

THE CHIGNECTO POST
EVERY THURSDAY,
—
$1.25 per Annum, or $1.00 in Advance.
PLAIN AND FANCY PRINTING
OF ALL KINDS,
Promptly Executed at Lowest Rates.
ADVERTISEMENTS
Inserted at very Lowest Rates.
W. C. MILNER, Proprietor.

Sackville and Westmorland Fall Exhibition.
LIST OF PRIZES.
CLASS 1.—DAIRY PRODUCE.
Butter in crock, 1st Edgar Dixon; 2nd Morris Wells; 3rd James B. Eiter; 4th H. Tremblin.
Butter, sample in roll, 1st Amos Trueman; 2nd S. E. Dixon; 3rd Morris Wells; 4th Albert Anderson.
Cheese, 1st Joshua Eiter; 2nd Bliss Anderson.
CLASS 2.—FARM PRODUCE.
Wheat, 1st H. Eugene Bower; 2nd Fred Thompson.
Barley, 1st H. Eugene Bower; 2nd Hiram Tremblin.
Oats, white, 1st Johnston Trueman; 2nd H. Eugene Bower; 3rd Hiram Tremblin.
Oats, black, 1st Johnston Trueman; 2nd H. Eugene Bower.
Buckwheat, rough, 1st Hiram Tremblin; 2nd W. F. George.
Buckwheat, gray, 1st H. Eugene Bower; 2nd W. F. George.
Field peas, 1st H. Eugene Bower; 2nd Albert Fawcett; 3rd Willard Thompson.
Beans, 1st Albert Fawcett; 2nd Willard Thompson.
CLASS 3.—HORTICULTURE, FRUIT AND FLOWERS.
Cabbage, mammoth, 1st F. A. Dixon; 2nd H. Humphrey.
Cabbage, other than mammoth, 1st F. A. Dixon; 2nd George A. Fawcett.
Heaviest single cabbage, 1st H. Humphrey.
Cauliflowers, 1st H. Humphrey; 2nd F. A. Dixon.
Hull long squash, 1st J. L. Black; 2nd John Fawcett.
Marrow or turban squash, 1st John Fawcett; 2nd J. L. Black.
Mammoth squash, 1st J. L. Black.
Parsnips, 1st Henry Trueman; 2nd A. B. Bower.
Pumpkin, 1st H. Humphrey; 2nd H. Eugene Bower.
Long blood beets, 1st J. L. Black; 2nd Henry Trueman.
Blood turnip beets, 1st H. Eugene Bower; 2nd J. L. Black.
Egyptian beets, 1st A. B. Bower; 2nd Henry Trueman.
Half long carrot, 1st Reuben Thompson; 2nd Henry Trueman.
Long orange carrot, 1st Henry Trueman; 2nd J. Wood.
White carrots, 1st Fred T. Thompson; 2nd Henry Trueman.
Mango, 1st J. C. E. Fawcett; 2nd George A. Fawcett.
Swedish turnips, 1st C. Fawcett; 2nd W. F. George.
Aberdeen yellow, 1st Obed Tingley; 2nd H. Eugene Bower.
Onions from seed, 1st J. L. Black; 2nd Henry Trueman.
Onions, potato, 1st Henry Trueman; 2nd John Fawcett.
Potatoes for table use, 1st Henry Trueman; 2nd F. A. Dixon.
Potatoes, early rose, 1st W. F. George; 2nd H. B. Allison.
Potatoes, Breeze's prolific, 1st H. Humphrey.
Potatoes for stock feeding, 1st George A. Fawcett; 2nd John Fawcett.
Tomatoes, ripe, half dozen, 1st Humphrey.
Tomatoes, best collection, H. Humphrey.
Assortment of horticulture, 1st H. Eugene Bower; 2nd F. A. Dixon; 3rd Joseph Trueman.
Apples, assortment, 1st Sanford Barnes; 2nd Joseph Trueman.
Flowers, collection, 1st F. A. Dixon; 2nd H. Humphrey.
Assortment of cut flowers, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd Titis J. Carier.
CLASS 4.—DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES.
Cloth, 10 yards wool twilled, gray, 1st Hiram Tremblin.
Cloth, plain gray, 1st Henry Trueman.
Hiram Tremblin; 2nd Willard Thompson.
Cloth, plain gray, cotton and wool, 1st Reuben Thompson; 2nd Hiram Tremblin.
Cloth, wool twilled, fancy colored, 1st Joshua Eiter.
Flannel, cotton and wool twilled, white, 1st Hiram Tremblin; 2nd Joseph Trueman.
Flannel, plain wool twilled, 1st Hiram Tremblin; 2nd Joseph Trueman.
Blankets, woolen plain, 1st Thomas Lowerson; 2nd G. K. Eiter.
Blankets, cotton and wool plain, 1st J. B. Eiter; 2nd T. S. Whiston.
Hearth rug, of any material, 1st Charles Bower; 2nd Morris Wells.
Hearth rug, rag, 1st G. B. Eiter; 2nd Ed. W. Ogden.
Counterpane, knit, 1st H. M. A. Lowerson; 2nd Willard Thompson.
Quilt, patch work, other than silk, 1st Horatio Richardson; 2nd Rev. D. G. McDonald.
Gentleman's white shirt, cotton, 1st G. B. Eiter; 2nd Walter Cahill.
CLASS 5.—LADIES' FANCY WORK AND FICTURES.
Crocet work in wool, 1st W. W. Fawcett; 2nd Charles Thompson.
Crocet work in cotton, 1st H. M. A. Lowerson; 2nd Wm. E. Barnes.
Crocet work in cotton and wool, 1st Joseph Thompson; 2nd John T. Carier.
Netting, 1st John T. Carier; 2nd Horatio Richardson.
Netting, darned, 1st William Ogden; 2nd W. W. Fawcett.
Patchwork cushion, 1st H. M. A. Lowerson; 2nd Edgar Dixon.
Silk patchwork cushion, 1st Horatio Richardson; 2nd Joseph Trueman; 2nd Rev. D. G. McDonald.
Crewel work, 1st Rev. D. G. McDonald; 2nd Walter Cahill.
Macrame work, 1st H. M. A. Lowerson; 2nd Willard Thompson.
Tatting, 1st C. F. McCready; 2nd Chas. Thompson.
Fancy knitting in wool, 1st W. W. Fawcett; 2nd Morris Wells.
Fancy knitting in cotton, 1st W. W. Fawcett; 2nd Morris Wells.
Raised work in wool, 1st Thomas Dixon; 2nd S. Edgar Dixon.
Hair work, 1st H. M. A. Lowerson; 2nd Willard Thompson.
Moss work, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd J. Anderson.
Leather work, 1st Willard Thompson.
Dried work, 1st Thomas Dixon; 2nd W. W. Fawcett.
Embroidery, other than embroidered flannel, 1st Rev. D. G. McDonald; 2nd H. M. A. Lowerson.
Embroidered flannel, 1st Rev. D. G. McDonald; 2nd W. W. Fawcett.
Berlin work, Ed. W. Ogden; 2nd Wm. Ogden.
Boss work, 1st John Richardson; 2nd C. F. McCready.
Fancy frames for pictures, 1st Willard Thompson.
Autumn leaves, best collection and arrangement, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd John T. Carier.
Framed in frames, 1st Walter Cahill; 2nd William Ogden.
CLASS 6.—OTHER MANUFACTURES OF THE PRESENT YEAR.

