Be Fair. Buy a sack or barrel before judging PURITY FLOUR

SOME people have attempted to judge PURITY FLOUR before knowing the facts about it—before using it. So we ask you to be fair and to buy a sack or barrel of PURITY FLOUR and give it a thorough try-out before attempting to arrive at a judgment.

Look at the beauty and loftiness of the golden-crusted, snowy-crumbed loaves, fit for a king. Count them and see how many more of them PURITY yields to the barrel than ordinary flour does.

Taste the creamy, flaky pie crust, and the deliciously light cakes PURITY FLOUR rewards you with. My!

How they make your mouth water! Such high-class results can only be obtained when using a flour consisting exclusively of the high-grade portions of the best Western hard wheat berries.

And remember, that, on account of its extra strength and extra quality, PURITY FLOUR requires more water when making bread and more shortening when making pastry, than you are accustomed to use with ordinary flour.

The Youth's Companion Calendar for 1912

The publishers of The Youth's Companion will, as always at this season present to every subscriber whose subscription ($1.75) is paid for 1912, a beautiful calendar for the new year. The cover picture reproduces a water-color painting of a bit of New England coast, giving a glimpse of breeze-swept ocean, of smiling sky, of warm, sunny rocks, which will come like a breath of salt air to those who have once lived near the sea and to those whose whole life has been passed inland. The picture being in eight colors, the tones of the original are faithfully reproduced.

The following is culled from the Manufacturers Record of Calgary. A business worthy of special mention is that of R. A. Jacobsen & Co., established 2 years ago.

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lindsay, Ont.—"I think it is no more than right for me to thank Mrs. Pinkham for what her kind advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I wrote to her some time ago I was a very sick woman, suffering from female troubles. I had inflammation of the female organs, and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed, and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now, after using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman. I most heartily recommend this medicine to all women who suffer with female troubles. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and think they are fine."—Mrs. FRANK EMBLEY, Lindsay, Ontario.

We cannot understand why women will take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, without first trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration.

A NEW DANGER—POISONOUS FOODS

Within a few days seventy-seven inmates of a poor-house in Berlin have been fatally poisoned by eating rotten fish that had been smoked to disguise its decomposition. Now comes a despatch from Coburg, Ont., to the effect that five boxes of sausages had been seized by the health officer of that town for being in a disgusting state of decomposition and therefore not only unfit for human food, but positively dangerous to health. It was further ascertained that these sausages had been forwarded by a packing-house in Toronto to an agent in Coburg to be fixed over and made palatable by the addition of spices. The discovery has created so great a sensation that the authorities will be forced to hunt down all concerned, and, if the facts are proven as stated, to punish them as severely as the law will allow. But clearly that is not severely enough to fit so dastardly crime, for it is little short of murder to knowingly put on the market poisonous food as fit for human consumption. Potomac poison, which is the result of the decomposition of meat or flesh of any kind, is just as deadly as arsenic, though its effect is slower, and too many precautions cannot be taken to guard against it, while the man who for the sake of miserable gain seeks to impose it upon his fellow being, should be treated as an enemy to society.

But the question arises, how long has this criminal business of fixing and spicing such stuff been going on, and how much of it from time to time gets into general circulation, for it is not to be supposed for an instant that its sale is intended for the "small Coburg market". Nothing but the most rigid inspection of each package, both at the place of manufacture and sale, no mere sampling, can guard the public against danger in this connection.

MAHONEY—BRADLEY

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the church of Our Lady of the Snows Monday Jan 8th when Mary E. Mahoney of Campbellton was united in the holy bonds of Matrimony to George L. Bradley of Sussex. The bride looked very charming in a suit of blue broadcloth with black beaver hat. She was attended by Miss Flora McIntyre of Dalhousie. The groom was supported by his brother James Bradley. The wedding march was played by Miss Gladys Keen, while Miss Ethel Hogan sang several very beautiful and appropriate hymns during Mass. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Lantang. We all join in wishing them a long and happy life.

CARNEGIE ON GOLF

The Laird of Skibo Castle Tries Writing.

Andrew Carnegie says in his latest essay on "Dr. Golf": "I notice a recent estimate of the money already expended in greens and club houses in the United States is fifteen million dollars. The charm of golf—who can analyze and decide in what it really consists? We are under the sky, worshippers of the 'God of the Open Air.' Every breath seems to drive away weakness and disease. A cousin of mine made his first trial one morning on Skibo links, and, as is often the case when taking it all easily and not trying hard, he succeeded wonderfully. He could hardly wait for the morning game. We started and he fooled everything, and at last I heard exclamation, 'What a time!' He replied apologetically: 'I know, I know, I felt it, but I didn't think I said it.' We have a celebrated professor who was lost from golf for a time. His caddy at last came in sight, and being asked, 'Where's the professor?' called out 'He's down among the whins, talking to his self.' A despatch was reported as having resigned from his office in the kirk, being asked why he did so by his minister, he explained that he had either to resign or quit playing golf, and he knew he couldn't do that."

