

A fine "breakfast" food, did I hear you say?

You'll be three times wiser when you've discovered that a dish of "FORCE" and cream is just what your stomach is making signs for, the last thing before going to bed.

Try it to-night, and see how you'll sleep.

FIGHTING

CHAPTER XIII.

Miriam Heatherton felt as if "the lines had fallen in pleasant places" for her and Ned, for, in spite of Benjamin | Mary.' Lawson's peculiarities—and they were numerous—they found him a kind and agreeable person to live with.

growing more and more fond of Ned every day, while toward Miriam his manner, though always more or less and more mutiny in the less than the l It was very evident that he was abrupt, was ever characterized by a sympathetic gentleness which touched

She made a charming as well as a practical mistress of his home, durlovely home, which grew even more trials and feared that she might find it difficult to fill the position satisfactorily, for the servants, looking upon her simply as "hired help," like themselves, undertook to make things disagreeable for her, and, upon several occasions, ignored her orders and obstinately persisted in doing the work of the most more that the other day, when "Cy" Young set the youngsters of the season as time went on, for Mrs. Heatherton's skillful fingers wrought many a tasteful decoration to add beauty and brightness to it.

Ned enjoyed his school and threw himself heartily into the busines of getting an education.

Ned enjoyed his school and threw himself heartily into the busines of getting an education.

He grew very ambitious, too, for, being the first fortnight; she had some

One morning the cook flatly refused to carry out her instructions regarding the dinner for that day, simply because she wished to make some changes, for the sake of variety, from the usual mode of serving the meat and dessert.

"Indade, thin, I'll not be workin' me-"Indade, thin, I'll not be worki sel' to the bones, fur the loike of yez," hotly asserted the "queen of the kitwith her arms akimbo and her ruddy face several shades more crimson than usual. "The mate'll do well enough widout the stuffin', there'll be no Yorkshire puddin', and I'll not bate me arms off with frostin' th' custard.' This was rebellion in good earnest, and Mrs. Heatherton well knew that things could not go on after that fashion, and have her position thoroughly knew she would have it. understood and acknowledged, or she might as well resign it at once. She thought a moment before replyanger had faded from her cheek; then she quietly remarked:

"Thin it's yersel' that'll be doin' it, I'm thinking," defiantly and impudentfrom behind the dining-room door convinced Miriam that Mary, the second girl, was keenly enjoying this word bat- feel quite equal to going himself. tle, and curious to see who would come out ahead. "Very well," she replied, with a decido it-I understand cooking perfectly. But if I am to do the work in the kitchen, there will be no occasion for your remaining, and you can go directly to not seen him since that day we got your room and pack your trunk. I will Gertrude's dog away from him. What settle with you at once.' Miss Bridget looked dumbfounded for a moment at this-the wind was entirely taken out of her sails so to speak, but only temporarily. She soon rallied and returned to the fray. "Get along wid yez," she cried excitedly; "d'ye think I'll be afther takin' me discharge from the loikes of yez? Ye're no better o' a servant yersel'— hired fer what yez can get. Whin the

"It is worse than useless, Bridget, for you to assume such an attitude towards charge of Mr. Lawson's house, but I the only place where it is now to be occupy the position of mistress here, found in abundance is along the Anand mistress I shall be as long as I apo River in Sicily.

remain in it; and whoever comes here as cook or second gird"—this with suggestive emphasis intended for other ears—"will have to do as I direct, or they cannot remain. I wish you to understand this distinctly. I would much prefer to be upon friendly terms with you, and there is no reason why we should not get along pleasantly togeth dered, and yield me obedience in the future, you can remain here—otherwis you will go today.'

'Ye've no right to be turnin' me off widout me week's notice," the girl re-turned in a more subdued tone, and with a suspicious tremor in her voice. week's notice, but you cannot remain here another hour if you refuse to do as I desire. It will do no good for you to appeal to Mr. Lawson, as he has given me entire control of the house colored lad, will do some of the riding last the premier events. Andy Moxley, a given me entire control of the house colored lad, will do some of the riding before she was shipped east to the auction sale at Cleveland, where Mr. Dillings bought her, Lou Dillon trotted fore in all me born days," whined Brid- was taken into the Hendrie stable get, with a very red and disconsolate some years ago, and who has since and, since Mr. Lawson has given me that position, it is my duty to do the best that I can for him," Miriam re- at the Woodbine yesterday morning aged 2:18 trotters and finish a close main upon the conditions which I have Longeletta.

