JOHN CAMERON, President and Mng. Dir.

London, Thursday, June 4.

Does anyone now doubt that London is Liberal?

Londoners have entered into the conspiracy against the Tupper faction.
What a dreadful outlook!

In Britain, too, Liberalism is gaining.
Two seats until now Conservative were carried by supporters of Lord Rosebery this week.

No one was more in his element last night than Mr. Geo. M. Reid. He is a man whose enthusiasm is infectious, and his unselfishness is looking after the interests of his fellow is proverbial.
But when he attempted to find room in the Princess Rink for 15,000 to 15,000 enthusiastic men and women he had to break the contract.

The Two Leaders.

While Hon. Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Oliver Mowat were addressing between 7,000 and 8,000 persons in and around the Princess Rink, and as many more were clamoring for admission, last night, Sir Charles Tupper was, according to a dispatch in the Toronto World, speaking to about 2,000 people in Halifax.
N. S. Halifax is a larger city than London.

An Extraordinary Campaign.

The period of Tupperite rib-stabbing is now in full swing. The other day there appeared in the columns of our city contemporary, the Free Press, an article attacking Mr. Thomas Coffey, publisher of the Catholic Record. The writer was, of course, either afraid or ashamed to sign his name. It is more than evident that his purpose was to injure Mr. Coffey's business by misrepresentation, because that gentleman would not allow his paper to be used for electioneering purposes for the high tax party. The Catholic Record, the anonymous correspondent writes, printed the following: "Priests are forbidden to meddle in partisan politics."
"Political clergymen are monstrosities." The first line appeared in an article copied from the Catholic Review, of New York; the second from the Catholic Universe, of Cleveland.
Removed from their context, and set forth with the purpose of having the impression conveyed that they were the utterances of the editor of the Catholic Record, the writer evidently meant to deal a cowardly blow at a neighbor, whose only offense is that he cannot see eye to eye with him in all things.

In order that our readers may see the true inwardness of the anonymous scribe, we print the paragraphs from which the extracts referred to are taken:

"In purely political affairs Catholics are free to follow any policy or join any party they choose, without let or hindrance on the part of the church, or of any of its representatives. Its priests are forbidden to meddle in partisan politics. As citizens, they themselves may vote as they please, but they may not dictate to the laity in civil matters apart from faith or morals, nor may they use their pulpits for or against any party, as such.
The business of the church is to save souls, not to put the tariff up or down, nor to decide at what ratio silver shall be coined with gold.—Catholic Review.

"Emperor William says a clever thing now and then that is all the more forcible because of its stinging truth and directness. For instance, the other day, in characterizing Pastor Stoecker, formerly court chaplain, who achieved notoriety by his bitter anti-Catholic venom, the War Lord declared in a telegram: 'Stoecker has finished as I foretold years ago. Political clergymen are monstrosities.' Only a few short years ago Stoecker secured as chief high executioner of Catholicism in Germany. The church was never more vigorous or flourishing in the German Empire than at present, but see where Stoecker is—Catholic Universe."

To those who have studied the political history of our times, the gymnastics of the Conservative leaders during the past twelve years form a sidesplitting picture. When Sir Oliver Mowat was to be killed, we had inscribed on their banners, "To hades with the Pope!" and "Down with separate schools." But when Sir Chas.
Tupper is in great danger, they simulate respect for the Pope, the bishops and the priests, and say they are not such bad fellows after all, and that separate schools they must have, though the heavens should fall!

What the Conservative bosses really were anxious to get in the first instance was place and power in the Legislature, and in the present case their one aim, at whatever sacrifice to past professions, is to retain power at Ottawa. To do so, they resort to misrepresentation of those who mistrust or oppose them, and they proceed to believe that while separate schools are the crying need in Manitoba, they are an abomination in Ontario! Altogether the Tupper family compact is a peculiar one. The extremists—those who assert that they would not permit Catholics to live at all in this country, if they could establish such a condition of affairs—are given full rein in the Ontario campaigns; but when the tocsin is sounded for the Dominion House Catholics are told that the "no surrender" wing has been read out of the party. They are read in to kill Mowat and read out to save Tupper.

