ARE FLORENCE KINBADE'S SWOONING FITS GENUINE? This is the Question That "Well. I fired one shot in an alley at a nail in the fence some years ago." "When else did you fire a revolver?"

said Mr. Blackstock.

know for what purpose.

BECAME EXCITED.

answered Kinrade.

is Puzzling Crown Authoritics

FOUR

Kinrade Angered at Treat ment Accorded His Daughter Florence Will Not be Recalled-Assassin Fired Nine Shots

HAMILTON, March 12 .- "The man, she wailed, "He'll shoot me."

The most dramtic incident thus far in the Kinrade inquest occurred at 8.05 tonight, when Florence Kinrade sank back unconscious in the box, Blackstock had asked her the last question, and she had answered it. His closing question was delivered slowly and impressively. "And if the Florence to have gone there. man was not there, only you two girls would be in that house, Miss Kintaking a revolver," he said. rade?'

Yes.

On the words "That will be all," Miss Kinrade sank back unconscious. The policeman was unable to force water past her lips, and the nurse was hurriedly si Miss Walker and the officer gathered up the limp body and started to carry it from the room. Descending the steps of the coroner's hers. dais the girl's lips parted and a piercing shrick rang through the place. "I see that man," was the long drawn out cry. "The man -," she before she went to Savannah?" "No, I never did." wafled. It was finally decided to resume the inquest Fridage evening, the 19th, at eight o'clock. Blackstock aso Savannah with?" "Miss Elliott." sured the jurors that no more than one The witness was closely questioned evening would be occupied. Then the doors which had been closed to preas to who hiss Bliott was but he disclaimed all knowledge of her. He said vent any one entering or leaving the the family's hervous temperament room during the discussion were opened as soon as the constable's formal harm to berself with a revolver. proclamation had been delivered. The continuation of the Kinrade murder inquest, at 3.30 this afternoon brought forth the usual crowds of the curious. Crown Altorney Washington examined the first witness, who was Henry Woolridge, coachman of Mrs. J. L. Counsell. He was sitting on his rig, a short distance east of the Kinrade house about four o'clock the af-ounced tonight that the annual Harward interscholastic track meet will be held in the Stadium May 12. The usu-I wents will be on the afternoon's Al Ments will be on the afternoon's programme. CAMBORIDGE: Mass., Mar. 12.—De-splite considerable talk of abolishing basketball at Barvard next year, be-rause of a lack of interest in the game among the student body generally the members of this year's team today el-octed S. H. Brown, 10, of Marbiehead, as captain. Brown played right guard during the past season and was a sub-stitute guard last year. CLEWEILAND, Ohlo, Mar. 12.—Nor-val Baptie, world's champion profes-

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Mar. 12.-The larvard track team management an-

"When else did you fire a revolver" "Once in a fotel, in the Waldorf Hotel, Hamilton. It was the alght be-fore Good Friday and I took the re-volver from the bank with the intenval Baptie, world's champion profes-sional ice skater, again was defeated by Morris Wood, of New York, totion of solds out next day to shoot as a pastime. I thought the revolver night in the final contests of the inoor meet. In the fifty yard dash won by Charles Rankin, the world's record was empty, and I kept on clicking it was equalled, the new mark being in my pocket, then it went off and the bullet went through my pocket into the floor. It was purely accidental." "But I am instructed that you 05.1-5 NEW YORK, N. Y., Mar. 12 .- In the first of the two hockey games for a purse of $1,000 the Ottawas of Ottawa, threatened people with the revolver," present holders of the world's championship, defeated the Wanderers, of Montreal, here tonight, by a score of "There is no foundation for that," 6 to 4. The witness admitted that he had The second game is to be played to heard of his sister Florence using a revolver in the South, but he did not morrow night. The team winning the largest number of goals in the two nights' play is to get the prize. Both WAS IN VIRGINIA. teams are professional

The Wanderers were formerly pos Florence was in Virginia at the time, sessors of the Stanley Cup, which they and witness heard his father say some-thing about it. He understood his successfully defended for three seasons. It was wrested from them by sister had gone further South, to Sav-annah, and that there not being many the Ottawas on March 3. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Mar. 12-Coach civilized people there his sister Flor-

Louis Pieper, of Harvard baseball ence had taken a revolver with her team, brought the team into the open and had even practiced with it before for the first time this season. The she left for the purpose of self profield was somewhat soggy and fielding tection. This admission created a sen- practice was curtailed. Captain Ned sation, and Kinrade was so upset that Currier caught throws from several he asked for a chair and a drink of pitching candidates, but little hatting water. Kinrade said he did not have was done. It is expected that the any conversation with his sister on ground will harden soon and enable this point, although other members of the team to participate in regular the family said it was foolish for practice.

