BLOOD POISON

If you ever contracted any blood disease you are never safe unless the virus has been eradicated from the system.
 At times you see alarming symptoms, but live in hopes no serious results will follow. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore Throat, Ulcers on the Tongue or in the Mouth, Hair Falling Out, Aching Pains, Itchiness of the Skin, Sores or Blotches on the Body, Eyes Red and Smart, Dyspeptic Stomach, Sexual Weakness—indications of the second stage. Don't trust to luck. Don't ruin your system with the old fogey treatment, mercury and potash—which only expresses the symptoms for a time, only to break out again, when happy in domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you.
 Our New Method Treatment is guaranteed to cure you. Our guarantees are backed by bank bonds, that the disease will never return. Thousands of

CONSUMPTION

Is like the constrictor which drops its coils around its victim and slowly tightens them until life is extinguished.

Once the coils are drawn tight there is little chance of escape. The one hope of safety is to break loose at the beginning of the attack.

Those who are showing symptoms of lung disease should instantly begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It will cure obstinate coughs, bronchitis and bleeding of the lungs. It increases the nutrition of the body, and so restores the emaciated form to health and strength.

There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery."
 It is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics.

"I feel it my duty to give my testimonial in behalf of your great medicine," writes Mr.
 John T. Reed, of Jefferson, Tenn. "When I commenced taking Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I was very low with a cough, and would at times spit blood. I was not able to do any work at all, was weak and my head was dizzy. The first bottle I took did me so much good that I had faith in it and continued until I had taken twelve bottles. Now I do not look like nor feel like the same man as I was a year ago. People were astonished and said they did not think I could live. I can thankfully say that I am entirely cured of a disease from which had it not been for your wonderful 'Discovery' I would have died."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only.
 Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Theatrical

It is certainly refreshing to see such a pure and wholesome comedy as "A Brace of Partridges." The presentation of this laugh-provoking play at the Grand Opera House last evening afforded real enjoyment to all, fortunate enough to be present, and that wasn't any too many. The amusement of the piece lies in the funny situations two cousins get into by being mistaken for each other. It is real funny to see the right girl kissing the wrong fellow. Free from horse play that characterizes most so-called comedies, "A Brace of Partridges" is of more than ordinary merit.

ONE MAN'S LUCK.

Steered into a Junior Partnership by a Chance Gust of Wind.

"Speaking of taking in partners," said a downtown business man, "our junior was, you might say, blown in on us, and I saw him started in our direction, though I had no idea of it at the time."

"Going down town one summer morning on a Ninth avenue elevated train I saw sitting opposite to me a young man who caught my fancy, a substantial, earnest, straightforward looking chap, whose looks I liked first rate. He was reading a paper, and presently he tore off from his paper an advertisement leaf that he didn't want and threw it out of a window or tried to, for as a matter of fact it didn't go out.
 A gust of wind with just the right twist to it came along at just that moment and blew the paper back to fall on a vacant seat next to him."

"And as it fell something in it caught his eye, and he picked up that part which he had just been trying to throw away and began earnestly to read it and ended up by folding it carefully and putting it in his pocket."

"About four minutes after I'd got in here that morning this same young man walks in and appeals for a place that we had been waiting for somebody to fill. Our advertisement for a man for it was in that paper which I had seen this young man try to throw away, and which a gust of wind, by one chance in a million or more, had blown back upon him and in such a manner as to fix his attention."

"As a matter of fact I hadn't liked the young man's act of throwing the paper out of an elevated car window.
 A paper floating down and around as that would do might frighten horses and lead to no end of trouble and lots of damage, but no one man thinks about everything, and he'd learn better about this, I knew, and so as a matter of fact I took this young man on the spot on my first impressions of him.
 He far more than made good and in due course of time he came into his junior partnership, literally and truly blown into it."

"Sort of queer, eh?"

A CORDIAL RECEPTION.

The Book Agent Got One That Wasn't Intended For Him.

There is a farmer living just north of Evanston and a book agent somewhere in the cosmopolitan city of Chicago each of whom feels that he is a victim of a cruel circumstance.

Last week the farmer had a note from a nephew to say that the boy would visit the farm on Thursday.
 Uncle and nephew had not met for fifteen years, and the old man drove to the station in his most comfortable coat that he might welcome his sister's child. But the young man failed to arrive. After waiting until the last passenger had disappeared the old man drove away disappointed.

The book agent entered into the dramatic personae early the next morning.
 Looking over the top rail of the barnyard gate, he called, "Hello, uncle!"

The book agent never got such a reception before in all his life. The farmer flung the gate wide open, seized the agent's hand and proposed a whiskered kiss on the forehead.

"Say, this must be heaven," murmured the agent, following the farmer into the house and explaining that everybody at home was as well as could be expected. Not till the agent was full of a boiled dinner and attempted to sell a book did the farmer begin to see a dim light. Charged with impersonating the missing nephew, the agent explained that he greeted all elderly strangers as "uncle," that he even had a few almost real ones in South Clark street in Chicago.

When last seen by the farmer, the agent was still running, and when the real nephew does come he may find an electric current in the latching.

The Best Man.

For the origin of "the best man at a wedding" we must go back many centuries, to days when it was the am-able practice of the budding bridegroom to dispense with the consent either of the lady or her father. He simply waited for a suitable opportunity to capture her and make a bolt with his bride. In this enterprise he found it helpful to have the services of a friend who would assist him in the capture and keep the pursuers at bay until he had got a sufficiently long start. This friend was the prototype of the "best man" of our own unromantic day, when his duties are limited to seeing that the bridegroom doesn't leave the ring behind him or leave the church without taking his hat with him. How times do change!

Love in a girl of sixteen is hero worship.
