser, Nellie Deering and Gertie Patterson were then asked to stand up. The fine of $100, or the al-ternate six months jail was imposed on each. Misses Deering and Patter-son smiled at one another, but then grew very sober, and Miss Patterson cried in her hands. Harry Brennan(7) when he faced his honor was treated to a short falk, which has created another mild sen-sation in police circles. The magis-trate said it was unfortunate that he (Brennan) should be before him on such a charge. If he had been, "among the favored ones" he might have re-ceived notice that a raid was intend-ed last night, but he wasn't. The "re-spectable" young men-aye, and mar-thed men of St toke ack

DEATH OF A. COOK MABEE.

DEATH OF A COOK MABEE. On Sunday last the death occurred at Valdosta, Georgia. of A. Cook Mabee, of Hampton, N. B., son of the late Gillis Mabee, and biother of Capt. Fred and Capt. Ernest Mabee, of the river steamers Hampstead and Clif-ton, also of Haroid Mabee, mate of the Himpstead. Two sisters are liv-ing, one married, also the deceased many's mother. Cook Mabee was 23 years 'old,' and manager of the fam-fy's steamboating interests. He had been alling for some years with that most dreaded of all diseases, consump-tion, but ralled from time to time sufficient to enable him to attend to his duties. He bore up wonderfully under the physical strain, and was before the steamers stopped running last fall he left for New York to undergo treatment from an electrical specialis. For a while Mt. Mabee last fall he left for New York to undergo treatment from an electrical specialist. For a while Mr. Mabee improved under the treatment, but after removing to the south his health shattered completely and death en-sued. Capt. Fred Mabee, who had spent several weeks in New York with his brother, hastened back to Georgia from this city a few days ago. The remains will be brought home for bur-ial.

Of the organization and plans the New York Commercial abusive attack on Mr. O'Brien. In the ue of The Hibernian its editor says:

returns to the subject, attacks Mr. O'Brien again, and also publishes the following letter and comments:-CANADIAN PATRIOTISM.

St. John, N. B., Dec. 20, 1900. Editor The Hibernian: In your last issue of the Hibernian I noticed a letter addressed to you from a member of a Fredericton division, one E, A. O'Brien, criticising certain articles published in your valuable pa-per in regard to England, which I con-fess you do in a true Irish spirit. This gentleman in closing his letter asserts that all the A. O. H. down here are loyal to the core. Now, sir, I brand this assertion as a mailclous falsehood and take this opportunity of easting the lie back to his teeth. True we'are loyal, but not in the sense the would Editor The Hibernian: the lie back to mis teeth. True we are loyal, but not in the sense he would have you to believe. First of all we are good, loyal Catholics; second, and always true and devoted irishmen. I am, indeed, sorry to learn that we have another weak-kneed Irishman in the person of E. A. O'Brien.

JAMES F. MCANDREY. Space will not permit us to publish the many letters we have received from members of the order in Canada mani-feating their displeasure at the flun-ter sector expressed in E. A. O'Brien's recent expressed in E. A. O'Brien's recent explicit to The Hiber-thm, as well as their utter contempt for a man who masquerades as an Ir-sifinant under the guise of is a name honored and reversed in Irish history, and behind an organization, the jur-pose of which is it unite and protect the Catholic children of Irishah on this side of the water and to ald and any material, dur people across the Atlantic in their andexor to result. M. McAndrey's letter rings with sin-stational treedom for their country. M. McAndrey's letter rings with sin-station of E. A. O'Brien proves the healt of the A of H in Canada. Nev-trish national cause, and least of all outd such senseless cads as Mr. O'Brien change our ophions in the matter, it is well to watch out in huture for miserable creatures of Mis jur organization.