ST. PETERSBURG, Mar. 12 .- The "They did not like the idea of her international chess turnament ended today in a draw between Lasker, of Brooklyn and Ruberstein, the Lodz expert. They therefore will divide first Kinrade became excited and jumping and second prizes and Duras and Spielman respectively, will be award-ed third and fourth money. o his feet, explained that he did not say his sister had taken a revolver to Lasker today won his game easily. Savannah. He said he did not want to take back any statement he had TORONTO, March 14 .- Just how T. made, but he did want to say that he L. Kinrade looks upon the line of to deport them. In simumber of cases did not know whether she took a recross-examination taken by the crown Petrosino had traced murder to them. volver to Savannah or that it was in Friday night's sitting of the inquest His work was practically destroyed HE HAD RHEUMATISM FOR TEN on the death of his daughter Ethel was by his death, and he did not have.

this revolver she was practicing with Miss Florence Kinrade was carried cord. He was attacked in the darkscreaming out of the court room in the ness at the corner of the deserted arms of her flance, C. M. Wright, Kin- square by two men who fired three his family had been placed during the ally out on the long table he was seen to made them afraid of Florence doing He concluded with the statements tragedy probably because of sleeping the voice rose in a wail. powders. She admitted that while in Nurse Walker hurriedly brought cold Toronio last week she played the water and bathed her temples. piano sometimes. She said she took a Dr. Bruce Smith came and took trip to Savannah or it might have Florence by the shoulders. "Come, been Atlanta, Ga. It took her a little he said, "there's nothing the matter

MARINA SQUARE, PALERMO

Head of Italian Squad of New York Police Goes to Square in Hope of Obtaining Information Against Members of Secret Societies and is Shot Down-Clings Mr. Price here became more ener-getic in his questioning and shouting Desperately to Life-Not the Slightest Trace of Assassins Discovered

ST. JUCK, S 2. FRIAN

THE NEWS ST. JOHN, N. B. FRIDAY MARCH, 19, 1900.

PALERMO Sielly, March 18 .- Lieut. | and the identity of the nurdered man Joseph Petrosino, head of the Italian was at once disclosed. From papers, squad of the New York police head-found on him it appears that he was squad of the New York police headquarters, was shot to death at nine sathering evidence with reference Italian criminals in the United States. o'clock last evening under the shadow There were also notes concerning the of the trees of Marina Square in this city. Whether he was dured there or Palermo members of the Black Hand. Several postal cards were found adnot is unknown, but it is believed that dressed to his wife, "Adelina Petro-Petrosino, who during this stay in sino, 223 Lafayette Square, New York." Sicily has been indefatigable in searchand a metal badge number 285. ing out the records of Siellan crim-From other papers found on the body inals, went to the square in the hope of obtaining information which he cont appears that Petrosino had made a tour of Sicily and had given special sidered of the utmost importance. The attention to Trapani. The magistrate identity of the assassins has not been gave orders that the body be transdisclosed, for they made their escape ported to Rotalle cemetery, where a after having made certain of the death post mortem was held. of the detective. Not the slightest trace of them has yet been discovered but undoubtedly they were men who had reason to dread Petrosino's presence in Italy, either be-

Can't Praise cause he was on their tracks, or on the tracks of fellow members of Them Too Much some of the secret organizations from America. Petrosines has managed to collect while here much evidence of the criminality of a darge number of So Says Charles Bell of Italians who have taken refuge in the United States which would shave given Dodd's Kidney the American governments the power

Pills

"Did you ever learn what became of very emphatically indicated when much time to place, thereats on re-YEARS AND THE OLD RELIABLE KIDNEY REMEDY CURED HIM COMPLETELY.

