McKENZIE KING TO ENTER POLITICS

Resigns Post of Deputy Minister of Labor and Other Offices Accepts Liberal Nomination in North Waterloo--Believes He Can Do More in Federal Arena in the Cause of Industrial Peace Than in Role of Mediator.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Ottawa, Sept. 21.—W. L. MacKenzie King has resigned the position of deputy minister of labor to contest North Waterloo, in the Liberal interests. His letter of resignation to the minister, which was received here this evening, reads as follows:— Toronto, Ont., Sept. 21.—"Dear Mr. Lemieux—Having been honored by the Liberals of the North Riding of my native county with the nomination to contest the riding in their interests at the present elections and having decided to accept the nomination, I respectfully beg to tender my resignation as deputy minister of the department of labor, and the position of editor of the Labor Gazette, registrar of boards of conciliation and investigation, which have been held jointly with the office of deputy minister. I need scarcely assure you that the present decision has not been reached without most careful consideration, and that it is prompted solely by a sense of public duty and a belief that the larger sphere of politics affords ample opportunities of public service. There is hardly a phase of our national life which does not affect industrial conditions and which industrial conditions do not in turn affect, and my interest in the welfare of Canada, and the people of this dominion, leads me to desire an opportunity of sharing in the solution of some of the larger problems which are arising and will continue to arise in this connection. Leaves Work in Good Hands. "The interests and future of the department of labor are so near and real to me that I would hesitate even now to take the step I do now. I am entirely confident that the welfare of the department would be fully protected and promoted by P. A. Acland, the present secretary and the officers associated with him. "Next to the immediate work of the department, I regard most my separation from the civil service of Canada. An association of over eight years, in every respect a profitable and pleasant, is not easily broken, but I shall carry with me into my new sphere of duties, a knowledge of the needs of the department and the service, and shall through the future lose no opportunity of furthering both. "In asking you to accept my resignation I wish to express my deep appreciation of the helpful and pleasant relations which my association with you in the duties of the department has involved, and an abiding sense of gratitude to the members of the staff for the faithfulness and efficiency with which they have assisted me in the carrying on of its work. I am, dear Mr. Lemieux, "Very sincerely yours, "W. L. MacKENZIE KING." A Toronto despatch says that Mr. King was at his father's residence there when he received the news of his selection and having accepted the nomination handed out the following statement to the press: Accepts Nomination. "My acceptance of the Liberal nomination in North Waterloo is a step which has not been taken without long and earnest consideration. My work of the past eight years, during which time the department of labor has grown to be one of the most important departments of the government, has afforded me too many opportunities for public service and is too near my heart to be quickly or lightly parted from. Indeed, the serious responsibility involved in giving up a position of such great public usefulness has been realized so fully that it was not until weighed by the deepest of convictions as to what is at the present time a public duty, I would certainly not sever my connection with a department with which I have been associated for its very creation. "Of these convictions there lies deepest, perhaps, the feeling that, membership in the house of commons would afford greater scope for furthering those very purposes for which the department of labor has been established, the promotion of industrial conditions, and the belief that the younger men of Canada should demonstrate their willingness to share more largely in their country's affairs and to be prepared to make sacrifices, if need be, toward that end. I have long felt that except as applied to the church, where their significance is perhaps, even deeper, nothing could be truer than the words of Mr. Goldwin Smith, that 'Politics is the nobility of all callings, but the meanest of all trades.' "What our country demands today is that young men, whatever their position should recognize the greatness of the inheritance given them by God in this Dominion, and should train and discipline their lives with a view to bringing to the councils of the nation a guidance that is worthy of its destiny. "In accepting the nomination so heartily tendered by the Liberals of my native county and in seeking the support of its electors I trust that the sacrifice I am making in resigning my present position to devote myself to the larger duties of public life, will be of itself sufficient to show that I have no end in view but the well-being of the people at large, no ambition to serve but that of contributing to the happiness and prosperity of our common country."

