For Houseksepers. The market this morning was a scene of bustling activity, in which buyers sought eagerly to satisfy the requirements of emptied larders and stock them with Christmas edibles. The trade in butter was quite active. The amount brought in was quite adequate and prices were very fair. There will likely be no change more for reaching than the daily fluctuations for some time to come. The same is applicable to the poultry trade. There may be an advance just befor Christmas, but in the meantime turkeys will remain about 8c and 81/2c and chickens as quoted today. Little change is expected in the case of other

GRAND JURY PRESENTMENT

Speaks Most Favorably of the Proposed Consumptive Sanitarium.

Words of Praise for Soldier Boys Who Fought in South Africa --- Judge's Reply-Mr. Bartram's Case.

The county court and general sessions of the peace was resumed for a you with our coal. short sitting at 11 o'clock this horning. The grand jury's presentment do it? was brought in, and replied to by the It makes cookjudge. Mr. W. H. Bartram was let go ing a pleasureon suspended sentence of assaulting Robb McGarry.

GRAND JURY'S PRESENTMENT. In their presentment the grand jury expressed uneir regret at the heaviness of the criminal docket and the serious nature of some of the criminal charges. The jail had been found neat and clean. The jury found at the asylum 1,021 patients, 482 mares and 539 femilies, this being the full capacity of the institution. They recommended the provision of a hayfork on the asylum

The presentment made the following references to the proposed sanitarium and the returning Canadian soldiers: "The grand jury was privileged to listen to instructive addresses on the subject of a consumptive sanitarium, by a number of city medical men. After hearing these convincing addresses the grand jury are unanimously of opinion that much good to suffering humanity would follow the establishment of such an institution.

We cannot bring this presentment to a close without a response to your honor's reference to the war of the empire in South Africa. Amid all the carnage and strife, the one fact stands out proclaimed in deeds that cannot be mistaken, that Canada is prepared to share with the motherland the responsibilities of an imperial destiny. The Dominion sent 3,000 of its best as an earnest of its feelings, and of these the old county of Middlesex contributed a not insignificant share. It is to be hoped that the reception of the returning heroes will to as great a degree as possible demonstrate to them our valuation of the sacrifice they made. To the relatives and friends of those who do not return, whose bones lie on the African veldt as an evidence of the valor of Canadian sons, we offer our sincere condolences, and trust that our appreciative county will ever keep their sacrifice in remembrance.' THE JUDGE'S REPLY.

In reply, Judge Elliott thanked the jurors for the expeditious and satisfactory manner in which they nad performed their duties. While the criminal calendar at this court had been heavy, the general county criminal business for the past year had been highter than for the preceding seven years, and in the county court the lightest since he (Judge Elliott) ascended the bench. This state of things was paralleled all over Ontario, according to the report of the inspector of prisons. The judge was glad to see that the jury had seen their way to indorse the principle of a consumption sanitarium, and trusted that its accomplishment would prove a great benefit to the community. He also ex-pressed his appreciation of their reference to the Canadian soldiers. copy of the latter will be sent to Col. Holmes, D. O. C., that it may be read to the soldiers on their return. MR. BARTRAM'S CASE.

On appearing for sentence, Mr. Bartram made application to have judgment reserved on a point of law. His application was refused. The judge then announced that he did not propose to impose the penalty of fine or imprisonment, as he might have done, but would let Mr. Bartram go on suspended sentence, on entering into his own recognizances to appear when

Warren Jenkins was admitted to bail on the charges of fraud and assault. His case will probably be transferred to the assizes. Cornelius Elms, the Indian guilty of assault, will not be sentenced till next Saturday. The grand jury yesterday brought in no bill against W. Davidson, charged with stealing a quantity of field stones. The county court was adjourned un-

THERE IS DANGER IN NEG-LECTING A COLD. Many who have died of consumption dated their troubles from exposure, followed by a cold which settled on their lungs, and in a short time they were beyond the skill of the best physician. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, before it was too late, their lives would have been spared. This medicine has no equal for curing coughs, colds and all affections of the throat and lungs,