"Do you know who your sister went rade was in a little room where he and shots at him. Petrosino though mert- Mar. 12 (Special) .- "I am so filled with wounded, clung desperately to gratitude to Dodd's Kidney Pills that sessions, and as his daughter was laid life and showed at the very last mo- I cannot praise them too highly." ment extraordinary courage and cool-. These are the words of Mr. Charles

He concluded with the statements excited," said the eidest son, Ernest, that no member of the family was taking him by the arm and leading him back into the room. The figure lying on the table was the revolver was or where the cart- alternately sobbing and shricking: The sobiling and shricking: The figure lying on the table was a sailor from the first of cines without getting relief, a friend these was a sailor from the surface was the first of the solution of the back into the room. The figure lying on the table was a sailor from the first of cines without getting relief, a friend these was a sailor from the surface may the first of these was a sailor from the surface may the first of these was a sailor from the surface may the first of these was a sailor from the surface may the first of these was a sailor from the surface may the first of these was a sailor from the surface may the first of these was a sailor from the surface may the first of these was a sailor from the surface may the first of the first of these was a sailor from the surface may the first of the surface may t one shot and then fell to the ground. for ten years," Mr. Bell continues, "I "Oh, Ethel," she cried. "Ethel, they Calabria, who, as he ran up, saw the Pills. Six boxes cleaned the Rheuma-Florence Kinrade was then called. -they think I did it. I-I-. Oh, She said she had slent well since the Bthel-, he will shoot me-Oh-," and grasping the iron bar with nerveless That's what Dodd's Kidney Phils do hed him to Rheumatism-clean it right out of Petrosino fell to the endund covered you. They do this simply and naturwith blood which was flowing from a ally. Rheumatism is caused by uric desperate wound in the face. acid in the blood. When the kidneys He was dead before the seilor and are healthy they strain this uric acid others who came to his assistance out of the blood. With no uric acid in could raise his head. the blood there can be no Rheumatism, A magistrate, who was notified of Consequently to cure Rheumatism, the assassination, went imendiately to cure your kidneys. Dodd's Kidney the spot and ordered the body scarched Pills always cure the kidneys.

anything he said could be used as evi-WILL BRING Judge McLeod admitted the evidence, and, continuing, the chief said: "The prisoner said, 'I don't know how I came to do it. I'm going to teil all about it.' The prisoner was crying at the time. There was a general conversation with Mr. Reid and Mr. Anderson, and witness said that in the States they sweat the evidence out of prisoner. He had never said that he was going to sweat Downie. The amounts endorsed on the envelopes and the bose cash found in the satchel amounted to $1,113.23. To Mr. Price .- The chief said he did not remember volunteering any statements in the police court. Boundary Legislation Mr. Price .- "I think you are taking a oue from ____'' Judge McLeod.-"'Now, Mr. Price

5£5510N

EARLY CLOSE

Postponed

to Prorogue Early in May

you must not comment on me." loudly commanded the chief to answer OBJECTIONS RAISED Mr. Hazen appealed to the court, saying that such conduct on the part of Mr. Price was most offensive, and His Honor should call his attention to Government Expects House His Honor told Mr. Price that he must not shout at the witness in such a manner as it would not do.

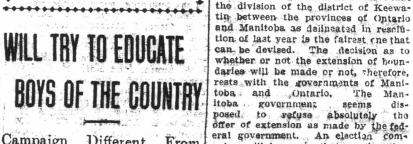

Continuing, the chief said he did not think it wise to have left the money in the office when it was found by Sergeant Campbell.

OTTAWA, Mar. 14 .- In view of the Albert Foster, the cashier, was reaction of the Manitoba government in called and said that on the day of the robbery he left his cash drawer locked. refusing to consent to the proposed Mr. Reld had a key for it, the drawer extension of provincial boundaries as did not have the appearance of having laid down in the resolution passed by been forced, although it might have the federal parliament last session it been opened by a knife blade. The is understood that there will be no legattorney general said that this closed islation brought down by the governthe case for the crown. ment this session to extend the bound-

Mr. Price re-called Mr. Anderson, aries of Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec. who said he could not say if the The extension of provincial boundaries, money was all in the satched is under the British North America. The court adjourned until this norning at 9.30 o'clock.