LAURIER SPEAKS AT TILBURY

Big Crowd Listens to Him and Minister of Railways CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Premier Declares There is Nothing in the Scandal Talk of Opposition, and Ridicules Borden's Contentions of Stealing His Civil Service Plank.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Tilbury, Ont., Sept. 21.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and G. P. Graham received another splendid welcome here today. There were 8,000 visitors in town and the streets were gaily decorated. Sir Wilfrid in his speech thanked the people for their unparalleled demonstration and claimed that the government had done nothing to forfeit the confidence of the people. An address was presented from the daughters of farmers in the neighborhood and the premier gallantly kissed the young lady, Miss Corbett, who read it. After paying tributes to the candidates for election who were with him on the platform, the premier referred to parliament's discussion. He said he thought the time had come to consult the people. There were great works in hand and the government wanted to be assured whether it had kept faith which people had three times repeated in it. He was confident the verdict would be the same as at the last three elections. There was no cause, he said, why the people should have lost confidence in him and his ministers. Appealing to old reformers, he reminded them of the government's record by Baldwin and Lafontaine, of the representation by population won by George Brown and of confederation, the policy of Brown, made use of by the Conservative party. It was left for the reformers of today to carry out the principles of confederation for the protection of minorities and in seeking the support of the people's rights. That was the record of the Liberal party. He said the Conservatives had brought forward no great principles and could point to no great grievances. The only cry was simply a cry of scandal. He was bound to say for the Conservative party that they always shone in the words calling to devote themselves to the larger duties. Citing the cases of the Ross rifle and Hodgins' charges which he said were exploded scandals, the premier continued: "And so it will be with all the other scandals. I have no doubt whatever that the day will come when he is dead and gone, Laurier will be held up as a model and pattern of virtue." In the parliament which had just ended, he said, not a charge had been brought up against the government itself. It was not like the accusations launched against the Conservative government in 1873 and 1891, at the time of the Pacific scandal, and in 1893 at the time of the Lake St. John scandal. Certain charges had been made against officials, but he had reason to believe they were Tory officials who had been guilty of malpractice. It was possible there were some black sheep among the government employees, but they did not need to be told they were not like the people of their party. Turning to civil service reform, the premier ridiculed the idea that this plan was stolen from Mr. Borden's platform. Civil service reform had been in the air for twenty years at least. He would be very glad, he said, if Mr. Borden would convert Mr. Hanna and the Ontario government to civil service reform. Hon. Geo. P. Graham, in a short address, defended the sale of semi-arid lands to the Saskatchewan Valley Land Company as no scandal but one of the most creditable acts of the Liberal government. He explained the financing of the National Transcontinental road and dwelt at some length on the work of the railway commission. TRADES AND LABOR CONGRESS AT HALIFAX (Special to The Telegraph.) Halifax, Sept. 21.—The Trades and Labor Council of Canada held the first meeting of its session at Halifax, President Verreille, M.P., was in the president's chair and the delegates included representatives from most of the cities from Vancouver to Halifax. At the morning session the report of the executive committee was presented and there were addresses of welcome from President Scott of the local trades and labor council, Mayor Crosby and Premier Murray. An appropriate response was made by President Verreille. The whole of the afternoon was taken up with a discussion of immigration, brought on by a report from W. R. Trotter, who had been sent to England to look into the matter of alleged misrepresentation to intending immigrants from the United States. A severe criticism of the Salvation Army's methods. There was a universal condemnation of this and also of the government's immigration policy. LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MEETING. St. Stephen, N. B., Sept. 21.—An interesting meeting in connection with the Laymen's Missionary movement was held in the Baptist school room this evening. Stirring addresses were delivered by Messrs. Stackhouse, Hobson, Higgins and Archdeacon Newburn, Rev. Hunter Boyd, Rev. M. Sterling and others.

BORDEN OPENS IN ONTARIO

About 2,000 People at Pembroke Meeting Monday REPEATS CHARGES

Attacks Government for Wasteful Expenditure and Disposal of Timber Limits--Appeals for Clean Politics--Roblin and Hanna in Critical Mood, Too.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Pembroke, Ont., Sept. 21.—R. L. Borden, with Premier Roblin and Hon. Mr. Hanna opened his Ontario campaign here today. Street banners bore mottoes such as "Hail to the conquering hero." The local arrangements in the way of flags, bunting, band music and excursion trains, etc., were elaborate. An excursion train from Ottawa reached town at noon with the Ottawa Brass band and about 100 people. There were about 2,000 present and the audience gave the speakers an attentive hearing. Mr. Borden in his hour's address followed closely on the lines of his "Marine Province" speech. He attacked the administrative record of the government on the score of wasteful and dishonest expenditure and rectified charges in connection with the Saskatchewan Valley land deal, Roblin's Irrigation Company, disposal of western timber limits and the cost of the National Transcontinental railway. He appealed for clean politics and honest administration. After challenging the accuracy of the statements that he had never said anything definite about the Georgian Bay Canal, he proceeded to explain that the Conservative policy was to develop and improve the waterways. He attacked Hon. W. J. Hanna repeated his Halifax speech, taking up the immigration policy of the government which he charged had filled the Ontario asylums with foreign born and criticizing the government's record in regard to safeguarding provincial rights. Premier Roblin, who spoke last, blamed the government for the imposition of the embargo against Canadian cattle in Great Britain. He claimed that the Conservative M.P., had received 1,428 square miles of timber from the west and had made "millions and millions" in the deals and charged graft on every hand and concluded by saying that Mr. Borden had inherited the ability for dishonesty from Sir John Macdonald, Sir Charles Tupper and other Conservatives.

