The Hon. Arthur Meighen, M. P.

between these Provinces), the Maritime Provinces shipped into Quebec and Ontario 406,533 tons of carload traffic.

I have the original statement from which the enclosed were taken.

With regards, I am,

Yours faithfully,

J. Meighen

P. S. I again call attention to the fact that neither the tonnage carried by the Canadian Pacific Railway nor that of all classes of traffic moving by water, is included. Notwithstanding this, it clearly indicates that the statements which have been made are, to say the least, misleading.