Act, a matter for imitual agreement between the federal and provincial governments concerned. In so far as  the proposed extension of the boundaries of Quebes are concerned the gov-DOES NOT NEED A DOCTOR. ernment of that province is prepared to endorse the terms laid down by the Mrs. F. Poirier, Valleyfield, Que., + federal government last year. The says: "I always use Baby's Own + views of the Ontario government have Tablets for my little one, and + not yet been definitely made known, therefore never need a doctor, + although it is understood Premier When my baby is feverish or rest. . Whitney wants Ontario :o get a larger less I give her a Tablet and in a + share of the Hudson Bay shore line ress is more ner a trainer and flight.
than the proposed bill gives. The Man They have been of the greatest . benefit to her when toething, and . larger share of Keewatin than parliaare just the thing in all emerg- + ment sanctioned last session and in • encles." These Tablets promptly + addition is pressing as well for a sub-• cure colic, indigestion, constipa- • stantial money grant similar to that + tion, diarrhoea, destroy worms, + granted Alberta and Saskatchewan as break up colds, and make teething + compensation for the withholding Good for children of all + Dominion lands within the province easy. ages. Sold by medicine dealers or + from provincial ownership.

by mail at. 25 cents a box from + The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., + A Fair Division Brockville, Ont, The federal government believes that

66TH SESSION ORANGE GRAN LODGE OPEN

Fredericton Scene Annual Meet GD. MASTER'S REPO

Advises That Order Go S in Matter of Orphanage-Mixed Marriages

FREDERICTON, N. B., Mar. Grandmaster Rev. R. G. Fulton the Grand Lodge to order prom two o'clock this afternoon with ation present. Bro. Rid representation present. Bro. Ride on behalf of the county maste York, and of twenty-four hundred angemen in the county, read an quent address of welcome to Grand Master and Grand Lodge cers and members. The Grand Mà appointed Bros. Geo. E. Day, P. Heine and F. M. Sproul a press

Grand Master's Address

The Grand Master then read his dress. After a warm welcome t sixty-sixth annual session and a ference to the beautiful city in w the, lodge meets and another p graph pointing out the principles the orders and what constitutes membership, the Grand Master d upon the important work outlined the last session in St. John a year and indicated that these import matters would be reported on by spective committees. He recomme that the order "make haste slowly" Orange orphanage matter, his opinion was that the Grand Loc of British America should appropria double the amount that this Gra Lodge contributes.

Not Satisfactory

The interview by the executive w the local government was not satisfa tory to the executive. Outside of c support of Past Grand Mas McLeod their request seemed to me with little sympathy and out of a ca inct of seven, four being Orangeme the order was entitled to better tre ment. He asserted that in referen to mixed marriages the statemen letter issued from the Palace t. John can only be looked upon a blow at liberty and the emanation a mind controlled by bigotry and tolerance.

ternoon of the murder and did not see Florence Kinrade run across the street, nor any man go in or out of the house.

petective Bleakley, who gave evidence last evening, was recalled to give his opinion on whether the girl fell from the chair on the floor where the pool of blood was found. Bleakley did not know whether the girl had been Miss Elliott aaccompanied her and Mr. sitting in a chair when she was shot, Warburton accompanied them. Mis but supposing she was, she might have takien forward or sideways. Elliott later married Mr. Warburton. Earl Kinrade, former bank clerk of

DID NOT TAKE PISTOL. Montreal, and brother of the murdered She said that she did not take a re-girl, was next called. He said the relations netween various members of volver to Savannah, but that Warburthe family were emphatically pleaton, Miss Elliott's flance, warned them sant. He said his two sisters Ethel that he would go armed because of and Florence had been inseparable the negroes there. Florence said she companions and never quarrelled. They did not practice, with a revolver. formerly occupied the same room but The next half hour was devoted by for the last two years had occupied Blackstock to asking questions conseparate rooms. Florence was a strong cerning her visit to Mr. and Mrs. Robgirl, sometimes addicted to headaches, inson of Goderich. She said Mrs. Robwhile Ethel was not strong, but in inson was Miss Elliott's sister. The good health. Witness knew of no fire-Robinsons lived near Palmerston, but arms being in the house, and he never carried a weapon except when he went She did not know any person by the to target practice on odd occasions. "Were you ever in any shooting affray?' which she could not give other than it "Do you mean if I ever shot at any was on a high bank. person? Blackstock kept on asking her ques-

"That is what I mean," said Mr. Blackstock.

