our game," said Mitchelson. Alberta's fast break looked better than it has in several weeks. Mike Frisby pulled down 16 rebounds to start many of the breaks and everyone was hustling to keep the running game at top speed.

Another key to U of A's improvement was their better defense. They cut Huskies' shooting percentage back to 33% from Friday's 40%.

Bears gained a 9-point lead in the first five minutes, stretched it to 15 by halftime, and were still pulling away when the final buzzer sounded.

Solyom turned in his second consecutive 20-point night to lead Bears' scorers. Tollestrup followed with 16 points, Panteluk maintained his average with another 15-point game, and Steve Ignatavicius looked like he's recovered from his ankle injury scoring 12.

Faris accounted for most of Saskatchewan's offense, scoring 23 points, while Thompson and Roger Ganes each added 10.

EVOLUTION IS SCIENTIFICALLY BANKRUPT!

Evolutionists themselves show that the alleged mechanisms and evidences usually given for evolution in textbooks are false or outdated, and that evolution violates basic scientific laws.
