SAD ACCIDENT AT

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Oct. 24.—An accident happened at Alberton yesterday, by which John A. Keefe, a highly esteemed citizen of that com-munity, was almost instantly killed. Keefe was taking a load of oats into the barn, and as the horse couldn't back the load, he unhitched and fastened the traces to the other end of the wagon, hoping to draw it in this man-The wagon in some way turned, and as he was passing between it and the barn he was pinned to the building by a pole placed across the wagon, which almost went through his body A little boy who was with him ran to the house, and when his wife got to his side he was faintly groaning. When medical assistance came life was extinct.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—After living 34 years as a girl and woman, May Best, who resides in an exclusive dis trict in Brooklyn, has been told that medical experts and has caused keen mental suffering to their patient. It was not until recently, when obliged to go under the care of a physician at the French Benevolent Hospital, 450 West 34th street, that "Miss" Bes learned the truth, and was told posiively that his life so far had been nistake: that he is a man. It needed the testimony of several well-known medical men to convince the patient, who is now said to be physically ill as the result of the men-

The revelation is one of the strangest medical men in the city recall. As a Joggins child he played with dolls, as did the little girls of the neighborhood. He used to watch the boys playing ball and a strong desire would come to get | Pictou Egg out and romp with them, but his parents told him that little girls did not do such things, but stayed at home and