Was there ever such duplicity?

The Laurier-Mowat Demonstration.

Elsewhere will be found a report of the magnificent demonstration in the Princess Skating Rink, of London, to the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, the coming Prime Minister of Canada, and to Sir Oliver Mowat, the ever-victorious Premier of the chief Province of the Dominion.

The attendance last night has never been equaled in the previous history of London meetings. The audience was attentive, alert to every good point, and enthusiastic to a degree.

Dr. George C. Davis, President of the London Young Liberal Club, made a model chairman. Mr. C. S. Hyman, who will be Member for London at 5 p.m. on the 23rd of June, received a welcome that showed the strength of his hold on the good will of the constituency. Sir Oliver Mowat's very presence was an inspiration—the man who has never known defeat. Big, genial, and powerful William Paterson, of Brantford, warmed the hearts of all who heard him—and they all heard him!

Of course, the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier was the observed of all observers, the cynosure of all eyes and ears. Tall, the embodiment of graceful and distinguished manhood; argumentative; logical; brilliant; straightforward in manner and matter, having the same words for London as for Quebec, the Liberal chieftain took the immense audience by storm.

The meeting was a magnificent success, and will powerfully influence every part of Western Ontario.

Get Together.

A telegram from Winnipeg to the Toronto Star says: "If Manitoba does not return a solid aggregation against the Government, excepting in Proven-cher, it will be because of a split among the Patrons and Liberals. Liberals are supporting with all their might Patrons in Eastern and Western Assiniboia against Davin and W. Mc-Donald, the late members." Why should there not be reciprocity in Manitoba. How delighted the corrupt men who control at Ottawa will be if they can only keep two opponents in the field in constituencies where one only would beat them.

Opposed to Reciprocity Now.

In 1891, the men now in power at Ottawa went to the country suddenly because, as they asserted, they had received an offer of reciprocity from the United States.

It turned out that they had received no offer, and Sir Charles Tupper admitted to Secretary Blaine that the alleged offer was an election lie which had been put into the Governor-General's mouth by his advisers.

In that campaign, the high tax leaders asserted that they were ready to agree to reciprocity in products of the farm, mine and forest, but not to reciprocity in any line of manufactured goods. The United States Government refused to negotiate on that they considered a one-sided basis.

Now the high tax managers and the newspapers supporting them assert that reciprocity in natural products, which they asserted they dissolved Parliament in order to try to obtain from the United States, would be most injurious to our farmers and to Canadian interests generally!

Well may the old-time Conservative ask the manipulators of his party today, "Where are we at, and into what labyrinth of inconsistency do you mean to lead us?"

International Friendliness.

International courtesy between Canada and the United States is not as general as most of us would like it.
There are demagogues in both countries who try to make a living by stirring up trouble. But occasionally one finds a proof that permanent success will not attend the mischief maker. Canada has no regular steamship communication as yet with the Yukon country, bordering on Alaska, and United States steamers are carrying British Columbia mails to and from that country free of charge, merely as a matter of courtesy. The less red-tape there is in the international relationship the better. Do we not find a great lesson in the constant care of the great railways of Canada to have as many as possible of the hindrances to travel removed? This idea was voiced by Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, president of the Grand Trunk Railway, in a recent interview, when he spoke strongly in favor of having the tariff walls between the two countries as low as possible. Sir Charles knows that every unnecessary obstacle placed in the way of commerce is an injury to the great railway interests of Canada and of the very many commercial undertakings upon the prosperity of which they depend for paying traffic.

