RECORD FOOTBALL RUSH.

It Came When a New and Ugly Tackle Broke Into the Game.

One day, while the whaleship Nar-whal was tied to an ice fice in Bering sea and the lookouts were at the mast-head scanning the open water southward for the appearance of whales, a party of the forecastlemen made a football of rags and cord and went over the bow to kick the misshapen thing round on a smooth stretch of ice a short distance from the vessel.

The fun was at its height and the men were just getting the kinks out of their legs when the harpooner in the crow's nest called softly down to the deck that a polar bear had scented the men on the ice and was excitedly making his way toward them. No warning was given to the football players. Before long the bear appeared close to the edge of the floe, and he seemed to be in a great hurry. He shambled rapidly along in and out among the hummocks, and every few feet he would pull himself erect to sniff the air and crane his head anxiously. Closer and closer he came, and it was plain that he grew more and more excited. The men on board the ship got out their rifles to make sure that the bear did no harm to the men on the ice. The gaunt ice bear came to the last hummock that separated him from the field of play. One of the men was in the act of "kicking the stuffing" out of the ball when the bear suddeny, emerged into clear view. The ball fell on the ice, the man's leg came hurriedly down on the ice, and the man himself broke for the ship like a deer. There was a succession of frightened shouts, and the ice became alive with running men. Never was there a quicker change of scene. Men stumbled and fell and yelled and fought for a grasp of the rope ladder.

The men on deck were so convulsed with laughter that they made no effort to shoot the bear. And after the first whoop the bear became so thoroughly alarmed at the consternation he had caused that he turned tail and fied in a clumsy gallop down the ice frees.— Youth's Companion.

LAND OF THE LOOM.

Belgium, In Tapestry Werk, Outdid Its

Oriental Originators.

Belgium has been called the "Land The official statement says: The of the Loom," and it was here in the ninth century that an art arose new to Europe, although familiar for cen-turies in the orient. Tapestries caus-According to the information at present available, the transport had on ed stone walls to bloom and brought prosperity to the cities. Pictured hangings of linen, wool or silk, writes Mr. W. E. Griffs in "Belgium-The Land of Art," opened commentaries on the Scriptures and the classics, became books for the illiterate, told fairy tales to the children, served as manuals of devotion to the pious, increased personal comfort and brought the tex-tile art to its highest point of perfec-

This "wall clothing" passed through many styles and fashions and many revolutions in methods and values. Beginning in the castle or monastery, the craft passed into the shops and factories and formed the basis of the wealth of the cities and kingdoms.

The manufacture of tapestries came from the east, where it had long been practiced by the Moors and Saracens. The first imitation by the Belgian-or Flemish-craftsmen was rude enough. Gradually, however, through skill and care, the imitators became originators, The best artists co-operated with the weavers to produce pictorial results undreamed of in the orient. Painters of the very highest rank, even Raphael and Michelangelo, were glad to draw form the black and white designs into glorious colors in wool or silk.

In time their fame became worldwide and their value so great that they were worth, literally, more than "a king's ransom." In 1396 the Sultan Bajazet L took as prisoner a son of Philip the Hardy, king of France. The Turk stipulated as a fair exchange "high warp tapestry, worked in Arras, in Picardy," but they should represent "good old stories."

It's a Good Letter, After All. Some one has advanced the opinion that the letter "e" is the most unfortunate letter in the English alphabet because it is always out of cash, forever in debt, never out of danger and in hell all the time. For some reason he overlooked the fortunates of the letter, so we call his attention to the fact "e" is never in war and always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no meat, no life and no heaven. It is the center of honesty, makes love perfect, and without it there could be no editors, devils or news.-Fourth Estate.

Re Electric Lighting

Following is a summary of the sitnation re street lighting for Athens : The Village Council by resolution at a regular meeting on the first Thursday in July, requested the Hydro Electric Power Commission to submit a proposition for a supply of electric energy. The resolution and request was duly acknowledged by the Department and at later dates the following correspondence was exchanged:

Athens, Ont, July 22nd, 1915 Honorable Adam Beck, Toronto, Ontario

Respected Sir-Our Village Council sent a request to your Department asking for a proposition for a supply of electric energy from your power line at or near Brockville.

Will you kindly write me with information as to what we may expect and as to the probable date of development and actual supply of electric energy in this county of Leeds,

Thanking you in anticipation, I have onor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant, M. B. HOLMES

Reeve of Athens

Toronto, July 26th, 1915 Mr. M. B. Holmes,

Reeve of Athens, Ont. Dear Sir-In answer to your favor of July 22nd, we beg to advise that we will endeavor to have an engineer visit you in Athens at a very early date, and when next in the district.

Owing to pressure of work in the office, we have not been able to take care of your requirements as promptly as possible, but we trust that it will be possible to call upon vou within the next week or two.

Yours very truly, Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario

F. A. GABY, Chief Engineer Athens, Ont., Aug. 6th, 1915 Mr. F. A. Gaby, Chief Engineer

Hydro-Electric Commission, Toronto, Ont. Dear Sir-Referring to your communication of date, July 26th, to me directed, will you kindly write me stating date of your proposed visit to Athens in order that a public meeting for your purposes may be duly and sufficiently announced.

Yours very truly, M. B. HOLMES, Reeve Up to the present, no farther reply has been received. It is a well-known fact that the Hydro Electric Commission has numerous calls for light and power, and we will hope that our turn will soon come, for we know when we secure light from that service, it is the best to be had.

Brockville Business College

On the east side of the Fulford Block, Court House Avenue, Brockville, is a large sign bearing the words BROCKVILLE BUSINESS COLL-EGE. This sign last year needed repainting and a sign Painter offered to do same for $10.00 word or a total of $30.00. This sum Principal Rogers thought too much, so the painter made the following offer: To paint the first letter for one cent and the price was to be doubled on each succeeding letter of the three words BROCKVILLE BUSINESS COLLEGE, i.e., that is the doubling process was to go on for 24 times after the first letter. To this the principal agreed. When the painter sent in his account the principal was alarmed and thinking there was a mistake sat down and worked it out. Finding that the account had been rendered correctly the business college manager sent the painter a check for $30.00. If the painter insists on his own proposal, how much is coming to him?