CHIGNECTO POST.

Reserve Success and you shall Command it.

VOL. 15.—NO. 23. SACKVILLE, N. B., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1884. WHOLE NO. 752.

J. WILSON & CO.
MANUFACTURERS OF
Marbled Slate Mantels
—AND—
GRATES.
DEALERS IN
Stoves, Ranges, &c.
104 PRINCE WM. STREET.
ST. JOHN, N. B.

Harness leather, three sides, 1st H. Gooden.
Upper leather, three sides, 1st H. Gooden.
Boots and shoes, not less than 12 pairs, 1st Abern Smith; 2nd J. L. Black.
CLASS 7.—HORSES.
Stallion, for road purposes, 3 years old and upwards, 1st William Barnes; 2nd Ed. Avaril.
Family carriage horse, 1st Joseph McQueen; 2nd Arthur Lower.
Roadster, any age, 1st King Seaman; 2nd Chas. Fawcett.
Roadster, 4 years old, 1st Thos. J. Eiter; 2nd Sanford Barnes.
Roadster, 3 years old, 1st Thos. J. Eiter; 2nd Hazen Chapman.
Roadster, 2 years old, 1st Geo. Wells; 2nd Walter Cahill.
Roadster, 1 year old, 1st Jas. Lowerson; 2nd Chas. Thompson.
Fair draught horse, 1st Thos. J. Eiter; 2nd Sanford Barnes.
Draft horse, 4 years old, 1st Cyrus Carter; 2nd Hiram Humphrey.
Draft horse, 3 years old, 1st Thos. J. Eiter; 2nd Joseph Wells.
Draft horse, 2 years old, 1st Albert Fawcett; 2nd Josiah Wood.
Draft horse, 1 year old, 1st Joseph Wells; 2nd Josiah Eiter.
Breeders draught, with foal by her side, 1st Walter Irving; 2nd T. S. Whiston.
Mare, for road, with foal by her side, 1st James Trueman; 2nd Chas. Wells; 3rd Wm. Ogden.
CLASS 8.—CATTLE, SHEEPSTOCK.
Bull, 3 years old and upwards, 1st Josiah Wood; 2nd Amos Trueman; 3rd Albert Fawcett.
Bull, 2 years old, 1st John Fawcett; 2nd W. F. George; 3rd Howard Trueman.
Bull calf, 1st Albert Fawcett; 2nd J. Wood; 3rd W. F. George.
Cow, 1st Josiah Wood; 2nd Charles Fawcett; 3rd W. F. George.
Heifer, 3 years old, 1st John Fawcett; 2nd Josiah Wood; 3rd W. F. George.
Heifer, 2 years old, 1st Albert Fawcett; 2nd Josiah Wood; 3rd W. F. George.
Heifer, 1 year old, 1st Albert Fawcett; 2nd Josiah Wood; 3rd W. F. George.
CLASS 9.—CATTLE, SHEEPSTOCK.
Bull, 1 year old and upwards, 1st Josiah Wood; 2nd Josiah Wood; 3rd James Lowerson.
Heifer, 3 years old, 1st Josiah Wood; 2nd W. F. George; 3rd Albert Fawcett.
Heifer, 2 years old, 1st Alfred Dixon; 2nd Josiah Wood; 3rd C. Fawcett.
CLASS 10.—CATTLE, SHEEPSTOCK.
Bull, 2 years old, 1st Willard Wood; 2nd Josiah Wood; 3rd W. F. George.
Bull calf, 1st C. F. McCready; 2nd John Ford.
Cow, 1st John Ford; 2nd Josiah Wood; 3rd W. F. George; 4th J. L. Black; 5th Alex. Ford; 6th Dr. Sangster.
Heifer, 3 years old, 1st Alex. Ford; 2nd Alex. Ford; 3rd Alex. Ford.
CLASS 11.—CATTLE, SHEEPSTOCK.
Bull, 3 years old and upwards, 1st Albert Anderson.
Bull, 2 years old, 1st Chas. W. Wells; 2nd Willard Wood; 3rd Hiram Thompson.
Bull calf, 1st W. F. George; 2nd Obed Tingley.
Fair oxen of steers of any age, 1st Thos. Eiter; 2nd Report Eiter; 3rd Tim. Hicks.
Fair oxen of steers of any age, 1st Amos Ogden; 2nd Timothy Hicks; 3rd A. B. Bower.
