Proposed New Bishopricks.—At the Lichfield Diocesan Conference at Stafford, the Committee of Diocesan Administration presented a report in which they considered that urgent need had arisen for the division of the diocese. They recommended that the present archdeaconries in Staffordshire should be formed into two independent sees, and that the archdeaconry of Salop should be merged into a new diocese embracing the whole of Shropshire. If that were done, the three dioceses would be as follows: Lichfield, population 688,586, rural deaneries 12, benefices 196; Stoke-on-Trent, population 450,000, rural deaneries 9, benefices 134;

Shropshire, population 240,000, rural deaneries, 20, benefices 284. The Bishop of Lichfield favoured the scheme, of which the Conference unanimously expressed approval.

All Saints', Petersham.—This beautiful church held its first dedication festival recently. Solemn Evensong was sung on Sunday, when an appropriate sermon was preached by the Dean of Westminster. On All Saints' Day there were celebrations of the Holy Eucharist, at 7 and 8, and Solemn Evensong at 8.15. The preacher was Rev. Lord Victor Seymour, who took for his subject, "The Communion of Saints." Other preachers were Rev. Father Dalley and the Rev. L. S. Wainwright. It may be interesting to add that there are several experiments being tried in this parish, viz., choir and organ at the west end; an orchestra of six harps, under the direction of a Guild Hall Professor; and a Sunday "Social," with tea, if required, every Sunday from 5 till 7, at which sacred music is performed. This is intended to draw people to church from shops and other business houses. It may be mentioned that at the beginning of this year there was no choir except an old-fashioned mixed choir in the village.
