Years' Experience.

Toledo, May 21.—David F. Fitzgerald, an alderman and ring official of New Haven, Conn., arrived here today to impress upon Tex Rickard his qualifications as referee of the Jess Willard-Jack Dempsey heavyweight championship battle here July 4. He is the first candidate for the position to reach the battleground.

Fitzgerald, a six-footer of 200 pounds, is a ring official of twenty years' experience. He has refereed all of the important ring battles decided in Connecticut and has given decisions at the final of all of them, which will be required here Independence Day if Willard and Dempsey are on their feet at the end of the twelfth round.

He refereed a contest in which Willard engaged before he became champion.

Dempsey is nicely settled in his training camp on Mamee Bay and ready to begin the work of his conditioning grind. Jimmy De Forest, of Long Branch, N. J., a veteran boxer and trainer, arrived today to assume charge of the challenger's work. De Forest has supervised Dempsey's conditioning for several matches. Before the end of the week a half dozen sparring partners will be on the job.

The challenger splashed over muddy roads for six miles as a starter this morning, and played two games of football this afternoon. Then he assisted carpenters in erecting a ring in which he will do his boxing. Seats for 4,000 spectators will be built around the ring.

FAMOUS WRESTLERS
REPORTED KILLED

Alexandre Oberg and George Lurich Have Fallen in Recent Uprisings in Their Native Poland.

That Alexandre Oberg and George Lurich, two of the most skilled wrestlers the world has ever seen, have fallen in the recent uprisings in their native Poland has been confirmed by several New Yorkers who have returned to Gotham from Warsaw.

The New Brunswickers who attended the monster wrestling carnival in Madison Square Garden, January, 1918, will remember Oberg as the juman out of 63 contestants from every part of the world who remained undefeated at the end of six days' wrestling. And this notwithstanding that his usual mode was the Graco-Roman style of wrestling and the carnival adhered solely to the popular catch-as-catch-can style. Oberg, when he rejoined the colors of the Polish expeditionary force which was recruited in America was considered one of the strongest men in the world, and the champion of Europe and America in both Graco-Roman and the catch-as-catch-can styles. Lurich, who also exhibited at the same time, was noted as a weight-lifter and an artist's model, though as a light-heavyweight wrestler he had few superiors.

Both these men, reports say, fell upholding the cause of their native Poland, long suppressed by the Han-dan their "going west" is not without a glamor of romance, for as men of might they undoubtedly accounted for many of the enemy before losing the decision to the Great Russian.

A Simple Way To Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and this is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all of it), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

Vincent Richards
Is Reinstated

Is Holder of the Six National Tennis Titles—Restoration to Amateur Standing Becomes Effective on May 24.

New York, May 21.—Vincent Richards, holder of the six national tennis titles, has been officially reinstated to good standing by the amateur rules committee of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, following his resignation from the employment of a local sporting goods firm.

The committee announced today that Richards' restoration to amateur standing will become effective on May 24, when his connection with the firm ends.

Perry, Seibold, Noylar and Perkins; Morton and O'Neill.

St. Louis, 1; Washington, 0.

St. Louis, Mo., May 21.—St. Louis defeated Washington today 1 to 0. The score:

Washington... ..000000000—0 0 0 St. Louis... ..000000001—1 13 1

Shaw and Polnick; Shocker and Billings.

The committee issued the following statement:

"Vincent Richards has resigned his position in the sporting goods firm. It has been proved to the satisfaction of the amateur rules committee that Mr.
Richards' name was used to advertise the sale of tennis goods without his authority, and his action in withdrawing from the sporting goods business has removed all other questions as to his amateur standing.

"He has accordingly been officially reinstated, this to take effect upon the day of his resignation. In the opinion of the committee, Mr. Richards has set a splendid example to the players of the country and his action will do far toward keeping the standards and ideals of the sport above reproach."

FIND DEAD BODY
OF ROBT. CHILDS
IN THE WOODS

Body Was Found Beside an Old Windfall Which Had Been Set Afire—Bullet Wound in Right Temple—Spent Last Summer in St.
John.

Rexton, May 21.—The dead and partly burned body of Robert Childs, the murderer, was found this morning in the woods about a mile from the scene of his crime. It was found lying beside an old windfall which had been set afire. Most of the clothing and flesh were burned from the body. His right hand was in an upright position and beneath it was a Colt revolver containing six cartridges, one of which had been used. He had been shot through the right temple.

It is the general opinion that he took his own life shortly after doing the deed. Nearby was an automatic revolver and an empty liquor bottle.

Inspector A. S. Belliveau, College Bridge, and Sgt. Dobson, St. Stephen, found the body. After an inquest by which it was found it was a case of suicide, the body was placed in a casket and buried where he died.

Robert Childs is well known in St.
John, having spent nearly the entire summer months here last year. He was a frequent visitor to the King Square and, being a willing conversationist, made a number of friends.

He spoke of his extensive travels to Seattle and other far western cities.
He said that he had accumulated about eighty thousand dollars, and when asked what he was going to do with all his money he replied to one gentleman that he was going to burn it all before he died, that he did not intend to leave any of it for some person else to enjoy. He was very bitter on the residents of Kent County, and said that only two per cent of the population in that section of the province were honest. When asked why he did not make a will and leave his money to the church, he said:
"No, the churches have enough money, and I intend to burn mine when the time comes."

He further stated that forty years ago he used to do business in the country market here, but as he could not get good profits on his goods he sent them to Boston and made money.
He further stated that he had worked in the woods as a lumberman and also in the saw mills.

A gentleman, who had numerous conversations with Childs, said yesterday that he appeared to be a very bright and active old man, but he talked much about the great amount of money he had and on a number of occasions stated that he would burn the same. In fact, he appeared at times to talk like a man who was slightly unbalanced.

It is thought that if he had much money with him, and that his chief hobby was to burn the same, but perhaps he has carried out his intentions and destroyed a large amount in the process, which would explain his action, which destroyed his clothing and charred his body.

REV. WM. IVENS
LEADER IN THE
WINNIPEG STRIKE

Editor of Labor Paper in That City—Entirely Honest But An Enthusiastic Idealist.

Toronto, Ont., May 21.—Rev. Wm.
Ivens, who has been so prominent in the general strike at Winnipeg, was born in England about forty years ago. He came to Canada when very young, and has since lived in Manitoba, where he was educated, taking an arts course in Manitoba University and a theological course in Wesley College, under circumstances which called for some courage and perseverance. For twenty years he was connected with the Manitoba conference, but a year ago, when the stationery committee proposed to transfer him from Macdougall Memorial Church, he refused the new charge and has since been an independent minister, holding services in the Labor Temple. He had tried to turn Macdougall into a labor church with the support of the younger members of the congregation, but a strong minority effectively opposed the innovation.

In June, in spite of the opposition of the more radical laborites, who complained that they did not want a person, he was elected editor of the reorganized labor paper. His intimates here describe him as a Socialist, an uncompromising pacifist, logical, forceful speaker, entirely honest, but an enthusiastic idealist.

Desirable merchandise delayed for opening day of new store has now arrived for presentation at prices that can't be duplicated anywhere.

The opening of our new store, 247 Union Street, was a triumph—yes—even beyond our greatest expectations!

Why? Because we knew the people would appreciate low prices this year more than any year we have known.

And, therefore, we feel this is not only a most opportune time to fulfill this demand, but at the same time to demonstrate again, and very forcefully, Amdur's position in St. John's retail business.

Here are some of the specials.