Fair steers, 2 years old, 1st T. Hicks; 2nd James Lowerson; 3rd H. Eiter.
Fair steers, 1 year old, 1st Alfred Ayer; 2nd T. J. Tingley.
Fair steer calves, 1st James Lowerson; 2nd Thomas Eiter; 3rd Charles Wells.
Ox or steer of any age, 1st Amos Ogden; 2nd William Ogden; 3rd S. E. Dixon.
Steer, 3 years old, 1st T. Hicks; 2nd R. Eiter.
Steer, 2 years old, 1st Fred. Thompson; 2nd Bliss Anderson; 3rd T. Hicks.
Steer, 1 year old, 1st Charles Eiter; 2nd James Lowerson; 3rd T. Hicks.
Steer calf, 1st R. A. Trueman; 2nd Albert Dobson; 3rd Alfred Ayer.
Cow, her milk, 1st H. Allison; 2nd T. J. Eiter; 3rd John Smith.
Cow, 3 years old, 1st Albert Dobson; 2nd Thomas Lowerson; 3rd J. Fawcett; 4th Bliss Anderson; 5rd J. Edgar Dixon.
Heifer, 1 year old, 1st A. B. Dixon; 2nd W. W. Fawcett; 3rd Bliss Anderson.
Heifer calf, 1st Albert Dobson; 2nd J. Wood; 3rd W. F. George.
CLASS 12.—GRADES AND CROSSLERS.
Shropshire ram, 1st Thomas Eiter; 2nd Amos Trueman.
Ewe, 1st C. H. Wells; 2nd Chas. Eiter.
Lamb, 1st Horatio Richardson; 2nd Thomas Eiter; 3rd Amos Ogden.
Buck of any age, 1st John Smith; 2nd Obed Tingley.
Tann lamb, 1st C. F. McCready; 2nd H. Richardson.
CLASS 13.—POULTRY.
Fair geese, 1st William Wry; 2nd Willard Thompson; 3rd W. F. George.
Fair turkeys, 1st C. F. McCready.
Fair ducks, 1st Reuben Thompson; 2nd John Richardson; 3rd John Richardson.
Fair dorkings, 1st John Richardson; 2nd Reuben Thompson.
Fair black Spanish, 1st John Richardson; 2nd Reuben Thompson.
Fair Poland, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd Reuben Thompson.
Fair Hamburg, 1st Reuben Thompson; 2nd Willard Thompson.
Fair Brahma, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd Reuben Thompson.
Fair Plymouth rock, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd E. W. Ogden.
Assortment of not less than 3 varieties, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd R. Thompson.
CLASS 14.—SHEEP.
Shropshire ram, 1st Thomas Eiter; 2nd Amos Trueman.
Ewe, 1st C. H. Wells; 2nd Chas. Eiter.
Lamb, 1st Horatio Richardson; 2nd Thomas Eiter; 3rd Amos Ogden.
Buck of any age, 1st John Smith; 2nd Obed Tingley.
Tann lamb, 1st C. F. McCready; 2nd H. Richardson.
CLASS 15.—POULTRY.
Fair geese, 1st William Wry; 2nd Willard Thompson; 3rd W. F. George.
Fair turkeys, 1st C. F. McCready.
Fair ducks, 1st Reuben Thompson; 2nd John Richardson; 3rd John Richardson.
Fair dorkings, 1st John Richardson; 2nd Reuben Thompson.
Fair black Spanish, 1st John Richardson; 2nd Reuben Thompson.
Fair Poland, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd Reuben Thompson.
Fair Hamburg, 1st Reuben Thompson; 2nd Willard Thompson.
Fair Brahma, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd Reuben Thompson.
Fair Plymouth rock, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd E. W. Ogden.
Assortment of not less than 3 varieties, 1st Willard Thompson; 2nd R. Thompson.

