work and pionty of 11.7 If he missed any little would have the stewards down upon him at once. He hoped the ards down upon him at once. He hoped the committee would detach a few places where £4,the periahing without her pale, living without her pale, living but thou said, into a decade to result only or £5,000 had been apent with no adequate return. (No, no.) Let them trylnew fields. It was said that in the villages the parson and the source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are
source was against them. They ought to he are source was against them. They ought to squire was against them. They ought to be as- great mission, Does she present that radiant is declared to be the simost to:al absence of pas-There were parsons and squires in the time of as he was about to ascend the Cross, so earnthe first Methodis's; and would they forget the early supplicated for which the world waits, rule it is seserted that systematic, house to house day of Pentecost, when all difficulties were over- and which it will insist on beholding, before it visitation of the families adhering to Methodism come? They must try and convert the squire fully believes in his mission, and boxs to his in the villages, is not even so much as attempted. and the parson, too, if necessary. It was pusil- sceptre? lanimous to talk of such thirgs. Only let the lay friends back them up, and there were plenty and expressed with high satisfaction our heart- lar clock work system follow each other all of Methodist preachers ready to do God's work felt appreciation of those tendencies towards round the circuit at certain intervals on week both in town and country.

Gbitnarp.

OBITUARY NOTICES-GERMAIN ST., ST JOHN Since the commencement of the present year the limit of three score years and ten, died after ous to the cause of God and the poor. For several months previous to her death the work of divine grace was evidently maturing in her experience, and though the nature of her fina gratitude and peace she could not speak.

Soon after we were called to follow the remains of MR. D. S. MARSHALL to the tomb. He him quivering on the brink of death. And thus

Mr. Humbert himself was seized with a severe illness. He had long sustained an unimi eachable vital and saving element of true religion. O this he became deeply and painfully convinced. Penitentially and earnestly he sought salvation impetus. by grace. He felt the necessity of the atonecame the peace of conscious pardon, and the evidential " fruit of the Spirit."

and friends, he partially and for a time recov- October. ered. For a few weeks he regained strangth, so Most fervently do we hope, that the invitaand as an avowed disciple to tread the courts of tended, may be heartily responded to, by a the Lord. But infinite wisdom ordered it oth-numerous assemblage from all parts of the thought and feeling,—original, tender and pure, the family. It was the crowning act of his earthly devotion. In a few minutes after his retiremay be crowned with the especial influence of fervor of feeling, evoked by the Revival of the His family were summoned to his presence, but mind. ere they could come together the apark of life had fled! Calmly smiling, in his own benignant manner, he " fell on sleep." Thus have we reason to say on behalf of our Christ." gation.

into the joy of their Lord.

tage of them, in large numbers of faithful con- erally aiming. verts to the kirgdom and service of the Lord Jesus Christ.

St. John, Aug. 13th, 1869.

Provincial Wesleyan. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 25, 1869.

sented to supply my enforced lack of service by penning the enclosed excellent and interesting remarks on a subject of much present interest.

Young Men's Christian Associations.

truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with modes of operation relied upon, have been found power in that treasured hymn :the glory of the Lord." This promise confirm- unfitted for the work to be accomplished. ed by an oath, is the worlds hope; and the fact that it was announced at a period when the

But, how will the grand consummation be Cottage visitations and in all imaginable ways achieved? Not by might, nor by power, but the sleepless hostility of the Episcopal rural minby my Spirit, saith the Lord. Not, however, istry makes itself felt against the interests of Meby his isolated or miraculous energy, but through thodism. A scattered agricultural population, his Church, as his faithful witness, and in a very important sense, the pillar and ground of the matter and ground of the glory shall be a defence." The words were musical—the coft warblings of the glory shall be a defence." The District to have a good look at the son of our belowed. truth. To qualify the Church for this high and holy function, it is not another that the surface; which they now occupy among the higher Edu adjoining Mr. Rogerson's country residence,— Committee will meet again (D V.) in Annual Queen, and the general examples of the surface; which they now occupy among the higher Edu. holy function, it is not amough that she have a name to live. She must become the conscious, in towns, might be expected to some extent to prose." Charles Wesley met this necessity, and satisfaction therefore, as well as for the information of America. For your own with baskets full of good things to encourage limited met again (D V.) in Annual streets and the general excamation was, and the general excamation name to live. She must become the conscious, in towns, might be expected to some extent to proce." Charles Wesley met this recessity, and satisfaction therefore, as well as for the infor- with baskets full of good things to encourage June next.

In a recent issue, we referred to this topic, Ministers stationed on them, these on a regumore fraternal relations and affection observ- days to preach. But they generally, it is alleable among evengelical protestant denomina- ged, nom- just in time to take their appointments, tions, which unquestionably rank with the most and return to their homes after service the same auspicious signs of the times. Herein we do evening. On Sabbath days, the Local preachers rejo ce, yes, and will rejoice.

