

GOSPEL.

When business is slack advertise. Any one can sell when things are booming. To overstate a case attracts attention to the matter, but is apt to weaken one's confidence in the one who exaggerates.

Mr. J. C. Jordan, of River Glade, N. B., recently visited Hood Farm, Lowell, Mass., and after going over the herd of Jerseys very carefully selected a son of Hood Farm Poggi 9th, the great bull at the head of the Hood Farm herd, the only son of Figgis in service, and probably the most valuable bull living. Figgis, it will be remembered, was champion and grand champion cow in the World's Fair show-ring at St. Louis last fall. This young bull carries the blood of Sophie's Tormentor, the sire of the grand champion, Figgis, and 20 others in the 14-lb. list, through both sire and dam. To mate with this bull, Mr. Jordan selected six very choice cows, all highly bred, and combining the Hood Farm requisite, utility and beauty. They are all of about the same color, light fawn, and are as handsome a bunch as anyone could wish to see.

Anyone wanting to purchase A1 Shropshire sheep will consult their own interests by looking up the advertisement of Mr. Abram Rudell, of Hespeler, Ont., in this paper, who is offering Shropshires of different ages from first-quality stock, several of the breeding ewes being of Mansell's breeding. The best of rams having been used upon them has built up a flock second to none in quality, as a proof of which we note that at the Provincial Winter Fair, Guelph, with stock of his own breeding, Mr. Rudell won first prize for a pen of three lambs against St. Louis and Chicago International winners. These young things look like continuing to go forward, and, perhaps, repeat similar honors again. This flock can be seen conveniently, as it is just about a mile from the town of Hespeler, which is only a few minutes' ride on the G. T. R. from Guelph, or it may be reached by trolley line from Berlin or Galt. When wanting a few good yearling rams or ewes or good lambs, give him a call.

Mr. Richard Wilkin, Harriston, Ont., breeder of Scotch and Scotch-topped Shorthorns, and whose advertisement runs in this paper, has a strong, useful herd, headed by two well-bred Scotch bulls. Most of the young stock is by Provost =37865=, a Cargill-bred bull, by Palermo (imp.) 36074, dam Scottish Ringlet (imp.). This bull has produced some really good stock for his owner and others. Mr. Wilkin has just landed a choice, thick thirteen-months-old bull to use upon his young stock, in Scottish Volunteer =56870=, sire the massive, thick show bull, Scottish Prince (imp.) =50090= (84728), dam Clementine 3rd, by Prince Louis (imp.). Scottish Volunteer is a mellow, soggy, dark roan, with a mossy coat of hair, and plenty of substance, a good deal like his sire. We look for him to produce the right kind of stock, as he is a good one from good ones. At the same time as the above was bought, a fine pair of heifer calves, namely, Fairy Pearl, a red, by Imp. Scottish Prince, dam by Imp. Guardsman, that should make a show heifer. The other is a nice quality roan, Lillian 2nd, by the same sire, dam Lillian 39726, by Guardsman (imp.). Mayflower 3rd, imported by the late Hon. M. H. Cochrane, has developed into a smooth cow of good size and is breeding well, having produced a good yearling in Mayflower 4th, by Imp. Scottish Hero, and a bull calf, by Provost. The above mentioned lot, along with some others, in the herd that have won many honors for their owner at county and township shows, make up a bunch that are a credit to any breeder anywhere. Among Mr. Wilkin's Clydesdales we noticed a pair of exceedingly well-bred imported mares. One, Maid of Aireland, rising three years old, by Woodend Gartley (10663), dam Nellie of Aireland. She is in foal to Imp. Baron Lorne and should breed something good. The other mare, referred to is Lily Alexander (imp.), a five-year-old, by Captain Alexander (10175), dam Sally, by Cairngorm (6567). This big, strong mare is also in foal to Baron Lorne. When in need of either of the above lines of stock, write Mr. Wilkin, or better still, call and see what he has.