"No, I never was," replied Kinrade. The witness then said that he had only of a warship and his wife. She regone out to shoot at a target on one peated that she never fired a firearm occasion. The revolver belonged to a teller of the bank.

"Then your experience with revolv1 ers consists of that one occasion?"

Small Fill, Small Dose, Small Price,

over a day to go there from Ports- with you. You're all right." mouth. She stayed at a hotel, the name of which she did not know, She Soon Able To Stand added that she thought it was Savannah where she visited on this occasion. The doctor's words seemed to have an instant effect. The girl became quiet and was soon able to stand, supported by the nurse and friends. A few moments later, accompanied by Wright and the woman in uniform, she walked down stairs and out to a closed coupe. Little groups of curious people stared after her as the door slammed and the horses, turning, trotted briskly away towards James street.

A conference was held at the parliament buildings Saturday between Deputy Attorney General Cartwright, Dr. Bruce, inspector of prisons and asylums, and Dr. Clarke, of the Teronto asyluni. It is understood the matter had a summer home near Goderich. under discussion referred to the genuineness of the swooning fits which name of Sadie Chambers in the Rob- Miss Florence Kinrade has developed. inson home, the exact location of At the close of the conference the doc tors declined to make any statement as to their conclusions. Crown Attorney Washington was

was

tion after question relative to her asked this morning if Miss Florence stay in Portsmauth. She said she had Kinrade would be called again when supper several times with a captain the inquest is resumed next Friday. "Why should she he called again ? he asked. "I think she has been off in her life and never carried a asked everything that could be asked, weapon around with her. Blackstock unless it might be some questions she questioned her about her visits to the would not care to answer. She will Queen's Hotel at Toronto, but nothing not be called so far as I know." was disclosed. She said she was on It was stated that the sewer leading from the house to the street weund be

DODDS

KIDNEY

PILLS

DNEY

, DI

friendly terms with her sister Ethel, and never had any trouble with her. opened and an effort made to locate Miss Kinrade was made to tell her the revolver that may have been used story of the shooting all over again. by the person who shot Ethel Kin-She said after she handed the man rade, but Washington knew nothing ie money she ran to the bow window about this either. of the back parlor. The man grabbed Detectives and doctors now state her and threatened to shoot her if she that nine bullets were fired by the asmade any outery. She did not see the sassin. Forme man just after that, and thought she given as seven. sassin. Formerly the number fainted then. This was a new point of her story, and Blackstock wanted to know when the idea of fainting first came to her THE MCCAFFREY TROPHY.

She said the idea came to her just at that moment. The famous McCaffrey trophy, the Another new point in her story was that the man was inside the front door and near the vestibule door when sift of J. J. McCaffrey, of the Q Hotel, Fredericton, and the fines, rize-ever offered for competition among she first saw him. He had rung the bell, and opening the front door stroll-New Brunswick curlers, is now in St. John, and today will be placed on exd into the vestibule. hibition in Waterbury & Rising's win-

Miss Kinrade was on the stand for dow, King street. three hours, the inquest not being concluded until & o'clock. She was put through a gruelling examination by Blackstook and bore up well until the end. The new points in her story of the crime were that she fainted when the man pulled her away from the back parlor window, that the man had opened the front door and was stand-ing outside the vestibule door when she ram to the street. Blackstock wanted to know why she had hever be-fore fuld about the street was the street before told about the scream, and she said she had never been asked. Miss Kinrade fainted away at the close of her examination NEW ORLEANS, La., Mari 12-

Marvin Hart got the decision on a foul In the 13th round of a 20 round bout with Tony Ross at the West Side A. C. tonight.

