Such being the case it was resolved to celebrate ofr McLachlin's return to Arnprior, after an absence of nearly two months, with a display of their musical progress and a torch light procession. Accordingly upon that gentleman's arrival, on Friday evening last, a torch light procession was formed, and the band, between lines of torch bearers, marched up to his mansion, drew up before the front door, and played several tunes,— During one of the intervals, Mr. W. C. Mitchell presented the following address :-To Daniel McLuchlin, Esq.:
Sir,—The undersigned in their own be half, as well as for the inhabitants of the Village of Arnprior, beg leave to tender you their sincere thanks for your kindness in presenting to this Village a complete set of musical instruments for the brass band Melbourne, Jan. 25.—There is no importwhich we have now formed; and we trust ciate your kindness, but to evince, by our own exercions, a reciprocity of that sentiment which you tangibly illustrated. Welcoming your return after so long an absence, we wish you many long years of undisturbed and unalloyed happiness, to enjoy, among other pleasures, the musical proficiency of London Money Market, March 9.—Conexistence.