AMERICAN RUSH FOR BIG GAME

Eleven Non-Resident Sportsmen at Fredericton Monday. BRAITHWAITE READY

Well Known Guide, Who Preferred Charges Against New York Broker, Anxious for Inquiry to Begin--N. W. Brown Will Begin Active Political Campaign at Once.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 21.—No less than eleven American sportsmen, on their way to the hunting woods of the Miramichi, passed through this city today. The indications are that the present game season will be fully as successful as that of last year, so far as the number of non-resident sportsmen is concerned. H. D. Williams and Colonel Myer, who have been hunting in little South West Miramichi, passed through the city today en route home. They secured a moose each, also one caribou and one deer. N. W. Brown, the Liberal candidate, will open his campaign on Wednesday. He is arranging to address public meetings in every part of the county. Mr. Brown is one of the ablest platform speakers in the province. The funeral of the late Mrs. Delia Burnside took place this afternoon from her late home with services at the Cathedral by Rev. Dean Schofield and Subdean Street. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery. Premier Hazen, nephew of the deceased, who arrived from Montreal by the noon train was among the mourners. Colonel John Unger and J. S. Williams, of Etouffe, returned today from a hunting trip to Miramichi made in company with Guide Braithwaite. They secured two moose, a caribou and a bear. It was Braithwaite who preferred charges of illegal shooting against Arthur Robinson, the New York stock broker and he welcomes the surveyor's general's decision to hold a thorough investigation. The residence of George Yeomans of Lower St. Mary's was seriously damaged by fire on Saturday evening. Fortunately the fire was extinguished before it spread to the adjoining buildings. Norman Cameron, who recently preferred charges against Chief of Police Winter was arrested by the latter on Saturday for drunkenness and it cost him $5 to get out of the scrape. The crown land department here has been notified of a serious forest fire burning on land owned by the Oromocto Lumber Company on Shim Creek, Sunbury County. Fire Warden Phillips was sent to the scene Saturday afternoon with a crew of men to fight the flames. There was quite a heavy shower of rain this morning which will do much to ease the fire. Large contingents of American sportsmen arrived here at noon on route to the Miramichi woods. James Harris, of this city, died at Fairville on Saturday morning aged seventy-one. The body was brought here this morning for burial. The Young Liberals of this city will meet shortly to organize a club. JUDGE SCORED JURY FOR ACQUITTING WOMAN ACID-THROWER (Special to The Telegraph.) Toronto, Sept. 21.—After an emphatic denial that she was the woman who threw carbolic acid in Edwin Chandler's face on Lee avenue on June 1, it was made by Mrs. Elizabeth Ellen Taylor, in the sessions this morning, she was acquitted. The woman asserted that she had no feeling against Chandler, though he is the father of one of her children, and has refused to assist her. Chandler was nearly blinded by the acid. "Mrs. Taylor," declared Judge Winchester, "the jury have acquitted you, although I cannot understand how they came by their verdict. If there is any one guilty, you are the guilty woman. I cannot see how the jury could return their verdict, if they have weighed the evidence and remembered their oath."

FLYING RECORD SMASHED AGAIN

Wilbur Wright Scores Great Triumph Before Big Crowd American Aeronaut Negotiated Sixty-one Miles With Aeroplane in Presence of French Army and Other Officials Monday, Eclipsing Brother's Performance at Washington.