A Rice Pudding Two Centuries Ago.
The thrifty housewife would be considerably put about nowadays were she called upon to use the following recipe for a rice pudding, culled from a manuscript cook-book of the 17th century.—Take a quarter of a pound of rice, and boil it in a quart of milk till it be very tender, then put it into a cullender, and let all the milk drain from it, then beat it in a mortar very well, then grate in a quarter of a pound of Naples biscuits, and a pint of cream and six eggs, one nutmeg spooned, a little beaten cinnamon, two spoonfuls of sack, a little rose-water, a little salt, and as much sugar as will season it to your taste, then take a cloth which is dipped in boiling water, and butter it very well, and strew it all over with flour, and tie it up close, and boil it one hour, then make sauce for it, rose-water, butter and sugar, and butter melted thick, pour it upon the pudding, scrape on sugar and strew on a little beaten cinnamon, and serve it up to the table.

If the modern epicure is not satisfied with the above, our ancient gasconade gives further instructions as follows:—"If you desire to make this pudding, then put in half a pound of currants, and half as many raisins and plums, and three-quarters of a pound of beef suet, shred fine, and so bake it one hour will take it." The oven must not be too hot. Truly the dishes of other days would not be suited to the hurried and harried day of quick lunch.

The Wrong List.

One of Lady Roay's recollections is of a dinner party at which she had for her neighbour Gladstone, in happiest mood. He told her of his Eton experiences and tales of terrible little Dr. Keble. The latter always had the names of those doomed to be flogged written down on a narrow slip of paper.

One day, picking up such a list, he ceased up for flogging the boys whose names were inscribed upon it. Upon such occasions the delinquents were not permitted to offer explanations, so boy after boy was castigated, and returned sore and savage to his seat. At last the operation was complete and he learnt that, instead of the flogging list, he had picked up the slip on which were the names of the boys about to be confirmed.

The Date is Fixed.

And now it is 1915 which is set for the millennium. Religious enthusiasts have been guessing at the end of the world for years, but date after date has passed, and the world still wages on. Each one of these has had a system of reckoning as certain—and as the various systems have been with which it has been proposed to break the bank at Monte Carlo. The only effect of their predictions has been to upset nervous temperaments. There is nothing surer than that "no man knoweth the day nor the hour."

A Matter of Training.

The disappointed person carps at everything and makes all those in her vicinity feel ill at ease; if anything can be done to cure her, it should be done in the interest of humanity. The modern rush and worry render it more easy for anyone to lapse into that condition, for our nerves are affected to an extent which our grandmothers neither experienced nor anticipated. The way out of the trouble is a matter of training and, as the child is the mother of the woman, it is well to commence with the little one.

The Making of a Nation

A nation is made powerful, and to be honored in the world not so much by the number of its people as by the ability and character of that people; and the ability and character of that people depend in a great measure upon the economy of the several families, which, taken together, make up the nation. There never yet was and never will be a nation permanently great, consisting for the great part of wretched miserable families.

Another Reason.

Here's a new reason for the abolition of Hansard. An English financial schemer excuses his failure because he was "influenced" regarding the value of the Canadian railways by reading reports of the Dominion Parliament. What sins these M.P.'s do have to answer for to be sure!

Japan's Budget

The main features of Japan's Budget, which balances at $22,000,000 yen ($264,600,000), are the reduction and reform of taxes, the increase of the salaries of Government officials, economy in administrative expenses, and the increase of the sinking fund.

HER SKIN SEEMED ON FIRE

Every Other Treatment Failed
But "Fruit-a-tives" Cures

GRANDE LIGNE, QUE., Jan. 2nd, 1910.
"My wife was greatly distressed for three years with chronic Eczema on the hands, and the disease was so severe that it almost prevented her from using her hands. The doctor gave her several ointments to use, but none of them did any good. He also advised her to wear rubber gloves and she wore out three pairs without getting any benefit. As a last resort, I persuaded her to try 'Fruit-a-tives', and the effect was marvellous. Not only did 'Fruit-a-tives' entirely cure the Eczema, but the Asthma, which she suffered from, was also completely cured."

We both attribute our present good health to "Fruit-a-tives". N. JOUBERT.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Eczema or Salt Rheum because "Fruit-a-tives" purifies the blood, corrects the Indigestion and Constipation, and tones up the Nervous System.

CONVICTED FOR POACHING

There was a case of poaching tried before Police Magistrate Matheson last week. Six men, three of the McNighton boys of Dee Side, George Delany, John Fitzgerald and Sandy Fraser of Matapedia were convicted, and fined $25.00 each and costs.

The poaching occurred during the early part of the season, on the Restigouche River, when accused threw their net out between two screws, and we understand that only one small salmon was taken. This punishment makes it very expensive for evil doers, we are informed that the case was worked up by Mr. Max M. Mowat Head Guardian of the Restigouche Riparian Association and that at the time the offense was committed there were 70 Guardians near at hand which demonstrates the fact that the system now in vogue for guarding the rivers, is almost perfect, and that it is almost impossible for poachers to escape. This should be a warning to the people living along the rivers for in killing salmon, they are to mix our metaphors, only killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

If it were not for the wealthy Anglers who come to our rivers each year there would be a great deal less money in circulation.