named, if you choose. You are a very VESTER good cook-your omelet this morning was delicious."

he continued, "I have a very nice re- to 1. cipe for meat stuffing, also, which I intended to ask you to try for today, GOLF. for I know that Mr. Lawson would like it; however, I shall make it myself." 'Indade, ma'am, and ye needn't be b'tin' an' tirin' yersel' wid th' cookin' at all, at all; it's mesel' that'll do it. the best I can, fer yez; yer a leddy, every me quick temper go th' bether of me for wanst. An' mebbe yez would like a play., inch, an' ye mustn't be mindin' because brown gravy fer th' meat today?"

Miriam, tactfully and gracefully accepting the situation. "When I go upstairs I will send the recipe down by Thus Bridget, thoroughly subdued by the firmness of her mistress, returned to her work, while Mrs. Heatherton, with

There was no more mutiny in the house after that, for Mary, the second girl, taking the cue from the lesson to the cook, was as docile and obedient as could be desired, and Mr. Lawson thoroughly enjoyed his orderly and the proof? thoroughly enjoyed his orderly and lovely home, which grew even more according to their own notions.

Mrs. Heatherton did not like to complain to Mr. Lawson if she could avoid doing so, for she well knew that nothing is more annoying to a man than trouble about domestic arrangements, and she finally resolved upon a bold experiment before appealing to him.

One morning the cook flatly refused to carry out her instructions regarding the dinner for that day, simply because the dinner for that day is the grew very ambitious, too, for, betwirder, the feat that he performed was by the wonder of his ball twirling to cut entrely out of all chance in the game one of the best baseball teams in America, the Athletics of Philadelphia.

From this veteran of the diamond not one of the swat-stick artists, not the finest of them, even so much as saw first base. He struck them out like to cut entrely out of all chance in the performed was by the wonder of his ball twirling to cut entrely out of all chance in the performed was by the wonder of his ball twirling to cut entrely out of all chance in the performed was by the wonder of his ball twirling to cut entrely out of all chance in the performed was by the wonder of his ball twirling to cut entrely out of all chance in the performed was by the wonder of his ball twirling to cut entrely out of all chance in the performed was by the wonder of his ball twirling to cut entrely out of all c

Boston, the summers spent at Nantasket, where Mr. Lawson decided that he

The fair woman seemed to grow young and light-hearted during this She thought a moment before reply-ing, and until the momentary flush of than when she was a girl," Mr. Langmaid once remarked to his wife. ne quietly remarked:

Ned was now a smart, fine-looking
"Bridget, the meat will be stuffed, as lad of fifteen; intelligent, attractive in I have directed; there will be a Yock- manner, and always careful about his shire pudding, and the custard must be personal appearance. He was a boy to frosted."

One day, during the third summer at Nantasket, Mr. Lawson sent him up to Section Prohibiting "Farming" ly retorted the cook, while a low chuckle Boston upon an errand of some importance, for the weather was very warm, and the old gentleman did not As he landed at Rowe's wharf and was making his way toward Atlantic avenue, he felt a rude jostle on the arm cision there was no mistaking, "I can and glancing around, saw a familiar "Why." he exclaimed to himself, "I do believe that is Bill Bunting. I have > than he used to." The crowd surged in between them, just here, and Ned lost sight of his oldtime enemy for a moment.

that rate? He seems to be following that lady dressed in black lace, and he

PAINS DISAPPEAR WITH IT .- No Oil how to deal with them.

work that belongs to us. Now, if you choose to get the dinner, as I have or-Will Have Mounts in

There are two old London boys who "I know it is customary to give a will be in the saddle at the Woodbine the season that has yet come to hand and does not wish to be troubled about for the Carruthers and Phelan stable. Billings bought her, Lou Dillon trotted housekeeping matters. Let me see—you were paid last week, so I owe you for Moxley, at one time rode in the stable a quarter at Pleasanton in exactly the just four days' labor," and Miriam drew of Mr. Adam Beck, but some years many critics to commenting and promain the control of the control forth her purse, as if to settle with her ago he was seriously injured and since on the spot.

"Oh, sure, I was niver trated as no George Finch in the track."

