into action one battery of field guns and one battery of machine guns. BETTER DISCIPLINE

London, April 24.—Special despatches from Constantinople this morning describing the encounter with the advancing constitutional army and with the troops of the Constantinople garrison say that both sides used artillery and machine guns and that the combatants gradually swarmed into the town, fighting in the streets. The loyalists sought shelter in the French hospital after having been pursued by the constitutionalists whose superior discipline was effective.

THE BATTLE OVER.

Constantinople, April 24.—Complete tranquility was bestored in Constantinople transport of the calculations of the constant of the const catelrants surrendered and the ining coased.

Several of the isolated guard houses defended themselves bravely against the Salonikians. These fights in the centre of the city resulted in a considerable loss of life.

The Taxim guardhouse resisted for three hours under a heavy hotchkiss fire. The occupants numbering fifty men and officers finally surrendered.

A HOT TIME.

The purest balsams and the greatest antiseptics are thus sent to every spot where catarrhal trouble exists—germs are killed, foul secretions are destroyed, nature is given a chance, and cure comes quickly.

Colds and throat troubles can't last if the pure healing vapor of Catarrhozone is breathed—sneezing and coughing cease at once, because irritation is removed.

worce" in the May Century.

Twenty years ago an investigation by the Department of Labor showed that 328,716 divorces had been granted in the United States between 1887 and 1886, and that divorces were increasing two and one-half times as fast as population. The recent census for 1887-1906 brings to light 945,625 divorces, an ddemonstrates that, the movement constantly gains in velocity. At present, probably one marriage in ten is broken, and in some States the proportion may be as high as one in four. Forty years ago the broad contrast was between North and South, have been converging, whereas those of East and West have diverged. The central States have two and one-half times the rate of the Allante States, while Slang words and phrases are pioneers of the language to be. Some of these pioneers die on the plains, not virile enough to cross the centuries; and the purists rot with them. The really apt slang words inherit the earth, the people and the dictionaries.

They are born on the athletic field or in the stress of crowded life, where short cut speech is a necessity. You find them first in the yellow journals and the mouths of babes.

If you are responsible for any of the babes you have to be a purist pro tem. Don't fret too hard! You are merety hearing language in the making. Ten years settles a word in the dictionary,—or in oblivion.—Nautilus.
