TALMAGE'S SERMON.

REIGN OF WITCHCHAFT AND QUERIES FOR SCOFFERS.

"While There are Ministering Spirits to Bless, There are Infernal Spirits to Minder, to Poison and to Destroy." "Thou Dumb and Deaf Spirit come out of him."

There has been much destructive superstition abroad in the world concerning possession by evil spirits. Under the form of belief in witchcraft this delusion swept the continents. Persons were supposed to be possessed with some evil spirit which made them able to destroy others. In the sixteenth century, in Geneva, 1,500 persons were burned to death as witches. Under one Judge in Lorraine 900 persons were burned to death as witches. In one neighborhood of France 1,000 persons were burned. In two centuries 200,000 persons were slain as witches. So mighty was the delusion that it included among its victims some of the greatest intellects of all time, such as Chief-Justice Matthew Hale and Sir Edward Coke, and such renowned ministers of religion as Cotton Mather, one of whose books, Benjamin Franklin said, shaped his life, and Richard Baxter and Archbishop

Cranmer and Martin Luther, and among writers and philosophers Lord Bacon. That belief, which has become the laughing-stock of all sensible people, counted its disciples among the wisest and best people of Sweden, Germany, England, France, Spain and New England. But while we reject witchcraft, any man who believes the Bible must believe that there are diabolical agencies abroad in the world. While there are ministering spirits to bless, there are infernal spirits to hinder, to poison and to destroy. Christ was speaking to a spiritual existence when, standing before the afflicted one of the text, he said: "Thou dumb and deaf spirit, come out of him."

Oh, friends, better load up with a few interrogation points. You cannot afford to be silent when God and the Bible and the things of eternity are assailed. Your silence gives scope to the bombardment of your Father's house. Better load up with a few questions, so that next time you will be ready.

Ask the scoffer such questions as these:

How do you account for the fact that, among the out-and-out believers in Christianity were such persons as Benjamin Franklin, John Ruskin, Thomas Carlyle, Babington Macaulay, William Penn, Walter Scott, Charles Kingsley, Horace Bushnell, James A. Garfield, Robert E. Lee, Stephen A. Jackson, Admiral Poote, Admiral Farragut, Ulysses S. Grant, John Milton, William Shakespeare, Chief Justice Marshall, John Adams, Daniel Webster, George Washington? How do you account for their fondness for the Christian religion? Among the innumerable colleges and universities of the earth will you name me three started by infidels and now supported by infidels? Down in your heart are you really happy in the position you occupy antagonistic to the Christian religion? When do you have the most rapturous views of the next world? Go to him with a few such questions, and he will get so red in the face as to suggest apoplexy, and he will look at his watch and say he has an engagement, and must go. You will put him in a sweat that will beat a Turkish bath. You will put him on a rout compared with which our troops at Bull Run made no time at all. Arm yourself, not with arguments, but interrogation points, and I promise you victory.—T. De Witt Talmage.

A man can always stave off a quarrel with his wife by telling her some thing nice that some man didn't say about her.

The average woman would rather find out three days afterward than she had married a lunatic than to have him disappear the night before the wedding.

A woman is so constituted that whenever she doesn't smile she has to make faces.

The second week her husband is sick a woman looks over all her old black dresses.

Cook books were written to make young women think their mothers didn't know how to cook.

Probably the average mouse thinks women are the most dreadfully immodest creatures it ever saw.

"The consent of the governed!" Did anybody ever consent to be governed?

A laugh tells the tale better than a volume of words.

The great progressive soul resents the tyranny of custom. So does the criminal, but for different reasons.

When women are emancipated, what about the emancipation of men? Turn about is fair play.

The initiative lets in a horde who would never have ventured first.

Love and despair cannot occupy the same heart.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

"More people have starved to death from the want of love than from the want of food."

Those who respect the restriction of the law are the least restricted. Morality is economy.

Passion often boils over into tears. Love in a girl of sixteen is hero worship.