Le Mans, Sept. 21.—In the presence of the officials of the Aero Club of Sarthe, General Bazaing-Hayter, commander of the Fourth Army Corps, the American ambassador, Henry White, a large number of French and foreign officers and aeroplane experts and a wildly cheering crowd, numbering 10,000, Wilbur Wright, the American aeronaut, this afternoon accomplished a signal triumph, capturing the world's record from his brother, Orville Wright, with a marvellously impressive flight in his powerful machine of one hour, thirty-nine minutes and fifty-one seconds, covering in that time an actual distance of 98 kilometres, or nearly sixty-one miles. Owing to the recent accident at Fort Myer, today's trial for the Michelin Cup for the greatest distance covered by an aeroplane in 1908, and the Aero Club prize of $1,000 for the longest flight over an enclosed ground, attracted intense interest, although the spectators displayed the utmost deference and sympathy. Mr. Wright at first appeared nervous, and ill-kept seemed to be pursuing him. The wind was too high in the morning to permit of a flight, and when it fell, at four o'clock this afternoon, Mr. Wright made three false starts. Finally, at 5.15, after the direction of the starting rail had been changed to a point in the teeth on the breeze, which was then blowing gently about four miles an hour, the aviator got away nicely, sailing majestically up the field amid thundering cheers. Red flags were posted at regular intervals, which permitted the spectators to estimate the distance of the flight as Mr. Wright proceeded. After rounding the upper turn Wright swept back to where the thousands were gathered and began describing ellipses. Round and round he went with the regularity of clock-work, the steadiness of a railroad train. The great crowd was at once delighted and amazed at the remarkable stability shown by the aeroplane. Wright at first manifested extraordinary prudence, flying so low that he seemed almost to skim the earth, but on the thirteenth round he rose to sixty feet. The sun was just then setting, glowing like gold, and the aeroplane appeared like a huge bird circling the plane. Spontaneous cheers greeted the picture and these were redoubled as he successively surpassed his own record and then his brother's. In the gathering darkness the spectacle became thrilling. The aeroplane could no longer be seen at the farther end of the field; it appeared and disappeared in the gloom like a white phantom, but the sound of the ceaseless churn of the propellers told the multitude, which had now grown frantic, that Wright still was in the air. Matches were lighted to keep watch of the fleeting minutes and night had fallen when at the end of the thirty-third round Wright shut off his motor and came lightly to the ground in front of the derrick. CHELSEA FIRE—SCOURGED AGAIN Many Buildings, That Escaped the April Conflagration, Burned Monday; Loss $400,000. Chelsea, Mass., Sept. 21.—The embers of this morning's big fire in this city near the Everett line had cooled sufficiently tonight to enable a more careful estimate of the loss to be made, and it was evident that nearly $400,000 will be added to the year's fire list and that the taxable property of the city has been still further reduced, and that the remaining residential section of the city narrowly escaped the fate which swept over so many homes last spring. The fire today destroyed the following property: Atwood & McManus, box manufacturers, $200,000. Pope & Cottle, lumber dealers, $70,000. Union Metal Company, metals, $30,000. Lee Brothers, shoes, $10,000. John M. Carrab, shoe springs, $8,000. Chelsea Bottling Company, $8,000. Harugari Hall, $5,000. Five tenement houses, $25,000. The fire started shortly before 8 a.m. in the box factory and while its early progress was slow enough to enable the persons in the building to escape easily, it was well under way by the time the local department arrived on the scene. Unfortunately two of the local engines broke down almost immediately and as the box factory proved good food for the flames, it became necessary to call again on the neighboring cities for help, and Boston, Everett and Revere responded. A Boston engine, which arrived early on the scene, was soon overwhelmed by falling walls and nearly destroyed. The fire then broke its original bounds and swept east and west along the tracks of the eastern division of the Boston and Maine R. R., enveloped the Lee Brothers shoe factory on the side, the lumber yard on the other, and then pushed along by a stiff breeze, extended to the other smaller factories and the tenements. An hour after the start it looked as if it would keep right on into the other factories which survived the April conflagration and also into the residential district beyond. Fortunately the width of Everett avenue on the north side, with vacant spaces on the opposite side to the fire, proved too great a space to leap over and passing the firemen on the other side, the progress of the flames was stopped. HENRY A. WHITNEY LEFT $23,000 ESTATE (Special to The Telegraph.) Moncton, Sept. 21.—The will of the late Henry A. Whitney was probated today before Judge P. W. Emmerson. There being no executors under the will, John H. Harris and Mrs. Margaret Cowling were appointed administrators. The probate value of the estate is real estate $8,000, and personal, $15,000. The estate is equally divided between his three daughters: Mrs. John Harris, Mrs. Wm. Cowling and Mrs. F. L. Doyle, residing in Moncton. The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen are looking forward to a big demonstration here on Wednesday when the twenty-fifth anniversary of the order will be celebrated. A big parade is to be held and in the evening a mass meeting to be addressed by prominent brotherhood men will be held.

