SUIT TO RECOVER BALANCE OF FREIGHT CHARGES.

The London Fairplay of July 18th publishes the following paragraph reative to the str. Pocahontas, which took a cargo of deals from this port to Liverpool: King's Bench Division, 6th July: The Mediterranean and New A. F. & D. Mackay to recover £175 15s. 3d. for balance of freight alleged to be due for the carriage of certain timber in the steamer Pocchontas from St. John to Liverpool. Defend-ants maintained that they had paid ants maintained that they had paid sufficient for the carrying of the tim-ber and they counter-claimed for short delivery. Plaintiffs said that ac-cording to bill of lading 82,300 pieces were shipped, whereas 82,313 were delivered. The charter party provided that the freight was to be paid onethird in cash on arrival and the ery of the cargo, less the value of short delivery in cargo if any. It was stated in defence that there were short 1,253 pieces of deals and 806 of ends, or 2,059, while there had been over dealgamated with the Catholic Register, but it was revived about a year ago by Boyle. He was 69 years of age and the recognized leader of the Irish nationalist movements in Canada.

THE HOOPER CASE.

KRUGER COMING TO AMERICA.

LONDON, Aug. 1—"I am informed on good authority," says the Brussels correspondent of the Dally Mail, "that Mr. Kruger's visit to the United States has been absolutely decided upon. It will take place probably about the middle of September, and he will be accompanied by Messrs. Fisher, Wessels and Wolmarans."

Terpresented by defendants. His lordship (Mr. Justice Bucknill) in giving judgment, said the shipowner had signed a bill of lading which referred to certain classes of things, the accuracy of which he might have ascertained, and there was a clause that the bills of lading were to be conclusive evidence against the owners as establishing the quantities delivered. There had been a shortage and the freight was to be paid only on the amount delivered, and plaintiffs were liable for the short delivery. He gave judgment for plaintiffs for £86 los. 6d. out of the £110 paid into court, the £23 9s. 6d. to be paid to defendants, defendants to have the costs of the £23 9s. 6d. to be paid to defendants, defendants to have the costs of the