In addition to the cheering presages of a coming era of Spiritual Catholicity, to which we larger congregations in the towns comprised the Germain St. congregation in St. John has then a luded, we deem as especially noteworthy within the bounds of the circuit. The services suffered much by bereavements. The first was the vigorous operation and rapidly expanping rendered the cause of religion by the disinter-MRS. ROBERT ROBERTSON, who, having passed progress of Young Men's Christian Associations. ested and self denying labours of the Local These noble Institutions, though of comparative- preachers are beyond price. Methodism can a few days illness. She was of a remarkably by recent origin, are already wielding a comsmiable disposition, had a high regard for the manding influence of the most salutary kind. ble body of men. That order of evangelists jects and aspirations, in creed purely evacgeli- blessed work with the greatest affection and care. cal, and animeted withal by a truly catholic Their place in Methodism cannot be supplied spirit, they are uttering a most influential practical protest, against the unhallowed, supercil- yet seems evident that the system of operation malady precluded the expression of jutilant 1000, assumptions, of priestly pretension, and which makes no provision for the effective pasto-

ing in his disposition, and, while health permiting in his disposition, and, while health permitted diligent in his attendance upon the means of grace. For eighteen months the means of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept
of affliction was heavily laid upon him, and kept of the origination of the which constitutes, by yet for the sake of the laid with one attraction to which constitutes, they yet for the sake of the laid with one attraction to which constitutes, they yet for the sake of the laid with one attraction to which of the laid with one attraction to which originate and truncing to wheat and attraction to where the l he was refined as silver and purified as gold until the strong man bowed himself in dissolution, and his soul went up to join the great multile, and a graduate of the Conservation of the merits of divers and distant streams, and nominations until the strong man bowed himself in dissolution, and his soul went up to join the great multile merits of divers and distant streams, and nominations until the incontinent would wither away like grass.

The Chairman's well-known suavity was particularly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his judiculty of securing another were less than excolarly manifest on this occasion and his ju titude who have come out of much tribulation, hail such institutions, as auxiliary, in no ordintitude who have come out of much tribulation, hail such institutions, as auxiliary, in no ordintitude who have come out of much tribulation, hail such institutions, as auxiliary, in no ordintitude who have come out of fabulous size. Now I am tory of Music of Leipsic, has been engaged and and have washed their robes in the blood of the ary degree to the highest interests of vital sible for ministers of pasteral habits to make charmed for a few moments with a bit of an In- will enter upon his duties the first of September. One of the most attentive visitors at the bed- Christian union? What professed disciple of every village and hamlet on every Circuit in given by an irreverant Yankee, who avers that complished lady teacher. side of Bro. Marshall, was John Humbert, the Redeemer, would not devoutly wish and England. There are strong reasons for believ whereas a certain leading man in the U. S. bas | With the aid and sympathy of the Metho-E.q. The kindness of his heart was very great fervently pray, that, so long as they continue to ing that in no occurry where Methodism is estimated a reputation for wisdom and deep sagar dists of these Provinces, under the blessing of and this fact together with a similarity of age, and a friendship of many years' standing made are sta and a friendship of many years' standing made to been characterised, their path may be as bim almost a daily attendant at the couch of his silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year little of the path may be as silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year little of the path may be as silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year little of the path may be as silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year little of the path may be as silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year little of the path may be as silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year little of the path may be as silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year little of the path may be as silent simply because he had nothing to say. him almost a daily attendant at the couch of his pair may be as silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year was silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year was silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year was silent simply because he had nothing to say, to be much larger for the year than among the English villages. They present so, dozing and listening, the time passes not a career of increasing usefulness such as will ful-

our heart and sout, we bid them GOD SPFED! evangelistic cultivation.

The Convention lately held under the anspir thoughtful and serious, but yet had lacked the of Maine, was an occasion of heart-stirring in-

Emulating the zeal of our Republican neighment of Christ, and fled for refuge to it. Tren bours, the members of the Association in St. John, N.B., we are glad to observe, have issued than some at present in vogue. a Circular appointing a similar Meeting in that Contrary to the expectations of his attendants city, to take place during the second week in as to indulge the hope of being able once more, tion, which we understand, has been widely exerwise. On Tuesday evening, 3rd inst., with Dominion, and from the United States. Let it -flowing up from the very depths of the soul. more strength than usual, and in a most fervent be the earnest prayer of the friends of this Not until the eighteenth century in England manner he poured out his soul in prayer with blessed enterprise that the approachnig reundid the fulness and power of Christian life find ment to rest, the death struggle was upon him. the Spirit of power, and of love, and of a sound last century, demanded expression, He who is -

