A PROCLAMATION.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY

DOMINICK DALY, Esquire,

Lieutenant Governor and Commander-in-Chief (L. S.) in and over Her Majesty's Island Prince Edward, and the territories thereunto belonging, Chancellor, Vice Admiral and Ordinary of the same, &c. &c. &c.

D. DALY, Lieut. Governor.

WHEREAS Almighty God has been pleased, in His infinite mercy, to spare the Inhabitants of this Island from the ravages of the Cholera, which has smitten down great numbers of the creatures of His hand elsewhere; and moreover has, in His great goodness, rewarded the husbandman of this land with a bountiful harvest this season: I have thought fit, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Executive Council, to issue this my Proclamation, enjoining that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these His mercies be observed throughout this Island, on THURSDAY, the 19th day of October next; and I do entreat that the said day of Public Thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed by all Her Majesty's subjects within this Island, as they value the favor of Almighty God; and that all ministers do hold public services in their respective churches or chapels on that day.

Given under my hand and the great seal of this Island, at Charlottetown, this Twenty-third day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and in the eighteenth year of Her Majesty's reign.

By command,

GEORGE COLES, Colonial Sec'y.

PERRY'S HUNGARIAN BALM

For Restoring Preserving and Beautifying the Hair.

THIS elegant preparation is an effectual remedy for Baldness, or falling off of the Hair. It prevents and completely eradicates Scurf and Dandruff, strengthens the Roots of the hair; causes it to grow luxuriantly; gives it a rich, dark, soft and glossy appearance, and prevents it turning gray. The Hungarian Balm is a purely Vegetable compound, scientifically and chemically combined, and is warranted to contain none of those deleterious ingredients which prove so injurious to the hair. It acts directly upon the skin, cleansing and purifying it from all unhealthy secretions, thereby removing and preventing the accumulation of scurf, dandruff and other impurities, which so frequently cause premature decay and loss of the hair.

The Hungarian Balm is especially adapted to ladies' use; and those who have tried the various oleaginous mixtures, with no benefit, will at once discover the agreeable and beneficial effects produced by this pure and delicate preparation. Instead of matting and tangling the hair, (which is more or less pulled out in the process of combing,) it leaves it free and clean; promotes a natural moisture, and imparts a beautiful dark and glossy appearance. Try it at once and you will be convinced of its superiority over all other compounds for the hair.

Much more might be said in favor of this inestimable compound, but it is deemed unnecessary. The proprietor feels confident that ONE TRIAL will convince the most incredulous of its rare and manifold virtues. Therefore,

If you have lost your hair and wish to restore it,

If you are losing your hair and wish to preserve it,

If you are troubled with Dandruff and wish to remove it,

If you have any humour of the Scalp and wish to cure it,

If you are troubled with Nervous Headache and wish to cure it,

If you have hair eaters at the roots of the hair and wish to destroy them,

If you have harsh dry and wiry hair, and wish it to become soft, pliable and beautiful as silk; and if you wish to preserve rich, graceful and luxuriant tresses to the latest period of life, use PERRY'S HUNGARIAN BALM.

Price 25 and 50 cents, in large bottles.

LIFE AND DEATH—A SHORT AND TRUE STORY.

One day last week, early in the morning, that miserable conveyance which takes the poor and friendless dead to the City Cemetery at the city's expense, halted in front of a house in a street in the southern part of the city. The driver alighted from the wagon, entered the house, but appeared again soon after, carrying in company with another alike disinterested-looking man, a coffin made of rough boards. The coffin was placed on the wagon, and it made speed over the deserted street towards the cemetery.

No one followed the wagon with a sorry look—not one stood at her grave with a feeling heart, when the earth fell upon the coffin; and yet this coffin contained the corpse of a lady who once was sincerely adored by hundreds—who once was honoured, extolled, envied in society—who could command riches, and who but a few years ago, before she trod the shores of this continent, could expect a happy and contented old age.