"Oh, sure, I was niver trated as no George Finch in the track."

"Oh, sure, I was niver trated so be- George Finch is a London boy, who developed into a very likely rider. He all surprising if he should prove the "You can understand, Bridget, that now weighs 90 pounds and will have a star race horse trotter of the Grand there must be someone here to direct; mount from the Hamilton stable in the Circuit. Last season he came east a King's Plate.

marked gravely; then added: "I will with Red Car, ch. g., by Foam-Mint second to the Chicago mare Fanforan pay you for a full week's wages, since Bloom; Fellowship, by Tristan-Win- in 2:11%, and his performance caused I gave you no notice, or—you can redeymere; Xerxes, by imp. Order- me to indite some complimentary YESTERDAY'S TURF RESULTS. At Morris Park-Ortwell (Hilde-Bridget's face softened considerably this judicious praise.

'And, sure, ma'am, it was the resate brand), 4 to 5; Trepan (Phillips), 9 to 5; Thirty-third (Hildebrand), 7 to 5; Sheriff Bell (Cormack), 18 to 5; Monadye gave me yersel'," she said, taken off nock (Phillips), 3 to 1; Hello (Phillips),

"I know it, but it requires care to At Worth-Jade (Oliphant), 6 to 3; make it nicely, and it was done just to Vanness (W. Fisher), 3 to 2; Laxarion a turn," Miriam replied, but with a (Nicol), even; Cardinal Wolsey (Mctwinkle of amusement in her eyes; then Intyre), 2 to 1; Marias (Sherwood), 7

> GOLD IN SCOTLAND. test at Troon, Scotland, yesterday, Miss Higgins, of the Midlothian Club, Chicago, who drew against the inter-national champion, Miss Rhona Adair,

SPEEDY QUARTER

Recently at Pleasanton, Cal.

The spiclest item of speed news of

That Judge Green will finish out the parallel by trotting in 1:581/2 this year is not expected. But it will be not at green 4-year-old gelding. I saw him second to the Chicago mare Fanforan me to indite some complimentary things about him, including the prediction that he would have a brilliant future. He verified this by a series of grand races, among them the cap-ture of the $5.000 4-year-old purse at Brighton Beach in 2:104, the fastest

4-year-old time of the year. He was made a lot of use of, starting in fifteen races in very hot company, and one week he was out three times in five days, for his manager Monroe Salisburg, is as relentless a taskmaster as "Pa" Bradley or Sam Bryant at their best. It speaks volumes for his quality and stamina that he went through the ordeal unscathed and into winter quarters faster In the ladies' golf championship con- than ever. Unless he is being unduly hurried his work at Pleasanton indicates that he may be a wonder this Judge Green is a sizable bay geld ing, powerfully made and splendidly gaited.

"Yes, it would be nice," responded liriam, tactfully and gracefully ac-GAME AGAINST THE ATHLETICS

Boston is as fond of "Cy" Young, the John M. Ward, attorney and counsellor-And the proof? It came the other day, when "Cy" went on.

Thus years passed, the winters occupied with home-duties and school, in Boston, the summers spent at Nantasket, where Mr. Lawson decided that he ket, where Mr. Lawson decided that he ket, where Mr. Lawson decided that he preferred to occupy a cottage, instead of going to the hotel. It was more quiet and homelike, he said, and he could not give up his housekeeper even for the sake of having the linen-room as orderly and well-furnished as he knew she would have it.

Only twice before has the feat been known, and these occasions were very close of ago. Authentic baseball dope declares that the first to achieve the phenomenal thing was Lee Richmond, hot cake handler of the Providence baseball team, who, on June 12, 1830, shut out the bench and walked to the coacher's the Athletics. And "Johnny" Ward, now grandstand and bleachers.

BASEBALL LAW

Is Already Being Broken-May Be Annuled.

That is the one which declares. "The we got practice of farming is prohibited," and phenomenal workout which might rethen provides alleged methods of pro- ceive less attention did it not follow can he be up to now, dodging about at hibiting it. By "farming" in baseball the year in which a colt won the great is meant any arrangement whereby a race that had done nothing except show good workouts. doesn't look one bit more respectable major league club loans a player to a minor league club with the understand- peared in races, English Lad was the ing that the same player shall be re- only one to add prestige to his fame turned to the loaning club at a certain turned to the loaning club at a certain porters. Highball did nothing espetime, usually the end of the current cially to discourage his backers, nor season. The agreement reads that all did Stalwart, but Proceeds and Bill hired fer what yez can get. Whin the master tells me to go, I get out; but not for yez," and much more of the same import.

