Dr. Bond strongly emphasised the necessity for a Normal College for the training of teachers so that those whose life work is so important to the Dominion should be properly equipped for that should be properly equipped for that work. Then also the payment of teachers must be commensurate and he called upon the community to unite in an effort for the placing of education in this country upon a proper bas-is, the establishment of a Norma Training School and the payment, to teachers of a living wage.

In the evening the subject was, "The Baby Killers of St. John's," and the text was taken from the account of

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, To-day.—(Morning: by the A. P.)—The forward pressure of the Allies was continued uninterruptedly throughout Sunday. On Saturday the progress of the Allies force was extremely rapid with slight opposition from the retreating enemy, but yesterday the Germans everywhere demonstrated that their powers of determined resistance were still very strong. In the streets of Fere-en-Tardenois there was very severe hand to hand fighting but the Allies eventually obtained the upper hand.