For more than a half century Lit-tell's Living Age has been republishing the best and most important papers, biographies, reviews, stories, verses and sketches of travel, to be found in the foreign (especially the British) magazines, quarters and literary weeklies. During this long period it has been prized and commended for the judgment and taste exhibited in its selections. Hardly one of the eminent British authors of the past 50 years can be named who has not been represented in these pages.
Its latest issues contain many articles of present interest and permanent value. The following are worthy of special mention: "Caesar and Emperor," by Karl Blind; "Sia-tin Pasha and the Sudan," by Capt.
F. D. Lugard; "Matthew Arnold," by Frederic Harrison; "Nature in the Earlier Roman Poets," by Evelyn Martineau; "Caesars," by Jean Baptiste and "His Language," by Howard Angus Kennedy. In fiction, a short story, by Mary E. Mann, is particularly readable with its mixture of pathos, humor and superstition. Published weekly, at $6 a year, by Littell & Co., Boston.

The Atlantic for June has a long array of well-known names on its index page, among which will be found those of Henry James, Olive Thorne Miller, Paul Leicester Ford, author of that much discussed book,
"The Honorable," Peter Stirling, George Parsons Lothrop, Mary H.
Catherwood, Elizabeth Bellamy, R. H.
Stoddard, who contributes a dainty poem, "The Whirligig of Fortune," is a good tale by T. R. Sullivan. There is also an interesting paper relating to the persona of a writer of Dr.
Holmes. Boston: Houghton, Mifflin & Co.

BUSY AS EVER.

Los Angeles Express.
The hand that rocked the cradle is now guiding the bicycle.

YES, WE'VE LEARNED.

Archibald Globe.
Talk about manhood: have you not dignified a bicycle in the hands of a beginner has for turning its nose at things, and running at them?

THE HOME MISSION FIELD.

Yonkers Statesman.
Here is a scientist endeavoring to invent some way by which we may signal to the stars, and yet there are women among us who are unable to stop a trolley car.

"Have you heard," said Della Ware, To her lover sitting there,
"There's bacilli in a kiss, as they suppose?"

Then he answered: "Don't you fear, For I never notice, dear, Every little thing that happens
'neath my nose.'"

THE DARK HORSE.

Galveston News.
The "dark horse" probably originated with Dierckx, who, in "The Young Duke," refers to an exciting race, as follows: "The first favorite was never heard of; the second was never seen after the distance post; all the 10-to-1's were in the rear, and a dark horse, which had never been thought of, rushed past the grand stand in a sweeping triumph."

CHAMPION PORK PRODUCER.

Hartford Journal.
Mr. James A. Thomas has an old sow that perhaps has been of more service to him and brought more money and meat than any ten hogs in the county. She is 16 years old this spring, and has raised something near 250 pigs, the estimated value of which would be about $1,000. She is of the Chester-Berkshire stock, and in good fix now, and looks as if she might live to be twice as old.

IT PUT NEW LIFE IN ME.

"All I Did Was Just to Mope Around"—
"Scott's Sarsaparilla Cured Me."

The chilly weather of late fall and early winter finds them unprepared to stand the change and hence they suffer. This fact is plainly proved by the following opinions of some who speak from practical experience:
"I felt like a man that could commit suicide. I caught a cold while camping on damp ground, had twinges of awful muscular pains, couldn't eat and couldn't sleep. All I did was to mope around and make all in the house as miserable as myself. Scott's Sarsaparilla put new life in me. I used it up thoroughly, and since its use pain is a stranger to me." Alex.
Grant, Toronto.

J. T. McGraw, a mining prospector, writing from Minden: "Express me three bottles Scott's Sarsaparilla here before Saturday. Have been a martyr to rheumatism and indigestion brought on by exposure. Scott's Sarsaparilla is rapidly curing me."

Nothing has ever equalled Scott's Sarsaparilla for building up the system, putting the blood in healthful circulation, and invigorating the body.
Thousands testify to its splendid effects in extreme weakness and all debilitating diseases. On this account no imitation of Scott's should be accepted. Of your local druggist at $1 per bottle, 6 bottles $5.
