

WHENEVER I see Hood's Sarsaparilla now I want to bow and say

"Thank You"

I was badly affected with Eczema and Scrofula Sores, covering almost the whole of one side of my face, nearly to the top of my head. Running sores discharged from both ears. My eyes were very bad, the eyelids so sore it was painful opening or closing them. For nearly a year I was deaf. I went to the hospital and had an operation performed for the removal of a cataract from one eye. One day my sister brought me

Hood's Sarsaparilla which I took, and gradually began to feel better and stronger, and slowly the sores on my eyes and in my ears healed. I can now hear and see as well as ever. Mrs. AMANDA PAISLEY, 178 Lander Street, Newburgh, N. Y.

Contention that Witnesses Before Committees Must Be Sworn

Finally Acquiesced In by Sir John Thompson.

Proposal to Reduce the Governor-General's Salary One-Half.

Thursday to be Taken for Government Business in Parliament.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.)

OTTAWA, April 24.—The going into committee on the tariff resolutions was delayed to-day by a motion respecting the obstacles the Government are throwing in the way of the investigation of public accounts. Among the preliminary business was the following:

Dr. Sprule introduced a bill to compel detective corporations and mercantile agencies to become incorporated. The names of the incorporators must be filed with the Secretary of State together with $10,000 security. The bill makes various provisions respecting mercantile agencies, one being that they shall not act as collecting agencies. The bill was read the first time.

Mr. Mulock introduced a bill to fix the salary of the Governor-General. Mr. Mulock dwelt upon what he termed the excessive cost of the office, which has been $114,000 a year since confederation. The bill provides for a reduction of the Governor-General's salary by one half, or a reduction to $57,000, to take effect on the expiration of the present incumbent's term of office. The bill was read the first time without further discussion.

Mr. Laurier protested against a motion made by Sir John Thompson to take Thursday for Government business, pointing out that it would block consideration of several important public bills.

Sir John Thompson consented to exempt this week from the operation of the motion and Mr. Laurier thereupon agreed to it.

On the motion to go into committee of ways and means, Sir Richard Cartwright brought up the action of the public accounts committee in refusing to allow Mr. McMullen to examine witnesses under oath respecting the Bering Sea expenditure. Sir Richard Cartwright, alluding to the fact that investigation was refused this morning by a majority, made up of members of the Cabinet, condemned the practice of a large number of Ministers having seats on that committee. As a reason for this he stated that it was a compromise in the controversy he moved "That whenever any member of the committee on public accounts shall declare in his place in the committee, that he has examined the papers and vouchers submitted with respect to any items referred to the committee, and that he is convinced that it is necessary in the public interest that all witnesses examined in reference to the item should be examined upon oath, it shall be an instruction to the committee to cause such witnesses to be so examined."

Sir John Thompson made a speech in reply, the effect of which was that while the rule laid down by Sir Richard Cartwright was unobjectionable, and should be sufficient reason for the committee to agree to it. Whenever put forward it should only operate to induce the committee to come to the House for authority. In other words he would not clothe the committee with a general authority to examine under oath, but would compel each case to be first reported to the House and then authority might be given. The only objection to the motion, said the Premier, was that it was too sweeping.

Mr. Laurier pointed out that the delay involved in coming to the House on each occasion would be fatal to investigation. They were now in the fifth week of the session, and not a single witness had yet been examined. It was evident, Mr. Laurier added, that the Government, while professing to be in favor of the inquiry, were engaged in putting every possible obstacle in the way.

After some considerable discussion Sir John Thompson suggested that a bill be passed within a few days enabling the House to instruct the committee to examine witnesses under oath, and even go as far as the British act, and confer power on the committee to examine upon oath. The Premier intimated that the Government for this purpose would take charge of Mr. Mulock's bill already on the paper.

Mr. Laurier said that this was what the Opposition had contended for and were quite willing to acquiesce in it.

Sir Richard Cartwright said it was satisfactory to him, and he withdrew his motion.

The House went into committee on the tariff. There was a long discussion on the item of 6 cents per pound on books, and a protest entered on the ground that it would be an excessive tax on knowledge. The item finally passed without change.

On the item covering wall papers, Mr. Foster had the changes made of which he gave notice last Friday. These placed all wall papers under the two following classes: Thirty-five per cent on papers printed on plain underground paper, which is not made in Canada; and 1½ cent a roll and 25 per cent on all other papers. This is a large increase over the tariff as brought down a few weeks ago.

Sir Richard Cartwright put the dead loss to the public during the last fourteen years on this effect to foster an industry not indigenous to the country at $1,500,000, besides an annual loss of $150,000. The item passed.

