MONTREAL, MAY 24, 1892.

Redistribution

While party journals are having a lively wordy contest over the Redistribution Bill, a non-partisan observer of the game of politics, as played in this Dominion, has been busy at his pen, making a few observations and drawing independent conclusions.

Exploitation Extraordinary.

Whilst a great noise is being raised over the misappropriation of public funds for electioneering purposes, and the public called upon to condemn the accused politicians, gigantic steals of the most valuable resources of the country are easily suggested and even the details published by the promoters as worthy of approval and thanksgiving.

Knighthood

It is expected that, on the coming 24th of May, Her Majesty the Queen will bestow the honor of Knighthood on several distinguished Canadians.

Representatives of Canada

Extremes met in the House of Commons the other day when Liberal and Imperial Federationists agreed as to the advisability of having a representative of the Dominion at Washington.

A British Zollverein

Great Britain fighting the battle of free trade against a world of hostile tariffs is reported at last to be considering the advisability of a change.
