REGULAR MEETING TOWN COUNCIL

The regular monthly meeting of the Town Council was held in the Town Office on Thursday, Sept. 21st at 8 o'clock p. m.

Present, Mayor Fish, Ald. Atkinson, Doyle, Mackay, and McGrath.

A letter from Messrs. McDade and Barry was read, in which they stated that they were acting for Mrs. Wm. Curtis in a claim for damages resulting from injury caused by falling into a hole in the highway in 1921. The communication was received and placed on file. A request from the Fire Company for refund of rentals of Town Hall on Sept 20th was referred to the Public Works Committee for report.

The following accounts were passed and ordered paid.

Ald. Mackay reported that acting on the instructions of the Council, the Mayor with the L. & W. Com. had held a meeting in Nelson on Sept. 18th, to discuss with the Nelson people the proposal to extend our electric light service to that place. The meeting had been well attended and the proposal favorably received. The Nelson people had arranged to hold a meeting on Sept. 25th to discuss the matter among themselves after which they would present their conclusions to the Council.—The probabilities were that they would request an extension of our lines.

Ald. Atkinson stated that he had received complaints regarding a horse, which the owner allowed to run at large even after it had been impounded a number of times. It was decided to instruct the hogreeve to take more drastic action if the nuisance was allowed to continue. He also reported complaints from property owners owing to careless driving of cattle to and from pastures, the cattle being allowed to damage lawns and trees along their way; and stated that unless more care was exercised in future it was the intention of the committee to bring in more stringent bye-laws governing the matter, which might require cattle to be led to and from pasture.

Adjourned.

CHURCH UNION GOES TO COURTS

Toronto, Sept. 24—The proposed act and bills for incorporation of the United Church of Canada have been approved by the joint committee on church union with but a few minor amendments.

The decision now goes to the Supreme Courts of the three churches—Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregationalist.

The number of delegates to the first general council of the United Church will be 350. Of these the Presbyterians and Methodist will each send 150, the Congregationalists 40 and 10 from the Council of Union Churches. The first meeting will be held on or before the sixth Wednesday after the act of incorporation receives the sanction of the government.

Most of the amendments suggested were confined to verbal framing.

After a lengthy discussion it was decided to give every congregation voting to remain outside the union the full benefits of sharing in the property rights as provided for by the ruling of a specially appointed commission.

A slight change was made in the model trust deed, which, in the original provided that any trustee could be removed by a two-thirds vote of a congregation. The change provides that any trustee under bond for personal debts shall be protected.

The meeting also suggested that, after the bill is approved by the various church courts, another committee be appointed to incorporate new suggestions and whip it into its final form for presentation to parliament and the provincial legislatures. Objection having been taken to the use of the word "dissenters" it was recommended that some other word be used to designate those who refused to enter the United Church. No word was decided and it was left in the hands of the law and legislation committee which was empowered to carry, to find one and substitute it.

ROYAL BANK PAYS $150 PER SQUARE MILE

There was lively bidding at the Crown Land Office Wednesday for a timber berth of two square miles at the head of the Northwest Miramichi River. The applicant was J. P. Burchill ex-M. P. P. of Nelson. The successful bidder was the Royal Bank of Canada represented by R. W. McLellan of Fredericton who bid $150 per square mile. The upset price was twenty dollars per square mile. The price is considered a good one.

FIFTH TRIAL OF PARIS

The fifth trial of John Paris, of Truro, N. S. for the murder of Sadie McAuley, in St. John, in August 1921 will be taken up today at the circuit court sitting in St. John.

Paris, Sept. 24—The return of Turkey to Europe was assured last night when Great Britain, France and Italy at the final session of the Allied conference unanimously agreed to concede all the nationalist peace terms. The Turkish claims to Eastern Thrace to the Maritza River and including the ancient capital of Adrianople were approved as peace terms that can be supported by France, Great Britain and Italy in a joint invitation sent to Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the Nationalist leader, to a peace conference to be held at Venice at the earliest possible date.

The Kemalists must agree in return not to enter the present neutral zone along the straits nor make any crossing elsewhere and must accept complete freedom of the Dardanelles, the Sea of Marmora and the Bosphorus, preferably under the League of Nations. The invitation, which was cabled last night by M. Poincare to Kemal Pasha personally urges an immediate meeting of the Allied and Turkish and Greek generals at Mudania to formulate terms of an armistice, pending the conference. It is regarded as virtually certain that Kemal will accept the conditions and a reply is expected from Smyrna in a day or two. In addition to other concessions, Turkey is promised the support of the three Allies for admission to the League of Nations and also withdrawal of all the Allied troops from Constantinople as soon as peace becomes effective.

Partridge are said to be very plentiful again this year. The season for securing them opens on Oct. 31st. Each hunter is allowed a maximum of six birds per day and twenty for the season.

FARM BUILDINGS ARE DESTROYED

The residence of William Hare, Whitneyville, together with all out-buildings, barns etc., were totally destroyed by fire Friday, afternoon. The origin of the blaze is unknown but the fire started in the house and after consuming that, spread to the barns, and before anything could be removed, had razed all the buildings on the premises. The loss includes the season's hay and grain crop, farm machinery, wagons and harness. No insurance. The loss is a heavy one.

"TEN NIGHTS IN A BARROOM"

Churches are acclaiming this picture, so are ex-liquor dealers, et al. One of the most remarkable features accompanying the presentation of this great picture, "Ten Nights in a Barroom," which will be shown at the Empress Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday is the interest which it has aroused amongst religious teachers all over the United States of America. It appears they agreed to forget their differences and tell the people to go and see "Ten Nights" and what it did in the past; what it would continue to do in the present if the old condition of things which led to the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment remained in force.

People may argue and haggle over the wisdom of the general cause but no one in any grade of society should be in doubt of the wisdom of abolishing the saloon; that hideous sore-spot of every town; that unspeakable vile den in which so much of the sin and misery of the world has been plotted and committed. Whether or not "Ten Nights in a Barroom" as a novel and as a play had anything to do with the closing of the saloon, at any rate, in the picture you see what the saloon was at its worst.

There isn't a city on the face of the globe that has not been cursed by the saloon; there isn't a man over twenty-five or thirty, if he was speaking the truth, but could give a volume of evidence against those dens of villainy; there isn't a country that has not suffered from them. And if "Ten Nights" was responsible for abolishing those places, then is the more credit to "Ten Nights."

All the same, the picture "Ten Nights in a Barroom" does not preach. It tells a very fine heart-interest story. And it is not a gloomy picture. There is a great deal of humor in it; a great deal of human nature at its best and at its worst; a great deal of pathos, tragedy and action.

The more particular you are in matters of dress, the more critical of style and workmanship—the more you demand for money you invest in wearables, that much more enthusiastic will you be about these new coats just arrived. It's hard to see how they could be more comfortable, more luxurious looking. Some have big, snuggling fur collars that are so effective, some have dressy embroideries and ornamentations. Many have the wide sleeve that is so stylish this fall.

Originality and becomingness are universal as you shall see when you come. They are ready for your inspection. And the prices are remarkably low—lower by far than coats of the same quality and styles regularly sell for

MANY HUNTERS NOW IN WOODS

Reports from different sections of the Province are to the effect that large numbers of non-resident game hunters are this year taking advantage of the special hunting licenses which give them the privilege of going after moose caribou and deer fifteen days ahead of the regular opening of the season. Several parties arrived in town and went into the woods just as soon as they could secure these licenses, which were issued by the official vendor, from and after Sept. 15th.