Confession, Made to Chief of Police Clark in the Cell, Admitted as Evidence Vessel Which Collided With

The Downie case was resumed Sat- and his testimony was the same as urday. The proceedings, at times, given in the police. During the examwere interesting, especially when the ination in chief, Mr. Frice informed the attorney general that his method attorney general and Mr. Price, one of of examination was poor. Mr. Hazen the counsel for the accused, exchanged remarked that he did not propose to furrow in the sands of Nauset Beach. greetings. It was during Mr. Price's bow to the superiority of Mr. Price and would conduct the examination as cross examination of Chief Clark that he saw fit. Again, while the attorney New York to Boston which was inthe interest was at its highest. Mr. general was examining the witness terrupfed on Wednesday by a collision Price was not very well pleased with Mr. Price attempted to discretit some Chief Clark's answers, and, jumping of the chief's statements. Mr. Hazen which the latter was sunk and after back, he grew intensely dramatic replied rather forcibly that Mr. Price, when demanding, "Now, sir, on your "had not better try to discredit the oath answer me," witness until the cross examination." Attorney General Hazen here re-After a number of question were quested Mr. Price to use a more modasked by the attorney general the erate tone. Mr. Price answered that stage of the admissibility of the alleg-he would have no interjections even ed confession was reached. from the attorney general. His Honor Attornew general-"What did Dow then interfered and restored quietness. nie say to you after you warned alm However, there were frequent interthat he was not compelled to say anyruptions from both counsel during the proceedings. thing but if he did it would be used against him." At the request of the It was brought out in this morning's attorney general witness did not ansproceedings that the Simms people wer the question as it was Mr. Price's were reluctant to press the charge and right to cross examine him on the were practically forced to by the police point. department.

Walter C. Peters was the first wit-Counsel for the accused subjected ness called this morning and his evithe chief to a severe cross examinadence was practically a reiteration of tion. his testimony at the preliminary ex-

Mr. Price then submitted to his honamination. that the evidence of the chief as Lewis W. Simms, President of T. S. to the alleged confession should not fimms Co., was the next witness and be admitted on the grounds that, first the only new element of his evidence -It was police cell evidence, and lightered. was, when cross examined, that the therefore there is a suspicion cast up-Simms Company was unwilling to lay on it at once.

the charge against Downie and was 2-That the evidence shows that he forced to sign the charge by the police (Clark) interrogated accused the night department. Also that witness and before as well as the following morn-Downie were friendly and were adhering. ents of the same church, and had gone 3 .- That, he (Clark) acquainted pri snow-shoeing together. The question soner that he thought he was guilty. Mr. Price backed his objection by relating to the charge was objected to by the attorney general, but his object citing authorities. Mr. Hazen pro-Chief Clark was the next witness where the prisoner had been warned Campaign Different From paign will be on in that province be fore long and Premier Roblin and his Anything Ever Tried to colleagues evidently desire to make political capital out of their ostentabe Opened in Boston tious fight for a share of territory now proposed to be added to Ontario. Unless they recede from their present BOSTON, Mar. 13 .- A campaign for stand, however, they must hear onus education for boys, different it is said, of blocking entirely any extension from anything ever tried in this coun- of boundaries. The opposition at Ottry is to be opened here on April 1st. | tawa is, moreover, not in a position The purpose of the movement is to to support their demands since by so arouse interest in rescuing delinquent doing, Mr. Borden would be courting children by having speakers of na- trouble for himself nad his followers tional and even international reputawith the Whitney government. tion tell of the great need for helping boys and explaining methods that No Pressing Need have been employed in New York, There is no pressing need that the Chicago, Milwaukes and elsewhere. boundaries should be extended this The campaign will close May 2, and year, and under the circumstances the the programme includes two Saturday mornings to be given to teachers federal government is disposed to simply wait until the Ontario and therings and two Sunday afternoons Manitoba governments agree to ac-

o meetings for newsboys. Cities and cept the terms proposed as being the owns within 25 miles of Boston have been invited to join with Boston in most equitable that can be granted. The elimination of the bill for the extension of provincial boundaries from the balance of sessional agenda should pave the way for speedy prorogation. The budget debate, the passing of the remainder of the estimates, the bill granting authority to the government to loan ten millions to the Grand Trunk Pacific and the insurance bill are about the only items on the programme now on which any lengthy debates may be expected. Prorogation early in May is now the expectation of the government. Horatio Hall Resumes A bulletin published by the chief analyst of the inland revenue department shows that of 295 samples of butter collected in all parts of Canada and analyzed none were found to CHATHAM, Mass., March 14 .- Slidshow any adulteration. Excess of water was found in only three samples. The bulletin states that it is apparent the Metropolitan Line steamer H. Fri that butter as offered for sale in Can-Dimock today resumed the trip from ada is essentially genuine and of high