Village Methodism

For some time past, the condition and prosdeparted friends, "Thanks be to God which peets of Methodism in the villages and more rugiveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus ral parts of England, have been engaging the anxious attention of many of the leading minds But "that victory" has been granted to some of the Wesleyan Connexion in the parent counof the young as well as the old of our congretry. The surject has been discussed at some length in the columns of the Watchman and the Anne Benson and Mary Wilson were toth Methodist Recorder; and we should infer that the children of pious parents, and both the sub- anever-lespening interes; is being felt in the jecta of painful and protracted illness. The matter by intelligent English Methodists. The former died of consumption in April last, the testimony in regard to the facts, however, is latter of heart disease in the month of July .- somewhat conflicting. In certain rural localities, No pen could adequately describe the sufferings it seems clear enough that Methodism is of these dear youths. But in them "the grace making steady and healthful progress in all reof the Lord Jesus Christ was exceeding abun-spects. In other country places, though not dedant with faith and love." Restless nights and caying, it is not keeping pace with its advanceagonized days were borne with patience. The ment in the towns and cities throughout the Saviour unseen, but loved, was all their hope Kingdom. In some rural distric's, the evidence and desire, and when he bade them "go up goes to show that Methodism is rather declining higher' they welcomed His voice and entered than holding its own. Upon the whole we think it has been made to appear that in England ru-We trust that such scenes may have their due ral Methodism is not advancing as rapidly as influence upon the hearts of the surviving rela- urban Methodism. This too seems to be the tives, and that the Church may reap the advan- conclusion at which our people at home are gen-

A conviction of this sort could not be entertained by the English Methodists without its causing them much regret and some anxiety. On other days Methodism won some of its noblest triumphs in the English villages. Many of its worthiest sons and its very ablest ministers -men who from their physical vigour, their inrellectual robustness, their manly simplicity of character, their indo nitable energy of soul, have trating attack of illness has precluded me from the fold in the breezy village hamlets of the wellcontributing my quota to your columns this cultured Isle. It would fare badly with Moweek. Dr. Riobey, however, very kindly con- thodism hereafter should the healthful village supplies to its theological schools and pulpits be cut off or materially diminished. It is to be beped that no such calamity is in store for our Church on either side the Atlantic. Meanwhile the comparative'v languishing condition of village Methodism in England is the subject, as Among the earlier prophetic reverations that we have said, of much enquiry and discussion. illustrate the pages of the volume of Inspiration, The Methodist people desire to know what obstands the memorable oracle uttered by the lips stacles confront Methodism in the country not of Jehovah himself. "And the Lord said, as successfully grappled with in the towns, or what

To the enquiries made on this subject, various responses have been obtained from those professpirit of unbelief and revolt pervaded the camp sing to be well-informed on the question. But of Israel, and threatened the frustration of the their substance may be reduced to two points. plans and purposes of God, for the perretuation First, there are obstacles presented to the adand spread of truth and righteousness in the vance of Methodism in the country not existing earth, ought to teach us never to despair of the in equal strength in the towns. Every part of the ultimate triumph of His cause, however dark country is net-worked by the percebial system and ominous the gloom which, to the eye of The rural clergy of the Church of England have reason may overshadow the future. Difficulties vastly more influence in the villeges and more insuperable to human or angelic agency, can-thinly inhabited portions of the country than in nality. Once Geo. Herbert was almost the only not impede the steady progression of his purpos- the large usban communities. That influence es towards the goal of their destined accomplishis largely used in the most unscrupulous manner ment. The zeal of the Lord of hosts, demolish- for the suppression of Methodism. In the maning in its career every barrier, will perform this.

But secondly, it is effirmed that the obstac'es elevated and rapt, which in private devotion Sackville, I send you a few notes in regard to regard time. Did not the circuit stewards find regular indubious demonstrations of his presence to work and plenty of it? If he missed any little walk in her; she must challenge and compel rejust noted do not sufficiently account for the can be used intelligently by the humblest Christon our opening prospects.]

