The Brazilian repub-lic's Fourth of July is celebrated on the 10th day of November, the anni-versary of the time when Dom Pedro's empire was overthrown and the exiled denizens of the skies?" "Christians one, Christians all." So in the scat-tering of the gospel seed by the Am-erican nation there are no religious sects. In the sight of the government there are only Christians. The Cai-vinists and the Armenians, the close communicants and the Congregationalimperial family had to sail away from the waters of the Amazon. One of the first acts of the Cuban congress which assembled after the American soldiers had been withdrawn was to appoint a national holiday to commemorate the day on which the Cuban republic had communicants and the Congregational-ists, the Protestants and the Catholics,

SEMI-WEEKLY SUN, ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 5, 1902.

As the American nation is a govern-ment for the people and by the people I would have every one of us this Fourth of July season reconsecrate our nation to God by reconsecrating our own personal lives to his divine ser-vice. When the ambassador from Ger-many appears at the While House and presents his official documents, he does not come as the representative of the German nation, but as the personal

European nation by the means of a supreme court of international arbi-tration. This sign shall decree that war, bloody, fiendish, demoniacal war, shall be no longer; that war shall for-ever be as dead as the multitudes of dead soldiers whose bodies are now de-composing in the grave trenches all round the world.

But when America's ambassador Until the supreme court of interna and, looking up as though addressing the throne of the Almighty, cried out in interrogation, "O Lord, are there any Presbyterians in heaven?" "No," came back the answer. "O Lord, are there any Episcopalians in heaven?" "No," again came the answer. "O, Lord, are there any Methodists in goes abroad he does not represent the resident or the secretary of state, but he represents the people-the common people of America. And as part of the mon people of America we can here and now begin to reconsecrate our gov-ernment to the Lord in its days of its own personal interests. But now that time is past. The American naprosperity by reconsecrating ourselves O Lord, our God, can any one have a greater work to do in the evangelization of the world than we Americans if we will only consecrate our lives to thy service?

I selected this text, "The field is the I selected this text, "The field is the world," for two reasons—first, because the five words spoken by Jesus Christ to his disciples exactly convey the idea of the worldwide sweep of America's future influence in the evangelization of the two hemispheres. A Christian nation has no more right to close its doors and live for itself and let the rest of the people of the world suffer of the weaker and the more helple nations when those nations are b downtrodden and unjustly used by adventroaden and unjustly used by the greater governmental powers. The American nation can do for the help-less and weaker nations what it did for suffering and helpless Cuba. But the second reason why I selected this text is because it always has had an intense personal interest to me. This was the first text which my father as a theological student ever preached upon. When my father was a young man at New Brunswick seminary, h went to visit my uncle, who was then what to visit my unce, who was then pastor at Easthampton, N. Y. He went to visit in the same old parson-age, where the great Lyman Beecher, the father of Henry Ward Beecher, he discusses them from a world-wide standpoint. He must attune his Fourth of July sermon to a world's theme, as Phillips Brooks, the most beloved man of New England in his day, keyed his ministry to an international tone when from a European city he sent to a friend at home a letter which read something like this: "Dear Harry--I I wish you would annually spend two months abroad in travel. Such a va-cation teaches you the immensity of ued to live and where many of the famous brothers and sisters of Henry Ward Beecher were born. And while my father was visiting his brother-inlaw, the Rev. Stephen Mershon, th village minister, asked him to preach. So he preached in the schoolhouse there in the village of Easthampton his first sermon. The schoolhouse is now used as a barber shop. It is not larger than the ordinary sized parlor of an average city house. In that little ban islands. FOR UNIVERSAL PEACE. Now, my friends, what civilized na-tion on the face of the globe is better fitted to lead in the establishment of this supreme court of international ar-bitration than the American nation? The different nations of Europe, I care not how strong some of them may be, are unable to successfully lead in this movement for universal peace because those nations are lealous of because those nations are jealous of
