

pronounced but with love and veneration in the community which she edified and served during sixty-six years."

The writer of this paper, herself a pupil of the Ursulines of Quebec, is indebted to "L' Histoire du Monastere" and the "Glimpses of the Monastery" for the facts of this remarkable history.

The End.