Mrs. Heatherton calmly waited until she had finished her tirade, then she remarked, as serenely as if they had been discussing some point of minor import.

PAINS DISAPPEAR WITH IT.—No one need suffer pain when they have available Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, If to the house when required, it can be procured at the nearest store, as all merchants keep it for sale. Rheumatism and all bodily pains disappear when it is applied, and should they at any time return, experience teaches the user of the Oil how to deal with them.

PAINS DISAPPEAR WITH IT.—No one need suffer pain when they have available Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, If to the house when required, it can be procured at the nearest store, as all merchants keep it for sale. Rheumatism and all bodily pains disappear when it is applied, and should they at any time return, experience teaches the user of the Oil how to deal with them. the loan cares to repudiate the ar- of instinct. rangement or finds that he can do so without soiling his own hands in pub-lice, the major league magnate is likely to lose the player or players he has loaned. The only effect the new agreement has, therefore, is to make the maor leaguers more cautious as to whom they loan players, as it depends whosly wrestling match last night at Baltion the honesty of the minor leaguer more by gaining two straight falls. whether the players are returned or not. There is said to be a movement on the clause against "farming," so as to re-move even the present slight restricinduced to sign the agreement with ers would be absolute, instead of having

"Best sport in the world."
"Ever get tired of it?"
"Only one part."
"What part?"

only a few years before the major league clubs will control practically all

"Knew what'd fool 'em."

"Anything else?"
"Not much wind."
"Well?"

"Felt good."
"Like baseball?"

"Anything else that helped?"
"Yep, fine day—warm."

"Fooled 'em.

the professional players of any merit in the land, and the minor league club owners will be wholly dependent on the favor of the majors for their teams. AMERICAN DERBY HORSES

COMING ALONG WELL

English Lad, Highball, Proceeds, Bill Curtis and Stalwart, all prominent in One section of the National baseball Derby calculations, started during the agreement is already a dead letter. week, and Flower King, another conspicuous colt, was credited with a Of the leading quartet which ap-and stimulate confidence in his suptrary are not binding on either party advance in the betting in a small field to them, nor to be recognized by any from 5 to 1 to 15 to 1 is sufficient eviother club. This would seem to be an dence of this fact. For him to defeat American Association Club. Hickey The historically interesting papyrus plant is nearly extinct in Egypt, and the only place where it is now to be "farmed" players in the minor league performance the best yet recorded by clubs of this section of the country, any of the present Derby candidates. and when the time comes for reducing In addition to this, the manner of his the major league clubs to their regular winning was satisfactory and indicabasis of the season there will be more tive of qualities of greatness. He of them. Of course, in making any finished with wonderful courage and such arrangement for loaning his su- apparently largely on his own deterperfluous players the major magnate mination. The little boy, Nicol, on his takes the chance of getting what is back was of no help to him and the called a "double cross' in sporting par- colt came on and doggedly fought it lance. If the minor league recipient of out with the other pair as a matter

WRESTLING.

ANOTHER FOR AMERICUS. "Americus Gus" Schoenlein, of Baltimore, defeated Charles Leonhart, of Newark, N. J., in a catch-as-catch-can WON BY SHARKEY.

Tom Sharkey, the pugilist, won the part of the major leagues to annul the first and third falls from Dennis Galtagher, of Buffalo, in a wrestling match at Utica, N. Y. At the conclusion of the That is a move which the minors match Sharkey announced that he has ought to fight to a finish. They were $5,000 which says he can throw any wrestler in the world. DEFEATED JIM PARR.

of their best men mortgaged to major league club. The minors defeated Jim Parr, the English cham- of patronage. The explanation is that a lot of their best men mortgaged to of all players which are not needed to make up the sixteen big league clubs. Under the process of "farming," if carried on to anything like the extent it had reached before the war, it will be carch can, in 22:15, and sporting match at it has the sympathy of the public. Fair do not needed to make up the sixteen big league clubs. Under the process of "farming," if carried on to anything like the extent it has the sympathy of the public. Fair ded book of tours, apply to HENDERSON London, Glasgow and Derry, way, New York; or E. DE LA HOOKE, Way, New York; or E. DE LA HOOKE, Dundas and Richmond streets, or F. B. carch and third falls in 16:30 and 14:10. Parr won the second fall, catch-as-men who have raced at the St. Louis Full Ton, 181 Dundas street, London.

