REST OF TOWN.

For a time the whole city adomed. Then the firemen concen their energies in a single point of tense near the Boston & Maine ralivoal station, Several buildings in this vicinity were dynamited, every available line of hose was directed against the approaching flames, and late touight thooked as thought the fire had been checked.

No fatalities had been reported up till midnight, but in the confusion it was impossible to determine the casualties. Some fifty injured persons were received at the hospitals.

Some fifty injured persons were received at the hospitals.

Thousands of the homeless were camped on Salem Common tonight, with such household goods as they could save piled around them. Long lines of naturess, most of them on foot, and others in wagons, carriages and automobiles crowded the road leading to levely, where hundreds spent the night in the parks,

Early in the evening the electric light plant was burned out, throwing the city into darkness.
