

HE COULD NOT SLEEP AT NIGHTS

UNTIL HE FOUND RELIEF IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Fred. Swanson, of Saskatchewan, sends a message of cheer to those who feel the weariness and discouragement that comes from broken rest.

Macklin, Sask., Jan. 1 (Special).—Those who suffer from sleepless nights and get up in the morning feeling tired and discouraged will find renewed hope in the statement made by Fred Swanson of this place. He could not sleep at nights. He discovered the cause. It was kidney trouble. He discovered the cure. It is Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"Yes," Mr. Swanson says in an interview regarding his case, "I was troubled with my kidneys for over a year, so bad that I could not sleep at nights. After using one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills I found great relief. Four boxes removed all my pain and now I sleep well and I am as strong in my kidneys as any man."

If the kidneys are wrong the blood becomes clogged with impurities and natural rest is an impossibility. Strong, healthy kidneys mean pure blood, new life all over the body and that delightful rest that is the sweetest thing in life. Dodd's Kidney Pills always make strong, healthy kidneys.

AFRICA'S GREAT FORESTS.

One of the great natural treasures of Africa is the immense extra-tropical forest that extends almost unbroken from the extreme southern end along the eastern coasts to the equator. There are gaps in it, and the trees change somewhat with change of latitude.

ROYALTY ON SHIPWRECKS.

A Spanish Prince and His Wife Cast Ashore on English Coast.

The Duchess of Fife and her daughters appear to be the only royalties of recent years to undergo the ordeal of shipwreck, with the possible exception of the Archduke John of Austria, who, according to one theory, lost his life at sea, says the London Chronicle. Prince Henry of Prussia, however, who circumnavigated the globe twice before he was 20, has on two occasions braved a watery grave. When he was a lieutenant his ship was caught in a violent squall and one of the sailors was washed overboard. Prince Henry plunged after him, and despite the heavy sea, succeeded in effecting a rescue. Some years later he rescued another sailor from drowning off the South American coast at a point where the sea is infested with sharks.

The Dorsetshire coast was once the scene of a royal shipwreck. In 1506 Prince Phillip of Castile and his wife Juana were sailing from Flanders to Spain when a violent storm cast them ashore near Poole. Philip was prevailed upon to accept the hospitality of a local magnate, Sir Thomas Trenchard. But Henry VII. invited the Prince to Windsor, adding that he would take no refusal. The Earl of Arundel, with a troop of 300 horse, escorted Philip to the royal residence, where he was entertained for about a fortnight. Henry took advantage of the enforced visit to extort some concessions from the Prince on matters at issue between them, and then sent him to Spain by way of Falmouth.

While more prevalent in winter, when sudden changes in the weather try the strongest constitutions, colds and coughs and ailments of the throat may come in any season. At first sight of derangement use Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. Instant relief will be experienced, and use of the medicine until the cold disappears will prevent a relapse. For chest weakness, cough, and colds, Bickle's Syrup is the best.

A BEGGAR'S AWFUL FATE.

Woman Was Torn to Pieces by Fierce Mastiffs.

A pitiful tragedy occurred recently in the beautiful gardens that encircle Prince Ruffo's villa on the Flaminian Way, outside the gates of Rome, Italy. A poor beggar woman on the verge of starvation ventured up the main walk to ask alms at the brilliantly-lighted villa, inside which Prince Ruffo was giving a grand dinner in honor of a professor newly nominated to the international Institute of Agriculture, adjoining the princely property. Thrust away with harsh epithets by merciless attendants, the poor woman was wending her way back towards the massive iron gates, when, overcome with hunger and fatigue, she appears to have fallen into a swoon just inside the entrance.

About midnight piercing shrieks and the barking of dogs brought the prince and a body of retainers outside with lanterns and revolvers in the belief that burglars were breaking into the place. Soon, however, they came upon a scene of horror. A couple of furious mastiffs, let loose earlier in the evening, had scented out and denuded the body of the woman, which they were then ferociously tearing to pieces. The unfortunate victim expired in the hospital the following day. She was 72 years of age.
