To Be Literally Buried Alive for the First Year of His Life Imprisonment.

New York, Aug. 30. - A cablegram from Milan says the sentence passed upon Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert, means one year of solitary confinement in a secret cell, six feet long by three wide, dark, with a plank for a bed and bread and water once every 24 hours as a diet. Absolute silence is enforced rigorously. If he breaks the rule he is placed in a straight-jacket, in irons, or in the "straight bed." The year must be spent also without work, books, writing materials or tobacco. Few prisoners complete the year of solitude; they either go mad or die. Should Bresci live and retain his reason he will be placed at work in pri-

Ald. Anderson, on behalf of the congregation, then presented the pastor with a handsome cabinet of silver cutlery as a token of their esteem.

Dr. Somerville made a very feeling acknowledgment of the beautiful gift, and the kindly feelings it evidenced. Rev. Mr. Black, on behalf of the presbytery, tendered the congregation and pastor congratulatory resolutions on their silver wedding.

All the speakers referred in the highest terms to Dr. Somerville's high character and the earnest work which has been rewarded in such a marked degree by the prosperity of his church.