Government's Threat Sends attached their stout hawsers shortly after three o'clock and just before four Telegraphers Back the lighter Salvor attached a hawser to her windlass and in unison with to Work the tugs, started her engines on the pull which eventually brought the PARIS, Mar. 13 .- The strike of the elegraphers in this city ended late to-Aside from the shattered bow of the day as suddenly as it began. The operimock, received in her collision with ators yielded before the energetic attitude of the government which threatened instant dismissal unless he Hall, it is not known that she was damaged further. When she left today she carried the full cargo of freight work was resumed, with the loss of with which she left New York on state servant privileges. Tonight the service is normal.

their keys.

For several hours today the city was cut off from telegraphic communica-tion with the outside world, a general strike occurring after a quarrel between a sub-chief and the men. This was one of the results of the disorderly incidents of last night at the central telegraphic bureau of the post fice. The government lost no time in placing guards in the various stalous and in issuing an ultimatum, whch immediately brought a larga majority of the telegraphers back to not like to hav ment like this," he said, "but any pastor or bishop of souls to un social ostracism of those who not as he sees, is surely a reversi to the things of a past better forge ten. Strong ground should be taken this matter and followed up by actio upon the part of this Grand Lodge.

Little Controversy

Very liftle controversy occurre action and he was only called upon give rulings on interpretation of co titutions. He has nearly always he public meetings in connection with micial visits and had visited greater portion of the primary lodge He referred to the sermon he deliver pefore the brethren in St. John la weifth of July, when one of the mo uccessful church demonstrations t rder has ever held came off. He dre attention to the successful year ju closed and asked more serious atte fon to the Orange mutual benefit fun In reference to his visit to the Gran Lodge of British America, he poin ed out that a resolution would brought up before that body to store the purple and blue degrees. pointed out the need of cordial suppo to that great Orange organ the Sent nel, and thanked the members : their kindness and courtesies during the year past, more especially to the officers of the executive.

His address was referred to a period to a Master Thomas Heine and Bros. W: MacRae, George Blair and Thon The grand secretary, N. J. Moriso of St. John, said in part: Five new lodges were organized dur ing the year, viz.: Gladstone L. O. L No. 30, 'Tracey, Sunbury County; Ash burton L. O. L., No. 104, North Head Grand Manan; Westfield L. O. L., No S. Westfield, Kings (west); Star of Northumberland L. O. L., No. 134 Northumberland Co., and Beattie L

O. L., No. 187, York Co. The following odges have been re iscitated during the year, viz.: L.O L., No. 12, York (west); L. O. L., No. Carleton Co.; L. O. L. No. 10, Kings (east); L. O. L. No, 106, Kings (west) making a total of nine lodges added our roll during the year

The following dormant warrants have been returned, viz .: No. 98, for merly held at Chipman; No. 137, formerly held at Point Wolfe, Albert and reissued to new lodges as above warrants held at Nixon, Albert and Buotouche, Kent Co., were cancelled, and these numbers 104 and 134 also given to new lodges organized during the year. The reports show a total of 128 primary lodges, 1 district, 17 county and 18 val Scarlet Chapter returned with I primary and 1 county lodge yet to ear from. The above returns show that 426 were initiated, 114 reinstated 71 joined by certificate, a total of 611; withdrawn by certificate, 112; suspend d for other causes than non-paymen of dues, 2; expelled, 6; died, 48. Have-lock, L. O. L., St. John Co., is the banr lodge this year, having captured that henor from L. O. L. No 62, o oncton, which it held for a numbe f years, and which now holds secon

During the year we have lost forty.

Tuesday, no pontion of it having been Dimock free.

norro

the undertaking.

STARTS FOR

Her Trip

and Mercury started for Boston, which it is expected she will reach early to

The power of the four large tugs and lighter made possible the drawing off of the Dimock today. The summer

like calm was favorable to the efforts of the wreckers. The four tugs had