This lady was Rosa Neschemi, the daughter of an immensely wealthy, polished noblemen. In early youth she was taken to the Imperial Court of Austria, where in her eighteenth year, she was married to a French nobleman, who was also very rich. Rosa Neschemi lived many long and happy years, partly upon the possession of her husband, partly travelling through Germany, Spain, Italy, and England, and gave birth to three sons, who received the best education, and upon whom the eyes of the parents rested with great pride.

But then the July revolution at Paris came, Rosa's husband took a considerable and active part in it, and on the 28th he fell from the effects of three shots which he received. His name is still honoured with a place on the column in the Place de la Bastille.

Of the sons, the oldest one, an exceedingly gifted young man, was surpassingly successful in Spain, and was at that time private secretary to King Ferdinand. After the King's death he removed to a villa in the neighbourhood of Valencia, where, as is believed, he fell a prey to the dagger of an assassin.

The second son, who had joined himself to the ministers of the Church, was an especial favourite of Pope Gregory. He died also soon after the event.

The third son, yet very young, remained with his mother, who found an asylum in Switzerland, whither she carried the remnants of her ruined fortune. In his sixteenth year, he left his mother and came to America. In New Orleans he soon found employment and earned much money. Bad associations and his own inclination to dissipation, caused him to deviate from the proper path, and some years ago he grasped at the last and most contemptible means to save his credit—he persuaded his old mother to cross the ocean. She could not refuse the prayer of her only son, and arrived. She succeeded in bringing with her six thousand dollars, which sum was spent by her son in a short time. About a year ago he ended his career in New Orleans—being employed as deputy sheriff, he killed a Creole by stabbing him. He escaped to California, and his old mother, to whom New Orleans naturally became a place of extreme hatred, turned her steps towards St. Louis.

One day last week, early in the month, the miserable city hearse conveyed the remains of Rosa Neschemi to the last unwept for retiring place! Such is life!—St. Louis Anzeiger.

PUBLIC FEELING IN FALKIRK IN REGARD TO THE NEW PUBLIC-HOUSES ACT.—"I have been led to draw the conclusion that the bill has already conferred a great boon on the community. I have found among those of the working classes with whom I have conversed, a strong and general feeling in its favour, and a deep conviction that it was calculated, more than anything that has recently been done, to assist the labouring man in his attempts to recover the position which in many instances he has lost. Nor is this sentiment confined to the sober. I have learned from one who had the very best opportunities for ascertaining their feelings, that a very large portion of those who were themselves addicted to drinking both feel and acknowledge that it is fitted to be a great blessing. . . . An individual in this parish, who superintended a number of working-men, has declared, that on Saturday evening after the bill came into operation, he paid as usual twenty men their wages, and that, on the following Monday morning, every one of them was ready for his work at the proper time; whereas formerly, owing to the drunken habits of the Sabbath, not five out of the twenty would have been at their posts."—Rev. Enoch M. Rate, Free Church Missionary, Falkirk.

DELUSION STILL RIFE.—The Millerites, who have so grievously erred in their predictions of the exact period of the final consummation of all things, have ventured again to fix the day for the world's conflagration, viz: the 15th of May, 1855. Why not defer it fifty years, and thus save their reputation, at least while they lived? Of that day and hour knoweth no man.

INTERVIEW BETWEEN LEANG AFA AND THE BISHOP OF VICTORIA.—During the recent visit of the Bishop of Victoria to Canton, he was visited by Leang Afa, the first Chinese convert. The Bishop writes: "Old Leang Afa spent yesterday two hours with me. He speaks very humbly of himself, and wept tears of joy at the mention of his tracts distributed among the literal twenty years ago within the city, his own subsequent flight and persecution, and the recent movement of Tae-ping-wang. He looks very hopefully upon the movement, and says that the leader, with all his errors, is a sincere believer; that the Tartars have always been the enemies of God and his gospel; and that he believes God will make the whole matter tend to the advancement of his kingdom. He told me that every hour of each day he prayed to the Almighty for a blessing upon the leaders. When we separated, he knelt down, and poured forth his heart in prayer aloud for a rich blessing upon Chim and the insurgent leaders, whom he evidently regards as raised up by God for the accomplishment of great ends in China."—London Church Missionary Intelligencer.
