

THE DIARY OF A BIRTHDAY DOLL

BY ETHEL C. DOW

THIS is quite the most delightful story of the experiences of a doll that has ever been written; interesting to children of all ages. It is charmingly told with a naïve humor, and recounts how its heroine, a birthday gift to a little girl, wins her way to her youthful mamma's affections. Each chapter tells of the happenings of one day, which gives the tale the character of a diary.

The book is beautifully illustrated with six full-page color plates by Florence England Nosworthy, and numerous pen-drawings by Louise Clark Smith. This volume is a beautiful piece of book-making, bound in cloth, with an inlay picture in full color on the cover. Each book is packed in a decorated box, sealed in a glass-tissue paper wrapper; size of book, 7½ x 9¼ inches.

With each book is sent a reply post card, which, if mailed to the publishers, will entitle the sender to a beautiful reproduction in full color of the picture on the cover of the book; size, 12 by 16 inches, without advertising.

LIST PRICE, $1.25

EDWARD STERN & CO., Inc., PUBLISHERS, PHILADELPHIA
WILLIAM BRIGGS, PUBLISHER, TORONTO, CANADA