Obituary

ELIZABETH R. MORGAN.

Many will learn with sorrow of the death last Saturday of Miss Elizabeth R. Morgan, who for over half a century was identified with the General Hospital, and for the greater part of the time as the seamstress of the institution. Three years ago she was pensioned, and has since resided with her nephew, Mr. R. Morgan, of Quidi Vidi Road. Last week, at her request, she was taken to the General Hospital, and there where she had so long lived, amid scenes familiar and friends many, she passed within the veil. Mrs. Morgan was one of those kindly, helpful, capable women, who thought far from the whirl and bustle of life did much to sweeten it by her devotion and faithful service. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, from her nephew's residence.

HONORAH MAHER.

An aged and respected lady in the person of Honora Maher passed away on Saturday last, at the residence of her niece, Miss Edith Harley, 40 Livingstone Street, in her 87th year. The deceased lady had been a resident of Petty Harbor for more than forty years, and for the past three years resided in this city. The funeral took place yesterday from Livingstone St., to the R.C. Cathedral, where the last rites were performed, following which interment took place at Belevedere.

Laid to Rest

The funeral of the late Mrs. F. J. Morris took place on Saturday afternoon and was very largely attended. Amongst those who followed the remains were the Judges of the Supreme Court and members of the legal fraternity. At the R.C. Cathedral, the service for the dead was taken by Rt. Rev. Mons. McDermott, and interment was at Belevedere Cemetery.

Funeral Largely Attended

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ernest S. Coffin took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence, Circular Road, to the General Protestant Cemetery, and was largely attended. The remains were enclosed in a handsome casket, which was covered in floral offerings. The service, both at the house and graveside, was conducted by Rev. D. L. Nichol, Pastor of Queen's Road Congregational Church.

A Surprise Party

On Wednesday night, a surprise party was given Miss Margaret Collins at her home on Monkstown Road by Miss M. Mugford, Miss A. Murphy, Misses J. and M. Osmond (of Gobbie's employ) and a number of other friends, and presented her with a purse of gold. Mr. J. T. Rose, of Gobbie's also presented her with a piece of gold. Miss Collins, who has been working with W. R. Gobbie for a number of years, is leaving on the S. S. Sachem for Boston, where she will be married. She will be accompanied by her sister Miss Sue Collins. All her friends wish Miss Margaret Collins much happiness and prosperity in her future life.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

EARTHQUAKE DAMAGES.

NEW YORK, May 25.

A cablegram received to-day by the Japanese Toyooka Consulate General states that the probable number dead and wounded from the earthquake in Japan is 800. Toyooka with 2,000 families homeless, Kinosaki with 700, and Kumishama with 400 are the principal towns that suffered. The message says Toyooka and Kinosaki were said to have been destroyed mainly by fire. No further anxiety for the stricken region is felt according to the cablegram. Railway communications were established the day after the quake, it says, and relief work is progressing satisfactorily.

THOUSANDS PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO LATE FIELD MARSHAL.

LONDON, May 25.

The body of the Earl of Ypres, who as Field Marshal French was in supreme command of the British forces in France in the early part of the war, was brought to London to-day from his home in Deal where he died last week. The body was cremated and to-night the ashes rested in the chapel of the Irish Guards, Wellington Barracks, beneath a collection of tattered regimental banners. More than two thousand people reverently filed past the coffin to-night during the few hours the chapel was open. The coffin is covered with the Union Jack with the Field Marshal's sword, baton, and helmet and a single wreath from the widow laid upon it. Four Irish Guardsmen with reversed arms are keeping watch. Marshal Joffre arrived in London to-night from France with a detachment of Poles for the funeral services at Westminster Abbey to-morrow. After the service the ashes will be taken to Ripple Vale, the Field Marshal's birthplace, where a private interment will be conducted.

DUKE OF NORTHUMBERLAND MADE K.G.

LONDON, May 25.

The King to-day appointed the Duke of Northumberland a Knight of the Garter. The appointment was for the purpose of filling the vacancy caused by the death of Marquis Curzon of Kedleston.

FINANCE BILL PASSES SECOND READING.

LONDON, May 25.

In the House of Commons to-night Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, secured the second reading of the Finance Bill embodying his Budget proposals. The bill passed its second reading after closure was applied and carried, and Philip Snowden's motion to reject the bill was defeated by 331 to 149.

300 KILLED BY EXPLOSION IN MUKDEN.

PEKING, May 25.

Three hundred persons are reported to have been killed or injured in a great explosion in the Mukden Arsenal. The blast occurred in the middle of the night from some unknown cause, and buildings a thousand yards distant were demolished.

MANY ICEBERGS IN SHIPPING ROUTE.

HALIFAX, May 25.

Captain Wolf of the United States coastguard cutter Modoc in port to-day from the North Atlantic ice patrol, stated that there were sixty known and charted icebergs, the steamer lanes, and nineteen additional bergs not definitely identified. Bombardment of the bergs had not proved effective in breaking them up, he said, and a new type of mine has to be experimented with. The Modoc was relieved by the Tampa, and will remain in port until about June 4. Judging from the prevalence of large bergs, Capt. Wolf said, he judged the patrol would be kept up until July 1.

KING BORIS SIGNS DEATH WARRANTS.

SOFIA, May 25.

King Boris of Bulgaria, an enemy of capital punishment, to-day confirmed the death sentences of the three men who took part in the Sveti Kral Cathedral bombing, in which 160 people were killed. These are the first death sentences King Boris ever has approved. He declared the plot justified the court martial's extreme judgment. Now that King Boris has broken his rule of never sanctioning the death penalty, the State prosecutors hope he will approve other death sentences given this Bolshevik plotters who have sought to upset his throne.

STORMS THREATENING IN THE ARCTIC.

OSLO AMUNDSEN, May 25.

The Shipping Gazette says that the Arctic regions are threatened with storms which it is thought will compel Captain Amundsen to return immediately, if he is able. The weather forecast is for snow and fog on Wednesday.
