

Not keeping Arms in proper order.

Sec. 91. Any Officer, non-commissioned Officer or Militiaman, who shall fail to keep any arms or accoutrements delivered or entrusted to him in proper order, or shall appear at drill, parade or on any other occasion, with his arms or accoutrements out of proper order, or unserviceable, or deficient in any respect, shall incur a penalty of one pound, for each such offence.

Volunteers refusing to turn out in aid of Civil power.

Sec. 94. Any Officer or Man of a Volunteer Militia Company who, when such Company shall be lawfully called upon to act in aid of the Civil power, shall refuse or neglect to go out with such Company, or to obey any lawful order of his Superior Officer or of any Magistrate, shall thereby incur a penalty of five pounds for each offence.

Recovery of penalties.

Sec. 99. All penalties incurred under this Act or under any Regulations, Orders or Articles of engagement lawfully made or entered into under it, shall be recoverable, with costs, on the evidence of one credible Witness, on complaint or information before one Justice of the Peace if the amount do not exceed five pounds, and before two Justices of the Peace if the amount exceeds that sum; and to the recovery of such penalties all the provisions of any Act or Acts then in force relative to the performance of the duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions, with respect to summary convictions and orders, shall apply in so far as may not be inconsistent with this Act; and any Officer, non-commissioned Officer or private of any Volunteer Militia Company shall be a competent
