OUTFIELDER CALLAHAN BREAKS HIS ANKLE

Harrisburg, July 23.—Leo Callahan, the star outfielder of the local International team, suffered a broken ankle here yesterday in the second inning of the game with Providence, and will be out of the game for the balance of the season, if not forever. Callahan was on the third, when he attempted to score on a short pass ball, but a cleat in his shoe caught in a hole and Comstock, who received Catcher Casey's throw at the plate fell over the runner. Callahan suffered a similar accident while playing for the Toronto team at Rochester on September 5, 1913.