It is all very well to dilate upon the advansquire was against them. They ought to be asgreat mission, the sale present that radiant is declared to be the Wesleyan Ministry on the tages of a sea trip, but consider the cost, co er the exhaustive taxation to which the winds and the waves subject us, and the offensive mode in which it is levied. In vain many physicians English circuits generally have two, three or four you, impotent victim of its malice, "all of a for the most part occupy the village pulpits-the feases to have sounded all the depths of misery College. in voyages East and West and North and South Ministers of Christ, and was exceedingly generSimple in their constitutions, holy in their obought to be fostered and encouraged in their constitutions, holy in their obfavorable conditions of fine weather, fair wind Professor enforced the claims of satheletic cul-Granting all this promptly and gratefully, it malady precluded the expression of jutilant emotion, yet she gave satisfactory evidence of the emotion, yet she gave satisfactory evidence of the emotion. ritualistic Pharissiam. Representing every section of the great Protestant commonwealth and cheerfully conceding to each other the continuous and cheerfully right to hold, and, on all proper occasions, seems clearer to us than the conclusion that if right to hold, and, on all proper occasions, seems clearer to us than the conclusion that if conds" remembering that to profit it is necessary uncompromisingly to vindicate their respective the system of circuit operation said to be in use "to have and to hold." At the worst I lie there the Gospel of Christ, delight to merge their de- on this side the Atlantic, whether is the Domingers. Sportsmen—perhaps the birch cances on nominational distinctions, in those higher spirition or the United States, rural Methodism on on deck are theirs, intended to carry them godliness and preeminently so, as promotive of their influence felt in every Wesleyan family in dian snake story, and the next variation is neighbor. Shortly before Mr. Marshall's death, unto the perfect day? For ourselves, with all a field that would giobly repay the most thorough unpleasantly. I have no sense of responsibility ful the aspirations of their Founder, and glad-We augur well for the interests of Methodism perfection. My mind is at ess, and-can it be for their prosperity. reputation in the community, he had been ces of this Institution, at Portland, in the State from the enquiries and discussions going on in myself?-my budy too, on the "Banks." I am cultivating quiet on Sabbath morning, Mount Allison, Aug. 20, 1869. terest, and appears to have imparted to the subject. We believe these discussions are not for the freshened breeze and tumbling billows cause, a fresh and more than usually potent, only calculated to bring important facts to light remited me of my former weakness, and as I that ought to be deeply pondered; but also like- emerge from one of the little dips into absolute ly to suggest improved methods of labor better slumber, tones more serious than I have lately adapted to meet the emergencies of the times

Charles Wesley's Hymns.

" The source of the old prophetic fire,

"O for a thousand tongues to sing

My great Redeemer's praise !'

" Depth of mercy, can there be

" God is Love, I know, I feel:

" Jesus, Lover of my soul.

Let me to thy bosom fly

"O Love Divine. how sweet thou art

All taken up by Thee?"

When shall I find my willing heart hymns is in harmony with their intense perso-poet of religious themes in England. No wonder, after listening to sweet quaint fancies ex-

" For where before Thou still didst call on us

And harp on Thee.

Against me there is none, but for me much " pressed in the intricate words of Herbert :-

Now I still touch

God's promises have made Thee mine.

Why should I justice now decline?

Jesus weeps, and loves me still.'

ulting joy :-

to music :-

Fountain of Light and Love,"

Church of God.

I. LYRICAL EXCELLENCE.

They are eminently bymns of the heart, of times? And did you, my friend, ever meet these neat lines by Samuel Wesley ?

" Even Watts a form for praise can use, For prayer who casts it by Crutches to walk, he can refuse. Eut uses them to fly " of treasured excellence were bequeathed to the The intense personality of Charles Wesley's his best during twelve months. With a clear of his power, and the tenants of the tomb. hymns supplied a new and essential element in sky and off shore wind, we keep close in to the the service of song. Even the hymns of Dr. land than is usual, for we have a special mission. least, who have a beart to appreciate whatsoever Watts, with all their classic purity and depth of Within the past fortnight two or three vessels things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, tenderness, blended strength and sweetness, are bays been wrecked on the coast, and we have whatsoever things are of good repert—to reverse generally didactic rather than lyrical. Wesley's on board divers with their boat &c, who must and love her, as in a very emioent degree, blamehymns were woven out of the chequered expebe landed at Cape Pine lighthouse, and who will less and harmless; but whose goodness was, by fied. By recommendation of District, this matter riences of his own life; and therefore all emo- endeavour to recover some of the valuable prop- no means, merely negative. There was a calm tions of the mind, all modes and moods of eity sunk. After much bawling and hauling dignity in her bearing; and I never remember mental and moral being-all phases of spiritual we are clear of them, and as they pull towards to have seen her, without feeling as though an life find in them full and ample expression.

I envy the man who, with comfort to himsely ed hallowed lips with sacred flame, -and hymns good it fluence upon the mind.

to nave seen ner, without feeling as though an above all, let our worthy Circuit Officials take Brother William H. Burns, was labouring here "Christian experience," sais the accomplishment of sacred poetry, James Montgomery," from the deeps of sell ction, and a little further on under the cliff we see, proval, and awakened her complishment of the financial sky will soon brighten and there "be no more a reproach."

Interpretation the data was included in the same at mosphere of benignity, congenial with the mind that was in Christ, was circulating around without a doubt the financial sky will soon brighten and there "be no more a reproach."

Brother William H. Burns, was lab uring nerve mind that was in Christ, was circulating around with the financial sky will soon brighten and there "be no more a reproach."

