

The Fenian Alarm in Britain.

Considerable excitement was created at Berwick Oct. 4th and 5th by the announcement that information had been received that it was intended by the Fenians to make an attack upon the barracks, and seize the arms and ammunition which are stored there. The information was received on Friday morning by the arrival of a London detective officer, who had been sent down specially by Sir Richard Mayne. It was decided that the Volunteers should have their arms removed from the barracks and put into their own possession; and this was done on Friday and Saturday night. The staff and the Militia are on duty all night with loaded arms. Three large field pieces in the barracks square have been loaded with grape shot, and so placed as to repel an attack from whatever direction it might be made. Hand grenades are also ready to be thrown over the walls of the barracks at any time. The coast-guard officers, and the men of the gunboat are also fully prepared for any emergency, and are keeping a watch day and night. The police, under the direction of Sergeant Bondson, are on duty all night, and watch strictly the whereabouts of any stranger who may happen to come into the town.

Shortly after 11 o'clock on the night of Oct. 10th, a rumor spread through the crowd at the fire in High Street, Edinburgh, that the Fenians had entered the General Post Office and set fire to it. This caused great consternation. The astounding rumor had so far gained credence that intelligence was conveyed to the Castle and a company of soldiers, under the command of two officers, was marched down to the scene of the fire to keep order. Lord Provost Chambers appeared on the ground at this time, but having ascertained that the fire had got under and that the Fenian rumor was a hoax, his Lordship sent the troops back to the Castle. Fresh sensational Fenian rumours have been afloat in Dublin, one for instance, to the effect that a military movement took place a night or so ago towards Tallagh, the Fenian rendezvous of March last, where a gathering was expected. Nothing of the kind happened. Arrests on suspicion made in Dundalk have proved to be of no importance. Two labouring men, named O'Brien, were remanded by the Dublin magistrates for having had concealed under the cushion of a sofa in the room they occupied, two rifles and a bayonet which they stated to the searching party of police they had got from a person who had gone to America.

The Edinburgh banks have been warned against a Fenian surprise, and the rifles have been removed from the militia barracks to the castle. The general belief is that there is ground for apprehension, and that the precautions taken are unnecessary.

RUNAWAY AND SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Saturday afternoon last about 4 o'clock as Mrs. Benjamin Carter of Galt was driving on the Blair Road, near Rosehill, an iron cliff which attaches the shafts to the buggy broke off and allowed one side of the shaft to fall and strike the legs of the horse. The animal ran away and there being nothing but the traces to keep the buggy steady, it swayed from side to side and at last upset, throwing Mrs. Carter on the ground with great violence. Her left wrist was sprained and the bone of the left elbow badly bruised if not broken. The left side of her face is also much injured and swollen, but although the bruises are painful, she is in a fair way to recover speedily. The buggy was damaged and left on the road, but the horse came to his stable of his own accord not much the worse of his runaway.—Galt Reporter.

PROOFS OF THE SUPERIOR QUALITY OF THE AMERICAN WATCH
MADE AT WALTHAM, MASS.

Referring to their advertisement in a previous issue of this paper, the American Watch Company, of Waltham Mass., respectfully submit that their Watches are cheaper, more accurate, less complex, more durable, better adapted for general use, and more easily kept in order and repaired than any other watches in the market.

They are simpler in structure, and therefore stronger, and less likely to be injured than the majority of foreign watches. They are composed of from 125 to 200 pieces, while in an old English watch there are more than 700 parts.

How they run under the hardest trial watches can have, is shown by the following letters:

PENN. RAILROAD COMPANY.
Office of the General Superintendent, Altoona, Pa., 15th Dec., 1866.

GENTLEMEN.—The watches manufactured by you have been in use on this railroad for several years by our engineers, to whom we furnish watches as part of our equipment. There are now some 300 of them carried on our line, and we consider them good and reliable time-keepers. Indeed, I have great satisfaction in saying your watches give us less trouble, and have worn out much longer without repairs than any watches we have ever had in use on this road. As you are aware, we formerly trusted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good repute; but as a class they never kept time as correctly, nor have they done as good service as yours. In these statements I am sustained by my predecessor, Mr. Lewis, whose experience extended over a series of years.

Respectfully,
EDWARD H. WILLIAMS,
General Superintendent,
American Watch Co., Waltham.

NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD.
Locomotive Department, West Division, Rochester, Dec. 24, 1866.

GENTLEMEN.—I have no hesitation in saying that I believe the great majority of Locomotive Engineers have found by experience that Waltham Watches are the most satisfactory of any for their uses. They run with the greatest accuracy and steadiness, notwithstanding the rough riding of an engine, and as I have never known one to wear out, they must be durable. I hope to see the time when Railway Companies will generally adopt your watches, and furnish them to all engineers and conductors. In my opinion it would greatly tend to promote regularity and safety.

Yours respectfully,
CHAS. WILSON, Chief Engineer,
Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers,
American Watch Co., Waltham, Mass.

We now make five different grades of watches, named respectively as follows:
Appleton, Tracy & Co., Waltham, Mass.
Waltham Watch Co., Waltham, Mass.
P. S. Bartlett, Waltham, Mass.
Wm. Ellery, Boston, Mass.
Home Watch Company, Boston, Mass.

All of these, with the exception of the Home Watch Company, are warranted by the American Watch Company to be of the best material, on the most approved improved principle, and to possess every requisite for a reliable time-keeper. Every dealer selling these watches is provided with the Company's printed card of guarantee, which should accompany each watch sold, so that buyers may feel sure that they are purchasing the genuine article. There are numerous counterfeiters and imitations of our watches sold throughout the country, and we would caution purchasers to be on their guard against imposition.

Any grades of Waltham Watches may be purchased of watch dealers.
Testimonials can be obtained on application from many persons in Canada who have worn the watches with the greatest satisfaction.

Also, a Frame Barn 60x30, with 18 feet posts and underground stabling, and a never-failing spring in the barn yard for the supply of water to cattle. This is a very eligible property, and well adapted to the wishes of those who wish to obtain a good farm.

Also—Lot 42, in the 2nd Concession of Bentinck, West of the Ganaraxa Road, 100 acres, about 12 acres cleared, with a Frame House on the lot.—The Rocky Saugen River crosses one corner of this lot, and has a valuable water power on it, capable of driving any machinery.

Veterinary Surgeon,

Great Cure of Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia in Canada.

Consecon, Prince Edward Co., C.W. 4
March, 1867.

Messrs. Young & Chamberlain, Sirs—Having proved within my own person that there is at last a medicine that will indeed cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, I am induced to make this statement, under oath, which is to certify that I have been sorely afflicted for the last three years, according to the Doctors' statements, with Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia. I had a feeling of sinking, and a great uneasiness about the stomach, worse than pain, eructations of wind, occasional pain, drowsiness, constipation, uselessness in the right side, headache, a poor appetite, &c., and was greatly reduced in strength. Hearing your new Indian medicine, the Great Shoehornes Remedy, spoken of so highly, I tried a bottle with your Pills, from these I must say I found but little change, but I took another and then found my health improving. I continued it until I have taken about ten bottles, using the Pills, and I find that I have quite recovered. I eat hearty without pain or uneasiness. I am well and have pleasure in attending to my business. The doctor remarked to me I was looking much better. I told him that the Great Shoehornes Remedy was doing it. He has recommended the Remedy in several cases, and it has invariably given good satisfaction, and would strongly recommend it to all afflicted as I was.