STARTED TRIAL OF GROCERS' COMBINE

Dominion Guild Charged With Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade--Adjournment to Oct. 19.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Toronto, Sept. 21.—After numerous attempted trials extending over two years, the hearing of the Hamilton Grocers' Combine, began today at city hall before Chief Justice Falconbridge in a special sitting of the criminal assizes. The indictment reads that Henry C. Beckett, George E. Bristol, John E. Davidson, T. B. Escott, W. G. Craig, J. F. Eby, T. Kinnear, the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Guild, during the years 1898-1905, at the city of Hamilton and elsewhere did combine and agree with the Canada Sugar Refining Company, Canada Sugar Refining Company and about one hundred wholesale grocers in Canada to limit the facilities in producing, manufacturing and dealing in sugar, tobacco, starch, canned goods, salt, cereals and other articles, to restrain and injure trade, to unreasonably enhance the price of those goods, to lessen competition, and in a word to form what is commonly known as a "combine." After Stanley Cook, secretary of the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Association, was examined the hearing of the case was adjourned till October 19, the reason being that his lordship has sittings on the circuit until that date. DESPERADOES ROB ONTARIO MERCHANT OF LARGE AMOUNT (Special to The Telegraph.) Toronto, Sept. 21.—Twenty-four hundred dollars were taken from N. Schein, merchant at Vermilion Bay, last Tuesday armed desperadoes. One man with a revolver, and the other with a knife, entered the store and their escape after firing upon townspeople who the alarm given by them was in pursuit.

STOCK MARKET DEMORALIZED IN WALL STREET

Fresh Standard Oil Disclosures Have Bad Effect and Prices Break Badly.

New York, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Declines of two to five points in prices of the most of the active stocks were the net result of an exciting day on the Stock Exchange today, which ended in demoralized selling. A plunge of prices downward at the opening came as the natural consequence of the sharp break on Saturday, which brought in scattered outside liquidation. Banking interests and the powerful capitalists supposed to be interested in the speculative position brought prices up again to the Saturday closing level during the quiet mid-day period. Apparently advantage was taken of this restored level to unload stocks with even greater precipitancy than at the start. Rumors were current of a renewed attack to be made by the government on Standard Oil and reports of an unfavorable turn in the steel and copper trades were also received. The sensation caused by the exposure of alleged Standard Oil methods in influencing the acts of men prominent in public life, was feared so threatening to annihilate revenue-producing corporations. A subsidence of the agitation of this subject has been a prime factor in the active speculation for a rise in stocks. BOTH PARTIES HELD RALLIES AT MONCTON Moncton, N. B., Sept. 21.—(Special.)—Both political parties held organization rallies here this evening. The Liberals in their headquarters were addressed by C. J. Osman, ex-M.P.P. of Albert; H. S. Paisley, editor of the Tribune, Sackville, and others. There was a large attendance. The rally under the auspices of the Conservative Club in the committee rooms was addressed by R. W. Hewson, E. A. Reilly, D. I. Welch, Capt. Masters and G. B. Willett.

FRENCH MARK OF RESPECT TO LATE BISHOP CARMICHAEL

Montreal City Council Passed Resolution of Condolence and Adjourned.