Brother William H. Burns, was lab uring nerve mind that was in Christ, was circulating around without and doubt the financial sky will soon brighten and there "be no more a reproach."

ence of diction and a spicedour of coloring gods, must be to the mariner who has been her profession of Christian attainments, a model be in monthly or quarterly instalments and not The first hymn in the Wesleyan Hymn-book ignorant of his whereabouts! They are a comGod had done for her, than to be exalted above that at or towards the end of the year? A n aristocratic life, had found peace in Jesus, but | twinkles, tells us rest and home are nearer.

was afraid to publish it, lest the joy should prove evanescent, Charles Wesley urged the im- with a smooth sea, and with the land so near For more than half a century, her life was uni- Church was much less than now; and enlisting cortance of testimony for Christ,—that if he had that we can see the houses in the settlements formly a lecture silent, but of sovereign power, the sympathy of such members of our Congrethat we said should be employed,—near Caps Broyle. The friendly moon lights us holding forth to all within the sphere of her ingations as give nothing is all that is necessary, then with a full heart swept his lyre, and asked, on our way shaming the beacons on Cape Spear fluence, the word of life. and the blockhouse. We slacken speed; a blue The depth of sorrow and contrition which he been able to perform heroulean labours in the service of the Lord Jesus—were gathered into the service of the Lord Jesus—were gathered

The calm repose of the spirit finding refuge in the Saviour, finds language of sweetness and Longings of the heart for the full conscious pre sence and perfect love of God, are embodied in lines, which Handel deemed worthy of being set should we have had when we gathered once more around the friends at home! How much better, if it be His will, to have no experience of great deliverance! "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits." The noble simplicity of Charles Wesley's

St. John. N. F.

Correspondence.

Mount Allison College and Academies dustry, ability and talent is very encouraging. happy occesion.

The Department of Drawing, Painting, &co. remembrance at the hands of our friends - ing for this, we remain, says quietly. "A seidlitz powder now, and under the charge of Professor J. W. Gray, is May they both prosper on their new fields of laevery morning we're out, if needed." No sip likely to become very popu'ar as well as very bor. Adien. of brandy, no drop of port; but when any symp- useful. Mr. Gray's inaugural address on Tuescourse is wonderful. I cannot say how far the which occupied about an hour in its reading, the and comparatively smooth water may conduce to ture. Mr. Gray is a skilful artist, enthusiastic it, but it is a new life to be able to lift one's bead, in his profession, and judging from the numer- Halifax Financial District Meeting.

Your, &c.,

PORTLAND, ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 12, '69. listened to fail upon my half-awakened ear, and The clock has struck 10. I take up the Wes- conceal the fact, the loss of One Hundred and children to parents—from you h to old agesacred words, something about St. Paul. Then leyan; and, prompted by an instinct, incident. Thirty eight D. Pars from his salary, must ope from life to death-and in some, from sin to I drink in the good old prayers and praises of I suppose, to those who consider their latter end, rate most prejudicially against a minister's com. grace, and from grace to glory! the Prayer Book, read by I know not whom, for and who feel that they are themselves approxi- fort, the just claims of his family, and in many I was glad to see that the "Entertainment" my eyes are shut. They do one good, and none mating life's terminus, I naturally turn, even ways that I need hardly enumerate, the true proposed before we left Albion Mines has come the less because I know what is coming .- before glancing at the Leader in the Editorial prosperity of his people, directly as well as in- off so successfully. I hope they will duplicate it "Crutches!" says one. But do you know what department of the paper, to your register of directly. If so, how long sir, I beg most respect- and raise 100 per cent. We had hard times comfort and help there is in a crutch, some- deaths. The first instance of mortulity on which lirlly to ask through you, will our dear people there, owing to little work and large emigration. my eye, falls, is the announcement of the departure from earth of Mrs. Johnson, the wife Surely not until absolute inability to pay his times will flow in prosperously to our brother Dr. Johnson of Chail t stown, P. E. I.

Reminiscences and associations of a nature the most touching, to'emn, and hallowed, rush upon my mind. My heart is deeply moved; and his fellow-voyagers stands up and proclaims and I cannot retire to rest, without indulging in the grace of God in Christ. We hear no sermon meditations upon the c netantly accumulating the graces and virtues which adorned the truly We are running along at a fine sate, so the elect lady, whom the devastating hand of the Captain says, who reckons one of our day's runs last enemy has now numbered with the victims