Men sigh for two reasons; because they have loved, and because they have not.

Only old new things can be said of love.

To maintain a reputation of honesty requires great tact, but not necessarily an honest character.

The man who seeks to evade fate is fully as foolish as the man who tempts fate.

There is nothing like an old book for a young person.

Wit prompts a laugh; humor, a smile, and satire, a grin.

The pun is the Jonah of literature.

Purchased honors and counterfeit coins are ever subject to suspicion.

Faults in great men tend to show their greatness in stronger relief.

Wield wit warily.

A poor story well told is better received than a good story poorly told.

A lazy man is the rejected stone that never becomes the head of the corner.

It is the "would-be" geniuses, today, who are eccentric.

Chance may make a reputation, but not preserve it.

It takes a business man to succeed in art.

Literature is considered more of a confession than a profession.

Truth, unadorned with falsehood, would be very dull reading.

It takes falsehood to get at the bottom of truth.

The ladder descending from fame has but few rungs.

The tongue is the most generous organ in the body.

LIFE LINES

We get very tired of enjoying our rights; it's other people's rights we're most like to enjoy.

A woman feels safe when she thinks she can trust a man, but she'd be a whole heap safer if he could always trust herself.

Success would be very sweet if it ever stayed long enough for us to learn the taste.

Many people try to get what they think they want, and then they find they don't want it.

The cheapest way to learn fortitude is to watch others suffer; their hearts learn our cheeks.

If ignorance really is bliss, it's a wonder more of us don't die of sheer happiness.

BACHELOR'S REFLECTIONS

A girl's eyes are never so sharp as when they are looking through a marriage veil.

Probably the man who will end by coming the nearest to understanding women is Professor Garner.

When a man stops telling his wife that he loves her it is time for her to stop telling him that he doesn't.

CHECKED SOUTH.

When the first keen winds of winter begin to be felt in the North, many an invalid is hurried away by anxious friends to the kinder climate of the South. The cause is apparent.

As you look at the hollow cheeks and listen to the rattling cough of the traveler.

Persons suffering with weak lungs, obstinate cough and severe hemorrhage even, have found the change of climate made unnecessary by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It strengthens weak lungs, cures obstinate coughs, and builds up the body with sound, healthy flesh. It contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine nor other narcotic.

It is that one debt of gratitude to a friend for recommending your medicine, as well as to you for preparing such grand remedies for chronic diseases.

Persons who the doctors failed to reach," writes L. R. Staples, Esq., of Barclay, Orange Co., Kans. "I desire to pass the good word along for the benefit of those who need your remedies. I am a railroad agent, and four years ago my work kept me in a warm room and stepping out frequently into the cold air gave me bronchitis, which became chronic and deep seated. Doctor tried a higher air, but fortunately for me, a friend also advised me to try Dr. Pierce's medicine. I commenced taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and by the time I had taken the first bottle I was better, and after taking about four bottles my cough was entirely gone. This was a year ago last winter; and again last winter I took about three bottles to prevent a return of the trouble. I have found no necessity for seeking another climate."

IMPERTINENT PERSONALS.

Mr. Astor is to get a duke for a son-in-law. It might be well to make sure that the young man has no inherited fads for the purchase of bric-a-brac.—Denver Republican.

Piet De Wet is said to have written to his brother, "the" De Wet, proposing peace. Piet is wise to write instead of going in person to see Christian.—New York World.

Mr. Harmsworth says that Edward VII would have made a good newspaper man if he had given his attention to the business. But can Edward truthfully say that Mr. Harmsworth would have made a good king?

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Old tea or coffee stains may be effectively removed by boiling the article in water in which some borax has been dissolved.

An easy way to perfume linen or dresses is to put a few drops of good extract on small pieces of pumice stone, which are then placed in drawers and boxes and among dresses in wardrobes.

To take away the smell from a room that has been newly painted, slice up three or four onions into a basin and leave them overnight in the room, with doors and windows closed. Next morning the odor will have disappeared.
