...... POPULARITY OF "CASTE."

It is said on learned dramatic authority that since the first production of "Caste" nearly half a century ago, more productions of the comedy have been made than of ony other play. There is not an amat ar club in the country which at some time or other has not attempted a presentation of Rober son's sparkling work. In London, revivals of "Caste" are made season after season. No person's rdamatic education is complete who has no twitnessed a performance of the comedy. An excellent opportunity will be given to thise who have not seen it when a notable revival of the play will be given at the Grand Opera House, on Saturday, January Oth, 1903. The company, which in-cludes several players who have starred in their own product ons, is headed by Mary Sco.t, Robert V. Ferguson, Countess de Castlevecchio, Wm. Hazeltine, William A. Evans, Lawrence Griffi h and Sadie Handy. ++++++++++++++++++++++++

"In the fall of 1899 I was expecting to become a mother and suffered terribly with pains in the back of head; in fact I ached all over. Suffered with awful bearing-down pains; I was threatened for weeks with mishap. A lady friend told me to use Dr. Pierce's medicines. She had taken them and felt like a new woman. I began using the 'Favorite Prescription' and took four bottles before my baby came and two afterwards. I suffered almost death with my other two children, but hardly realized that I was sick when this baby was born and she weighed twelve and one-quarter pounds. She is now eleven months old and has never known an hour's sickness; at present she weighs thirty-seven pounds. I owe it all to Dr. Pierce's Ravorite Prescription."

THE MAYORALTY.

Editor Planet

Mr. Editor,-As a citizen and ratepayer of the city I feel that the city papers are not doing their duty, by the city, in refraining from discursing and opening up the columns of the papers for fair discussion of municipal questions. The papers may first some delicacy in opening up demonstrated this. You have spok-their columns in view of the attempt-en out against all who opposed you ed onslaughts by the alleged "Fair Pluy," and its editor and publisher. but let me assure you, Mr. Editor, that it is followed by the alleged "Fair but let me assure you, Mr. Editor, that it is followed by the assure you have admitted to do. The electhat it is false modesty. In all the personal attacks that have been made upon your devoted heads, the public, as I have seen it, have smiled, kindly, knowing the why and the wherefore.

"A pretentious man by token of his pretentiousness is a Charlatan," so writes Mr. Holland in his letter to the Joneses,

Mr. Cowan's conduct of his camand his venture the "Fair Play," as he sees it, has stamped him as a "Pretentious man by token of his pretentiousness," a "Jones," a "Charlatan" of the highest type. We have had a fair council, during the past two years, an active Mayor, a council alive in its duties. They have as a body done very good work. We have an active Board of Trade, which have certainly not been asleep. Yet all, individually and collectively, sink into insignificance when the pretentious man takes down his gun. For any man in the council, or Board of Trade, or in any other municipal body, to mention an industry, for either of the city papers to even breathe the name of an industry, likely to come to Chatham, is treason, and Un-Fair Play to the pre-tentious man; and calls forth a pro-test in withering success (if you didn't know where it came from) which forever silences the unlucky victim. Well, sir, I may come in for my share in next week's issue, but I believe I will survive the vials of wrath that will be poured out.

During the past two years we have had added two important industries to our city, "The Dowsley Works and the Wheel Works." Both have been assisted or bonused by the city and none regret it. All believe that they have come to stay and will, no doubt, benefit the city, and the "Pretentious man" claims credit for oringing them. He forgets that the Wm. Gray Co., The Robert Milner Co., The Martin Co., all manufacturers of vehicles, were the promoters of both concers, that the new concerns are a compliment to those works above mentioned, and that working together the one factory filling in with the other the whole will bring much credit to the city. The "Pretentious man" I believe supported both and deserves credit for it. The same as any other person who did it. A Bolt and Nut factory makes application to the city and the "Pre-tentious man" heralds this as some-thing new. He fathers it in the thing new. He fathers it in the council, he supports what is asked, and everything goes swimmingly along until the passing of the by-law, when he tries to knife his pet by saying, "It is not legal to pass by-laws in this manner." Many manufacture was the same thing of the same than laws in this manner." Many manufacturing concerns in this city have been granted these privileges and they are all illegal. This sudden change of front came as a surprise to many who did not know the work-ings of the scheme for election to ings of the scheme the Mayor's chair. found out, that some of the individual members of the Gray factory, of the Taylor Co., of the Piggott Co., were opposing his canvass for the Mayoralty. These were the comerns who had benefitted by these illegal bylaws, and at once the "Pretentious man" got down his gun, sharpened his axe, and an onslaught was made upon these companies. They were opposing him, their taxes should be increased for ever daring to exer-cise their franchise in an open

Come, Mr. Pretentious man, tell the ratepayers how you so "bold and aggressive, one able and courageous enough to talk out in meeting," "A mayor but will stand to his guns," mayer that will stand to his guns,"
"a mayor who is up-to-date, alive and progre ve," and all the rest ad nausaum, tell the ratepayers why you slept during your aldermanic career and allowed all these evils to exist, "these illegal by-laws" to stand that you now complain of. Tell them how Wallaceburg and Dresden, recently villages, secured each a beet sugar factory, while Chatnam, the city, has the crivilege of seeing tons of beets the privilege of seeing tons of beets hauled through its streets and shipped to these places? Why not have one of these lfactories here? Tell us, Mr. Pretentious man what you were doing for the last six years? Tell us while on the finance committee and generally while in the council you were not able to produce the twenty mill rate you now speak of? Tell us and read from the minutes of the council how you voted for payment of these printing bills, for the by-laws of the Chaplin and Dowsley works, and no one ever heard of your objection until now? And tell us what "Fair Play" could do it for?