To know the late Mrs. Johnson, was to all at Montgomery, "" from the deeps of sfill ction, and a little further on under the cliff we see, proval, and awakened her commiseration; but, will not our brethren who are Stewards at once with the waves, the funeral of genuine volutioners of the courtess which the Montgomery, "" from the deeps of sffi ction, through all gradations of doubt, fear, desire, through all gradations of doubt, fear, desire, swaying to and fro with the waves, the funeral of genuine politeness, of the courtesy which the perfect love, in the very beams of the beatific vision—furnishes him with everlsating and inexpansion of the structure reminds one now of the edifices found exhaustible themes; celebrated with an affluration of the mariner who has been been my privilege to witness. Mrs. Johnson was of a disposition very retiring, and in her profession of Christian attainments, a model of the mariner who has been been the courtesy which the courtesy which the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; but, of genuine politeness, of the courtesy which the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; but, of genuine politeness, of the courtesy which the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; but, of genuine politeness, of the courtesy which the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; but, of genuine politeness, of the courtesy which the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; but, of genuine politeness, of the courtesy which the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; but, of genuine politeness, of the courtesy which the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; but, of genuine politeness, of the courtesy which the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; but, of genuine politeness, of the courtesy which the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; thankful to God that his character is such as to most beautiful and perfect impersonation; the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; the warrant us most cor filently to commend to the warrant us most cor filently to commend to the work's sake; and the most beautiful and perfect impersonation; the warrant us most cor filently to commend to the warrant us most cor filently to commend to the warrant us most cor filently to commend to the warrant us most cor filently to commend to the work's sake; and the perfect impersonation; the commendation is a long tossing about in the fog, to a great extent of humility; liable rather to depreciate what as in too many instances now but partially and s characteristic. Conversing with a lady who, fort to us. Each, as its light revolves and measure, by any self-complacent estimate of her little system, demanding enlarged liberality from own virtues, which, I believe, all acquainted those giving, regularly, a sum perhaps long ago We run up shore this fine Sabbath evening with her, saw more clearly than she did herself, fixed when their obligation to God and his > light flashes for a few seconds from the bridge. of his saints! and precious to many, so long as of justice to their ministers. ten minutes later we hear the splash of oars and they live, will be the memory of our now sainted tain's side. "Full speed!" Head straight for venerable man, who, having but lately seen the mutual consultation and exhortation, respecting marked by evidence of the divine blessing.

> > St. John's N. F., 18th August 1869.

consecrated temple of the Holy Ghost. God yield their convictions to their spparent worldly poured forth, in words of the utmost plainness mation of the many readers of the Wesleyan who this labour of love amongst 2 to 300 helpless and simplicity, strains of thought and feeling, are deeply interested in the educational work at children who are now every Sabbath encou-

The several new members of our Educational staff are all entering upon their important work with an address and energy which betaken great staff are all entering upon their important work. Hope took place on the 10 h inst., when officers capt. Campbell and his employers. Near this with an address and energy which betoken great members and friends had a happy time of it loading-ground was a large field, surrounded on succers. The high position as a student which erjoying the good things of this life and stimuhave prescribed many remedies. In spite of all Professor Weldon took, both at our College and lating one another in this good work amongst was cordially tendered us by its owner, Mr. Dunthe dreadful mal-de-mer seized you by the throat at Yale has given him a prestige which, there is the children—may the Temperance cause pros-bar, an old, well-to-do Scotch farmer.

The thing remains the contract of the children—may the Temperance cause pros-bar, an old, well-to-do Scotch farmer.

In this beautiful and most suitable you, impotent victim of its malice, "all of a crease while occupying the Professorial chair, heap" into your berth. You cannot freeze your Mr. Borden's past success and experience as a good Brother Prince is actively engaged in his most invous afternoon in various innocent and spinal marrow, as some recommend, by lying on teacher afford a satisfactory guarantee that his new circuit Carbonear—where his hands are full a long elastic tag filled with ice. You do not work will be well done in the future. In the and if he does not find work for every one and cate, after your experience, to meddle with Ladies' Branch equally encouraging anticipations himself also I will be much disappointed—be trip was greatly enlivened by the dulcet strains chloroform. The smell of the little brandy flask sre warranted in regard to Miss Harriman and left us beloved by all and to remind him of our of music bursting from scores of happy voice, recalls a crowd of miserable memories, and alMiss Mellish; the latter of whom is one of the happy associations together the friends presentled by our live melodian, Brother Donald Framost brings on the catastrophe it was intended most talented of our own graduates, the former ed him with a purse as a memento of our broto avert. What can be done? One who proman gone to Catalina received the same kind terest, efficiency and converting power. Pray-

TERRA NOVA.

Circuit Intelligence

on deck are theirs, intended to carry them will be glad to learn that the inconvenience and The Chairman's well-known suavity was partiroutine was despatched in the usual way and rists say) they have seen in all their travels .-requires no remark.

the Circuits and Stations. Mr. Etitor, no con- lections. . fail to give this matter the attention it deserves?