Letter from Milwaukee.
MILWAUKEE, Wis.,
Oct. 9th, 1884.
Well, the ante are all up and the game has begun in earnest. A day or two ago Capt. W. L. Ellsworth accepted the nomination for President of the United States, tendered him by the American Political Alliance—whatever that party may be. He is the sixth candidate, and will at once enter upon a "stumping tour" of Louisiana, Tennessee, and Maryland. The political situation is very uncertain just now and daily grows more so. It is impossible to even guess at the result. Blaine is making a vigorous personal canvass, and if the reports of Republican newspapers are to be depended upon, his progress through Ohio is one continuous triumph. It has been the wish of many influential Republicans that Blaine not take the stump himself, and that course had, I believe, been decided upon, but the daily increasing numbers of Independents, and alarming defection among the Germans caused a change in the programme. The Illinois fight against the Indianapolis Sentinel had been commenced, Carl Schurz was stumping the West with disastrous results to the cause of Blaine and the outlook was becoming gloomy. It was therefore deemed advisable that the plumed knight should try the effect of his much talked of magnetic powers upon the people, with the double object of bringing back those whom Carl Schurz's fascinating tongue, convincing logic, and general know-nothing of the knut's doings had led astray, and of winning recruits from the Cleveland ranks. So far, the result has not justified the anticipations. Thoughtful Republicans—those who wished for the nomination of Edmunds or Arthur—are exceedingly distrustful of Blaine, and are either holding entirely aloof, or actively opposing him. The Independents, all of whom are pledged to support Cleveland, are rapidly increasing in numbers and strength, are working like beavers, and have all the money they need and more. The feeling seems to be growing everywhere that Blaine is not a safe man to entrust with the Presidency, on account of his propensity for meddling and interfering with the affairs of other nations, that he is thoroughly unscrupulous and corrupt, and not too moral. Both Independents and Democrats are working up this feeling to the utmost, and Blaine's own actions have tended in the same way. When the Indianapolis Sentinel brought out the charge, which the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend the honor of his family and home," pronounced the story false in every particular, and instructed his solicitors to sue for libel. The Sentinel replied by addressing a series of questions to Mr. Blaine, which he answered by denying everything. He declared that he was privately married to Miss Steward in Kentucky on June 30th, 1850, but neglected to state to the Democrats always repeat as the "schoolmaster in love," he, with a deaf flourish of trumpets, sprang to "defend