FREE AT LAST

Truro, Cornwall, England, July 20.—Mrs. Florence Maybrick is free. She left here at 11.43 a. m., to-day on her way to France.

MADE HIS WIFE WORK

Victoria Livingstone, of Harwich, was in the city to-day and told her martial troubles to Chief of Police Holmes. In the absence of Judge Houston she told her trials and tribulations to the Crown Attorney. He, being kindly disposed towards all women, heard her through. Mrs. Livingstone told a very sad tale indeed. She said that her husband had compelled her to work so hard in the fields that she didn't have time to do the housework. "The two daughters were also compelled to work in the fields so much that they didn't have time to assist their mother."

This morning the woman laid a charge of assault against her liege-lord Joseph. The case will be tried next Monday. Detective McGregor worked up the case.

WERE DOINGS

Blankety! Blankety! Blank!

Biff! Bing! Swish! Bang!

Then the spectators began to pick up the pieces.

A spectator tells it this way:

"I saw John Dittmar—known to all as Dutch John—piking down the street here, Fourth street. He went into a house over there pretty fast I thought, but when I saw the way he came out I concluded he didn't go in fast at all. A woman followed him. She is, I believe, Mrs. Bumps. John thinks that's what her name is at any rate. She brought a chair out with her and broke it all up on him. I thought the lady had decided to break up house keeping. The chair demolished John dispersed."

There is a story of another row at noon in which clubs were used, John, 'tis said, got all that was coming to him in this round, too.

How'd you like to be John?

TELEGRAPH BRIEFS

There were a number of deaths in New York City, caused by the excessive heat.

During a riot at Cluses, France, four persons were killed and twenty-five wounded.

It was officially stated that Britain would not allow any other power to intervene in the affairs of Tibet.

It is believed that the ruins of Adab, perhaps the oldest city in the world, have been uncovered in Babylon.

United States revenue cutters will exclude American poachers from sealing off the Kommander Islands during the absence of Russian warships.

It is confidently expected in Britain that if peaceful methods do not avail the navy will be used to stop Russian seizures of British merchantmen.

The Original Anglomaniac.
Wayne had just won the battle of Stony Point.

"But why," inquired the British, "do they call you Mad Anthony?"
"Because," replied the doughty general, "I am the original Anglomaniac." Putting his statement to the test, he pressed onward, taking with him several cannon of the latest English manufacture.

Serious Defect.
"Young man, this elevator is out of order. I shall certainly report it to my husband, who is an assistant elevator inspector."

"Wh-wh-what's the matter with it, ma'am?"
"The mirrors are soiled and dingy, sir."

Inconsiderate.
Mabel—I do believe Miss Ponds is in love with that poor young lawyer, Clara—What a shame! And she would make such a good wife for some fellow who was marrying for money.—Puck.

A woman will be sure to keep a secret if she knows doing so will worry another woman.

SAD DEFEAT

Maple City Aldermen Experienced a Melancholy Reverse at Detroit.

A 50-pound shell, supposed to have come from a British gunboat sunk in the Thames River by an American ship, was won by the council ball team in a contest with the Chatham aldermen on Belle Isle yesterday afternoon, in which the Canadians were defeated 11 to 5. Surmounted by an American and a Canadian flag, the shell was brought into the council chamber by the victorious ball players last night, and was mounted on the president's rostrum, while the conquering heroes were applauded. The aldermen then got down to business and worked for an hour in the heat.—Report of Detroit Council's proceedings in Detroit Free Press this morning.

Yesterday was the Victoria Avenue Sunday School excursion to Belle Isle and one of the features of the day was the baseball match between the Chatham and Detroit councils. The game was a good one in places and the score—nine to six—was highly creditable. Ald. McGee has nothing to learn about the game. He knows all about it. At least he tells the other aldermen just as if he did. Ald. Edmondson appeared the only man who was worried over the result of the game. "Just tell Archie that I'm sorry I didn't go now," remarked John. "Had I but known that there was any possible chance of Chatham losing I would have gone and won the game. After the reputation I had built up for that aldermanic aggression for them to go and lose it. I blame only myself. I should have gone."

Alderman Pigott says that the Chatham team had the most aldermen even if they didn't have the most runs.