lic preaching on the duty of systematic benefit but the laborers are few." cence, preceded if you please by a specimen or two from the prophets such as Malachi iii. 10 11 Syduey, C. B., Aug. 19, 1869. and we will, I venture to affirm, be more likely to have what we still more earnestly desire a revival, such as that for which many weep and pray, when over the whole Conference, God's is to be more directly placed before our people. Let the case be fairly and judiciously stated, and the Narrows, and in we go. How beautiful that sepulchre close over the remains of a most estimable son, struck down in the palmy sesson of hearts and throughout the Conference. Would be the characteristic forms the promotion of the work of God in our own hearts and throughout the Conference. Would be the characteristic forms the promotion of the work of Christ. which must be heard in the prayer-service to be came from the North! Bang! we try if the life,—a son whose eye always beamed with bewhich must be heard in the prayer-service to be came from the grayer service to be came from the prayer service to be came from the prayer service to be came from the prayer service to be came from the grayer service to be cam vibrated through waiting hearts, when, in the gone-12 P. M. So we creep through the darkrespected in the community in which be long, and refreshing from the presence of the Lord, presence of hallowed, subduing influence, the ness to the wharf, and thank God we are once and with affictionate solicitude for the suffering. exercised his profession—has now been called conclusion of our District meeting. Thank God If we had been driven ashore in the tog; if to resign the dearest earthly object of his affecting ministers, while but men and needing like other our vessel's sides had been dashed on the rugged tions. What a feeling of desolation must come men the material comforts of life, have bread to rocks an i besten in by the angry waves; if we over his mind, as moving though his house, or eat of, the world knows not of. The Master was had been hauled up the cliff by a tope, and had sitting in the room in which he was wont to encowered in some cavern for a week, cold and joy the society of her upon whom his eye will reat is enough to say Preachers and Stewards were miserable, sustaining life with a handful of wet no more on earth. May the God whom he serves of "one accord" and conversed freely on the biscuit and a few limpets or sea-birds' eggs; if sustain him in the trying bour, and enable him deep things of God. The need of baving faith then in answer to our signal some passing craft to look forward, in blissful hope, to the day, in God in reference to things not seen; of fully had run in and picked us up stripped of all, and which cannot be far distant, when they shall devoting ourselves to the great work in confimore dead than alive—what cause for gratitude meet, never to separate!

M. RICHEY.

M. RICHEY.

Meet, never to separate!

M. RICHEY.

M. RICHEY.

M. RICHEY. couragements; of srising and putting on strength Queen Victoria, arrived yesterday morning in graciously provided for us; of cultivating more the anisit of Christ of shorishin. than ever the spirit of Christ; of cherishing The steamer reachet her moorings at half-past DEAR WESLEYAN:—Your numerous readers will be glad to hear from this corner of the and of constantly bearing in mind that our crowd had assembled at Mesers. Sector's and the adjoining whatves to give a welcome to the "Field" that the work in all its departments is going on steadily although not so powerfully as the laborers could desire. Our new Brethren Dove and Teed are in harness and most accent. Dove and Teed are in harness and most accept- the speakers dwelt with great unction and inter- ately on its arrival. A Guard of Honor from able to our people, men with hearts full of love est. May the great Head of the Church whose to Christ and for Christ's cause will be acceptable anywhere.

est. May the great Head of the Church whose the wharf. At a quarter past ten His Royal half anywhere.

Highness stepped escore, amid the hearty cheefs. united prayer with which the consideration of of the passengers and crew of the City of Paris. Our Sunday School treat went off successfully Ques, 12 was entered upon still hear the suppli- As the carriage of Hiz Honor Sir Hastings Doyle DEAR MR. EUITOR,—Amid the toils and at the country seat of Stephen Rendell, Esquire, cations of his servants; and upon every dwel- in which was the Prince, the Governor German and the country seat of Stephen Rendell, Esquire, cations of his servants; and upon every dwelcares of your new sphere of duty, I am sure that children, parents and friends enjoyed themselves your thoughts often revert to the Educational well, the day was levely, and all around spoke hims cause to be "a cloud and a smoke by day" wharf, the cry was raised "here he comes." your thoughts often revert to the Educational well, the day was levely, and all around spoke blies cause to be " a cloud and a smoke by day, " hats off,"—and cheer upon cheer was given

> GEORGE S. MILLIGAN, Fin. Sec'y. Hali/ax, Aug. 21, 1869.

Pictou Circuit.

The several new members of our Educational Another gathering of the children's Band of three sides by exquisite groves, the use of which

In this beautiful and most suitable spot, our most joyous afternoon in various innocent and Yours respectfully,

P. 8-Oa Sabbath, 1st prox., D. V., a sermon will be presched fer the children of the Subbath Schools, and a collection taken in support of its funds.

Sydney, C. B., Circuit. Rev. H. PICKARD, D. D.-Dear Brother :-

adjournment on Friday morning. Rev. Jas. G. day about 4 P. M. The route travelled was by Pictou steamer to Port Hawkesbury,-from Sixteen ministers and five Circuit Stewards thence overland some twelve miles to West Bay prized, and could not fail to endear him still Bay and Sydney, exceeds that even on the St. more to his brethren. Much of the ordinary John River, and far surpasses any (foreign tou-That is saying perhaps what will be doubted The average deficiency on the dependent Cir- by some; but we would say to them, come and labour upon them can well endure; unless some- at no distant period, especially if the cost be I feel I can do nothing, and I am doing it to den the hearts of those who have long labored thing can be done to increase the receipts of covered by cheerful givers at Conference Col-we met with a sincere and hearty welcome to our new circuit, both by our Presbyterian and person concerned may and ought to know them by application to his Circuit Steward) weeds any the "Cape Breton News." This was heartargument to convince him that however much cheering, after 18 years' abrence, during which MY DEAR DR. PICKARD, -It is evening Christian modesty and honour may struggle to many changes have transpired-from young of the now widowed and mourning, venerable debts which with a minis er of the gospel is in who has succeeded us. Friends of Albion Mines, the proximity of "starvation point;" or the hold up the cause of God amongst you! Here, endurance of unequal burdens, that no profes- we with nineteen others, asked for another sional man outside of the minis ry would submit. Preacher, but we and they were disappointed, to for a day, cons rain men to desist from a work for there were none to send; and until our reconcerning which they feel, " Woe is unto me quest is granted, we cannot meet the wants of if I preach not the gospel." Delicate as this the people here, nor expect to extend our borbreathed the inspiration of rapt devotion, touch to day, but the preyers and lessons leave some spoils of death, and affectionately thinking of Connexion and should not much longer be kept prayer more urgent-" Send forth more laborers in the back ground. We need a revival of apos- into the vineyard, for truly the harvest is great,

