PELLETIER PARTY NOT LOST. SENTENCED TO DEATH Not True That Inspector and Men Have Been Given Up.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan 7 .- The officials of About all that is true is that the present whereabouts of Inspector Pelletier's party are unknown. Inspector Pelletier's party are unknown. Inspector Pelletier, with a pairol of six non-commissioned of ficers and murder in the second degree, was the double verdict brought in at 8.45 o'clock tonight against the eight night riders who on the night of October 19th hanged and shot to death Captain Quentin Rankin. Against six of the defendants, Garrett Johnson, Fred Pincon, Arthur Glore, Sam Applewhite, Ted Burton and Roy Benson, the first finding was directed. But Morris and Bob Hoffman received the second degree verdict with a recommend.

ness of Juror Rossen, which threatened to abruptly terminate the trial.

Today Rossen was so sick that the court had to be held in an ante-room the sick juror lying in bed as he heard the closing argument of Rice Pierce for the defence and the charge of Judge Jones, which directed in effect that if the jury found that the defendants were present on the night.
