

Hon. T. D'Arcy Leonard moved, with leave of the Senate:

That the Standing Committee on Finance be authorized to examine and report upon the expenditures set out in Supplementary Estimates (C) laid before Parliament for the fiscal year ending 31st March, 1967; and

That the committee be empowered to send for persons, papers and records, to print its proceedings upon the said Supplementary Estimates (C) and to sit during sittings and adjournments of the Senate.

Motion agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT

Hon. John J. Connolly: Honourable senators, I move, with leave of the Senate, that when the Senate adjourns this evening it do stand adjourned until Tuesday, November 29, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

This is the customary motion in the circumstances. It may well be that the Senate will be required for legislative work before November 29. If it becomes urgently necessary for the Senate to assemble before that date I will consult with His Honour the Speaker, and all honourable senators will be advised. It is expected that we will receive for consideration a bill respecting the National Housing Act, and a supply bill. There may be little other legislation for the present, but the month of December may be fairly busy, depending upon the speed at which legislation reaches us.

Hon. Mr. Reid: Does this mean we recess for two weeks?

Hon. Mr. Connolly (Ottawa West): It means that the Senate will not assemble again until Tuesday evening, November 29, unless it is recalled in the meantime.

Motion agreed to.

The Senate adjourned during pleasure.