Tell us when and where you objected in the ecouncil to the Dominion Paving Co. employing its own teams and men, during the past summer, and why you "Pretentious man" "able and courageous to talk out in meetings," did not move a resolution that none other than the vitrified brick made by Cornhill, Jordan and Fielder should be used? That none other than the labor of citizens should be employed? Tell us why "Fair Play" should be printed in Blenhe m when Baxter and Shea are open for when Baxter and Shea are open for such job printing? Tell us why, when McKeough in roduced your "al-leged stock in trade for canvassing resolution," for the dismissal of the city engineer and appointment of Carswell, you voted just exactly the same as Mr. McKeough, for the resolution introduced? Tell us why you did not introduce an amendment to this so-called do ble barrelled re-solution asking only for the dismissal of the engineer? Or tell us, did you want him retained? Tell us why all these little personailties against all or every citizen who cannot see his or her way to support you, against the McKeough Family, Dr. Holmes, Piggo 8, Grays, Taylors, "Planet," "News" and others. Every man or family may have their little eccentricities. Perhaps your family may have theirs. Why par-ade them? You are bold and aggressive in a physical manner; you have ed up to them each week. A man pretentious and bombastic the pubic cannot tolerate and your day of reckoning will come on January 5th.

You personally now attack so many and are so aggressive in your man-ner, that it would be an ill day for the city of Chatham if a Council were elected of your calibre. We have been fairly free of law suits for a year or two, but with such a fighter, bold and aggressive as you say you are, am personally afraid that you will fatten some of the city lawyers. instead of a twenty mill rate wa have a thirty mill rate. No, Mr. Pretentious Man, youdo. As an alderman, one of the nine you did fairly well; but as one over nine you are not the man.

The citizens want a man steadie than you, a deeper thinker, a man who is careful as well as progressive. McKeough, a ratepayer who pays upon a large assessment and is cautious in his personal affairs will see that a lower tax rate is kept than you will. It is to his interest and, therefore, the interest of the public. His has supported every industry that you have, and has done just as much towards the welfare of the town as you have; but modesty-a virtue that is foreign to you-dictates silence.

McKeough has never shirked a duty in the public interest, while you and your friends have endeavored at the beginning of each year to pick soft places to lie in, and shuffling for committees with no responsibility.

Mr. Cowan, you will not do for May or of the City of Chatham for 1903. Yours respectfully, A CITIZEN AND RATEPAYER.

THE HUNT

SWIMS LAKE TO SAVE STAG FROM HOUNDS.

Richmond, Va., December 29,-By the bravery of "Jack" Talley, a young farmer, a stag was saved from the fangs of an angry pack of hounds, and the Deep Run Hunt Club, composed of Richmond's society set, was giva diversion not anticipated when the chase was arranged.

A stag, wild and vigorous, was leased from the club's enclosure, and a chase began that lasted for six miles The deer, finding that the fleet pack was gaining upon him, headed for Lakeside and plunged into the deep lake. The hounds followed him in full cry, and then began a water race that the hunt club watched with breathless interest.

The deer swam vigorously for the further shore, but foot by foot the the Mayor's chair.

The "Pretentious man" had been canvassing, in the meantime he had found out, that some of the individual members of the Gray factory, of the

Another sensational chapter in the istory of the Eastern Consolidated Oil Co., is opened. For more than a year now this com pany has figured conspicuously in the financial news of the day. This stock, which was put on the market at 25 cents a share, advanced raipdly to 50 cents, and in the past 13

onths has actually paid 27 per cent. It is now positively known that the stock will go to par (1.00 a share) on January 3, just three days hence. A SPLENDID PROPOSITION. The rapid rise of the Eastern Consolidated Oil Co. is due to two causes; firs, the natural physical oil wealth of the company's oil properties, and, sec-ond, careful and conservative business management. The result is a success which is making rich men out of the original stockholders.

It is in fact a splendid investment proposition from a business point of view. It is safe because it has actual assets, rich oil land and producing oil wells.

It is a rich investment because its enormous oil production gives it large revenues and makes possible the gen-erous dividends which have already been paid for over a 'year.

PROPERTIES AND OIL WELLS. The Eastern Consolidated Oil Co has over 21,000 acres of rich oil lands.

About 1200 acres are in Ohio, consist-ing o foil leases on 18 farms and con-taining 107 producing oil wells. The oil is sold to the Standard O'l Co. with a cash settlement each month. INTERVIEW WITH THE FISCAL AGENTS. In an interview with C. B. Heydor

& Co., rooms 401 and 402 Manning Chambers Building, 72 Queen street west, corner Queen and Terauley streets, Court House Square, Tor-onto, Ont., who are the only authorized fiscal agents for the sale of stock in the Eastern Consolidated Od Co., this firm expressed the utmost gratification at the successful financiering of this company.

They declared that in their 12 years' business experience as bankers and brokers they had never handled a stock that compared with the East-ern Consolidated Oil Co. as a rich paying and at the same time safe investment, and that it was with real regret that they were terminating their connection with the sale of the 50c. allotment.

"Will the stock be oversubscribed?" was asked.

"Yes, it is quite probable; but in that case we shall fill the subscriptions in the order of time in which they are received. The money will be promptly returned to those whose orders are received too late."

Moral, act promptly and send in your orders early. Orders bearing postmark of Jan. 3 will be accepted.
