It is furnish-ed to the Sarnia Observer by a corres-pondent of that journal :--We regret to amounce that Mr. J. S. The consequence was, Mr. A. scraped together all he could lay his hands on, and skedaddled to the land of the free, previously taking the precaution to deed all his property to his two sons. The course Mr. Armstrong has taken is generally regretted, for he is shrewd as well as energetic, and has been the means of doing much good in this section of the country ; and it is hoped he may yet repent the rash step he has taken.