After passing the acids and chemical schedule the House adjourned. The changes beyond these, of which notice has been given, were made. About 30 items altogether were passed.

NOTES.
Mr. Coatsworth gives notice of a resolution "That it is expedient to insert in every contract for any public work made hereafter a clause requiring the contractor to pay the workmen engaged upon such work a rate of wages at least equal to the current rate of wages paid in the locality where such work is being done, at and during the time such contract is being done."

Mr. Grieve will ask the Government if they are aware of the destructive fire at the public buildings in the Stratford on Friday last, and as to the nature of the contract for the new roof, the putting on of which was the cause of the fire.

Mr. Flint will move to place books published by fraternal or charitable societies or religious associations and not intended for sale on the free list.

Mr. Lister, the member for West Lambton, left for Toronto this evening.

The vice-regal party left for Kingston this morning.

Connie's Separate School Bill Again Discussed,

And Secures a Majority of 22 on a Division.

Mr. Fraser Speaks and Votes in Favor of the Measure—Mr. McNaughton's Name Among the Yeas.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.)

PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS, TORONTO, April 24.—The debate on the Separate Schools Bill was continued to-day. The House held its first morning session. Mr. Fraser attempted to proceed with his argument, so prematurely stopped yesterday, but had not gone far before he was again forced to take his seat. He was followed by Mr. Clancy and Mr. White.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
Mr. White, resuming his speech, accused the Commissioner of Public Works of being recreant to his duty regarding separate schools. He maintained that the bill was only a half way measure, and said he had no objection to a compulsory ballot.

Mr. Balfour said he knew the minority in the constituencies of Mr. White and Mr. Clancy would not accept them as the true exponents of Roman Catholic opinion on this question. He pointed out that Mr. White would not have secured a seat in the House last election had he not disavowed the school policy of his leader and run as an independent candidate upon that question. Mr. Balfour then referred to the intolerance which Mr. Meredith had always shown. The latest evidence of this was seen in the class of men who surrounded him on his nomination a few weeks since—Mr. Esery and Mr. Coe—men ever ready to raise cries of bigotry, and to misrepresent all that Catholics held most dear. The Government did not court the enmity of anybody, but it was not going to ally itself with such an organization as that to which the persons mentioned belonged. He challenged any member of the Opposition to denounce the teachings of the P. P. A. on the floor of the House. (Cheers.) Protestants were strong enough to do justice to the Catholics in this Province, and that was the reason he intended to favor the bill.

Mr. Clarke (Toronto) said—speaking solely for himself—he would like to see the separate schools abolished. He would not like to see this done, however, without the consent of the laity of the Catholic Church. He thought a curriculum should be formed which would meet with the approval of both Catholics and Protestants, so that all children could be educated at public and national schools.

Mr. Meredith said while Mr. Connec was rambling yesterday to show the unfeeling loyalty of Catholics to their sovereign his (Mr. Meredith's) mind was at a Donnybrook fair calling upon the Opposition to tread on the tail of his coat. (Applause.) When members of the Government accused him of saying that Protestants should unite as against a common enemy examined in reference to the item should be examined upon oath, it shall be an instruction to the committee to cause such witnesses to be so examined."

The bill was referred to a special committee.

EVENING SESSION.
Mr. McCallum (P. P. A.) introduced his Compulsory Ballot Bill, which is even more striking in its forcible and inquisitorial features than the motion of Mr. Meredith, and spoke for five minutes. Mr. Meredith, of Prescott, replied in an eloquent address. He aroused great interest by his historical references, and was frequently interrupted by loud applause. Sol White, Dr. Ryerson, Hon. Mr. Fraser and Hon. Mr. Ross spoke. The Minister of Education explaining at length the provisions of the bill.

The division resulted in a vote of 53 to 28 against the bill. Sol White, Mr. McNaughton (Patron), and the Reformers voted against the bill.

"Remarkable Cure of Dropsy and Dyspepsia."—Mr. Samuel T. Casey, Belleville, writes: "In the spring of 1884 I began to be troubled with dyspepsia, which gradually became more and more distressing. I used various domestic remedies and applied to my family physician, but received no benefit. By this time my trouble assumed the form of dropsy. I was unable to use any food whatever except boiled milk and bread; my limbs were swollen to twice their natural size; all hopes of my recovery were given up, and I quite expected death within a few weeks. Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY having been recommended to me, I tried a bottle with but little hope of relief; and now, after using eight bottles, my Dyspepsia and Dropsy are cured. Although now 79 years of age I can enjoy my meals as well as ever, and my general health is good. I am well-known in this section of Canada, having lived here 57 years; and you have liberty to use my name in recommendation of your VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, which has done such wonders in my case."
