

as ducts but as drains, and much wet land might be laid dry by judiciously planned fences. The wet should always be separated from the dry land, as the place and depth of the ditch may thus often lay both dry.

PIG-STIES.—The pig-sties for small farms will be found very useful if placed convenient to the kitchen; for, although not a sightly view, no offal ing.

ng.
ing.
ing.
ing.

MOON.
R.	S.
5	0
○ rises.
6	51
7	38
8	25
9	12
9	59
10	49
11	53
Morning
1	8
2	12
3	16
4	20
5	25
● sets.
6	22
7	6
7	50
8	34
9	19
10	3
10	47
11	34
Morning
0	33
1	39
2	45
3	51
4	57
○ rises.

- 1 Fargus went to Kingston
- 2 Commenced tubing in Am. urn
- 3 Time day rather cloudy
- 4 Rainy
- 5
- 6
- 7
- 8
- 9
- 10
- 11
- 12
- 13
- 14
- 15
- 16
- 17
- 18
- 19
- 20
- 21
- 22
- 23
- 24
- 25
- 26
- 27
- 28
- 29
- 30
- 31

Attend to all vegeta- pen. Pre- t. Unnail ve air and of vermin. roots this wer early, e cold and ather cover