River John Circuit DEAR BROTHER PICKARD,-We record with gratitude to God, that this week we had the GENTLEMEN,- great pleasure of receiving thirty-one persons on trial for Church membership, nearly all of whom profess to have late y obtained forgiveness of sins, professors have also been much quickened.

River John, Aug. 14th, 1869.

Liverpool Financial District Meeting.

REV. DR. PICKARD.-Dear Brother.-We have nothing special to note respecting our Financial District. The business was conducted Precious in the sight of the Lord, is the death of his saints I and precious to be done for the honor of the Church and as an act of the Brethren, is not so great as last year.-There appears to be but one feeling pervading

I am, my dear B other. Yours Affectionately, HENRY DANIEL.

General Intelligence.

Colonial.

From the Evening Express of Monday. ARRIVAL OF HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE ARTHUR IN HALIFAX.

His Reception throughout the City. the occasion of his visit in 1860—and Prince Arthur, is very striking indeed. And not only is rd nine years ago, Edward nine years ago, of Prices yesterday, as the subjects greeted his ears subjects sake," was the claimed old gentleman whough no one else may hough no one else may he thought, still it was the thought, atill it was the thought.

the thought, and the crowd. We the His Royal Highness Royal Family is entitled the crowd have been beartly because he and best-beloved Queen t rediately after lan ompanied by the al Doyle, proceeded which place he will re this city as the guest of (at the Garrison Chapel, h was crowded by th Figs were flying in differences, but the display its being the Sa ewing to its being the S His Rayal Highness THE RECEPTION At a quarter to twelv Highness, accompanied to dovernor General, and pr yard, where he landed a from the Citadel, the shi Naval Brigade at Dartmot Oa landing, the prince Excellences Admira! Mu Excellencies Admiral Mu lesly, His Honor the Li-French Admiral and Off hishop and Clergy, I the Members of Legislature, the H gh Sh County, the Stipendiary I and Corporation, the Hes lie Departments, the Ger nittee, and by a Guard of Regiment and the Haifar His Honor the Recorder ADDR To His Royal Highness William A be

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR We, the Mayor and Co Halifax, in the name of your Roya! Highness to sould have been esteeme on our people, and have sure by the inhabitants nor conferred by a visit gracious and beloved Q a of that ismented and i who so long governed was the steadfast frierd deep feelings of joy am a

The British people has plitation that while the Family are exalted in po seend to occupy posts State, and to devote the try; and her Majesty's s of the Empire will enjoy Royal Highness having services to the army. We congratulate the perform the duties of a casion arise for active conviction that Your Ro play that gellantry and which your ances ors ha We most siccerely the er for baving hitherto s eign the Queen, whose and we trustfully pray the to preserve Her Majes

We sincerely hope t Royal Highness on thi prove of much gratifica Your Royal Highness w impressed with the bel British North America and we implore the G keep and sustain Your my years, to exhibit an d manly virtues which Princes, and which wil

(Signed) ST The Members and O

To which His Roy To the Mayor and of Halifax :

Most sincerely do I al Address which you l and I avail myself of quest you to convey fax, of whom you are grateful thanks for ome, which has this I can assure you rith anticipation of stinfaction to hear or ion to bear or highly cherished is a lustrious Grandfather vince for so long. Your touching alle your kind wishes for

After the address a number of gentlemen Judges, C'ergy, and on were presented to The procession the gratifying to Her I that she will hear w and hearty has been he

Four The Mayor, Al The Prin His Excellency t Admirals Mus The Officers of The General M Charitable St. Geor

Afric The streets were Regiment of Militia, til ery, the Marines the ships of war, the neers, the 16th an Usion Protection Co sons, were drawn up spective balls, and t were ranged by the The houses slong cession were crowde reception given His most enthusiastic de Since six o'clock making ready for only the streets th passed, every street rated. To give fuil time nor space, but ler deserves hone street, from above nauce, flags, on st dows and house to direction; but as y the scene is brillia building in the nor its quota of flags, sign and Union Ja toes, and device and altogether, co lowed for preparat

Up George Stre again another plea The children from stationed in front ed. The houses