(Special to The Telegraph.) Montreal, Sept. 21.—A compliment was paid the English-speaking people of the city this afternoon when the city council adjourned in a token of respect for the late Bishop Carmichael, who died early this morning. The motion was presented by Alderman L. A. Lapointe, leader of the French section of the council, seconded by Alderman N. Gieroux, and carried. "That this council has learned with deep regret of the death of His Grace, Bishop Carmichael, and desire to offer to the adherents of the Anglican church of this diocese and to the bereaved family, their most fervent sympathy in their sad bereavement; That the members of this council desire to place on record their appreciation of the sterling qualities of the deceased prelate, and that as a mark of respect for his memory this council do now adjourn." This was unanimously adopted. CALAIS RESIDENCE STRUCK BY LIGHTNING. St. Stephen, N. B., (Special.)—During an electrical storm here this afternoon, D. Grant's residence in the lower part of Calais was struck by lightning, set on fire and considerably damaged inside. No person was hurt. FOREST FIRES RAGING IN MIDDLE WEST (Mich.) has not been destroyed by forest fires and is still smoldering by the flames. That is the authoritative statement of J. Earl Morgan, of the Morgan Lumber Company, after the situation had been thoroughly investigated by him, and after direct advice had been received by him from the city mentioned. There are forest fires south of Foster City, but the plant and other property of the Morgan Lumber Company at that point are protected by a wide clearing, and it is regarded as impossible that the flames will jump across this clearing, except in the case of a hurricane. Maryland, Wis., Sept. 21.—Forest fires are rapidly closing in on the city, and it is believed that a heavy rain is all that will save the city. Wabaw, Wis., Sept. 21.—The forest fires are within three miles of this city, driving a dense pall of smoke before them. A rise of the wind would put the city in a perilous position. Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 21.—Today's reports to the Department of Forestry, showed no abatement of the forest fires which have been sweeping over the state reserves in seven counties and unless rain falls the loss will be much greater within a few days. Marinette, Wis., Sept. 21.—The forest fires have broken out afresh in this region and reports of the burning of farm-houses and of timber, cut and un-cut, are coming from all sides. The fire is now four miles from Marinette on all sides, but there is no fear at present of the flames reaching Marinette. Forest fires are also close to Falltown Junction and Ingalls, Mich. Escanaba, Mich., Sept. 21.—Forest fires, thought checked by light rains Friday, broke out anew last night and three villages north of Escanaba are surrounded by flames, tonight. The villages threatened are Negaunee, Quinnesec and Hermansville. Okishka, Wis., Sept. 21.—Foster City

YARMOUTH CHILD DROWNED

Yarmouth, N. S., Sept. 21 (Special.)—The five-year-old son of C. Harry Allan, accountant at the Cosmos Cotton Co., was drowned this morning in Milton Pond. His companion gave the alarm and the body was recovered after a short time. Every effort was made to revive him, but without avail. He was five years of age.

ATWOOD & McMANUS, BOX MANUFACTURERS, $200,000.

THE SUSSEX EXHIBITION OPENED MONDAY

Better Class of Exhibits and More of Them Than Ever (Special to The Telegraph.) Sussex, N. B., Sept. 21.—Yet disagreeable weather attended the first day of the Sussex exhibition. The probabilities are, however, the formal opening tomorrow evening will be favored by fine weather. This evening the public was admitted to the grounds and buildings, although many exhibits were not in position. The agricultural section of the exhibition is particularly good and already many exhibits of live stock are on the grounds. In the main building industrial exhibits occupy the greater space. The Sussex Mercantile Company has two booths, one devoted to pianos and organs and the other to plumbing, ranges, etc. Jones Bros., of Apohaqui, have a fine exhibit of fur garments. King Asbell & Co., of Sussex, have made bees' honey a feature of the exhibition. In the carriage building the Sussex Mfg. Co. have on exhibition woodworking machinery and samples of refrigerators. The exhibit of H. E. Gould, florist, occupies a prominent place on the floor of the main building. W. B. McKay & Co. have devoted a booth to furniture. The hardware exhibit of Connelly & Fairweather consists of pumps, stoves and pans. Near the main entrance the Sussex Mineral Springs Co. have a most attractive booth. The Halifax Optical Co. have also a striking exhibit. John A. Ojehl, of Sussex, has a fine exhibit of live stock on the grounds. Many of those on the pike at the St. John exhibition are here. Mrs. Tom Thum and Lilliputians are also here and gave the first performance this evening. The fair will be in full swing tomorrow. An accident to the electric lighting plant left the buildings in darkness half an hour tonight. The attendance, considering the drawbacks, was good. Cattle judging begins tomorrow. Guernseys will be judged in the morning, Holsteins in the afternoon, Ayrshires, Wednesday morning, grade cattle in the afternoon and horses Thursday. The judges are: W. F. Huntington, P.O., dairy cattle; Thos. Brydall, Allen Corners, P. Q., beef cattle, swine, sheep; Dr. J. Standish, Walkerton, Ontario, horses; A. C. Smith, the Plains (Mass.), poultry; C. F. Alward, Havelock, agricultural produce; John C. Miles, St. John, paintings; Mrs. McLellan and Miss Chisholm, St. John, Indian work. The exhibit of cattle is the largest ever in Sussex, the cattle pens are filled and horse stalls are used for cattle. Other stock is up to the average in numbers.

MAN WHO SHOT UP MONTREAL POLICE LEFT BIG ESTATE

(Special to The Telegraph.) Toronto, Sept. 21.—John Dillon, who went on a rampage in Montreal last April, and shot several people and police officers in a house in which he barricaded himself, left an Ontario estate of $84,000, all in checks. He will $66,000 for probate in Toronto today.