Everyone wants their meals ready on time. Those who have waited for a slow fire to cook a poor meal will appreciate the prompt excellence of the

Imperial Oxford Range

You can absolutely depend on the promptness of the Imperial Oxford Range. You can set your hour for dinner and this range will produce it, cooked to a nicety, exactly on the minute. See an Imperial Oxford Range at one of our agencies. If your dealer doesn't keep them, write us direct.

The Gurney Foundry Co., Limited Toronto, Canada

Montreal

Vancouver 10 Winnipeg

FOR SALE BY GURNEY OXFORD STOVE STORE W. C. WOOD, Manager, 382 Richmond Street.

OUT OF THE BOX bear to shut out competition that might have proved healthy and beneficial instead of injuring them.

"Christy" Mathewson Was an Easy Prey for the St. Louis Cardinals.

"Christy" Mathewson, one of the idols of the New York Giants, got his 'bumps" yesterday in a manner that must have sent a shiver over Manager presented the swift series of disheartening blanks to the Buffalo baseball nine. Getting $1,000,000 from Russell Sage seems to me would be easier than getting a talk out of "Ole Cy" Young, says a baseball writer. He gives answers as baseball writer. He gives answers as well advanced. It was Christy's day sparingly as he gives bases on balls. He's about the most modest violet that the high sun of popularity ever shone on. In time he'll look like Joe Jefferson. His kindly showed here the sun of the su themselves with four more in the balance of the game. St. Louis played without an error.

Philadelphia was shut out by the Pittsburg champions, securing only one hit off Miller. Chicago saved itself from a shut-out in the ninth inning. Rain interfered with three games the American League, New York and Boston being the only teams to play The Highlanders and the Beancaters put up a very even game, the former getting slightly the better of it in the

In the Eastern there were two shut-outs, Providence and Baltimore getting the coats from Toronto and Buffalo re spectively. IN THE NATIONAL.

Batteries--Miller and Carisch; Sparks and Dooin. Umpire, Emslie. Attendance At Chicago-

Batteries-Corridon and Kling; Fisher and Moran. Umpire, Zimmer. Attendance, 1,000. At St. Louis-

Batteries - McFarland and Grady; Mathewson, Milligan and Bowerman and Warner. Umpires, Johnstone and Warner. Moran. Attendance, 3,400. At Cincinnati-

Batteries—Hahn and Schiel; Reidy, Poole and Bergen. Umpire, O'Day. At-tendance, 4,000.

IN THE AMERICAN. Batteries—Powell and McGuire; Gibson and Farrell. Umpires, Dwyer and Con-

IN THE EASTERN. At Providence—Toronto 4. Providence 0. At Baltimore—Buffalo 1, Baltimore 0. Rain at Newark and New Jersey.

WANT ST. JOHN'S JUNIORS. The officers of the Junior City League re desirous of securing the St. John's A. C. Juniors. It has been intimated that a handsome cup will be put up for competition in the league. TO DRAW UP NEW SCHEDULE.

A new schedule will be drawn up at meeting of the City League this week, such a move being necessary owing to the retirement of the St. John's A. C. team. A number of good players will be left and they will likely be picked up by the other teams. SOLD TO COLUMBUS Pitcher "Jack" Hickey, has been sold by the American League team of Cleveland to the Columbus, Ohio, was signed by Cleveland this season from the Seattle, Wash., team. Cleve-land has six pitchers left and now has the limit of sixteen players on its pay roll.

Patrick J. Donovan, the new manager of the Washington baseball team, has arrived at the capital. He took charge of the club today. TRACK AT ST. LOUIS

IS SUFFERING

The syndicate which operates the St. Louis racetracks running under the sanction of the Western Jockey Club is probably wishing by this time that it had struck a compromise of some kind with the Union Jockey Club. Desnite the backing of the turf powers of the west, the syndicate tracks are suffering seriously by the competition at Union Park. To judge from the kind of horses racing at the latter course one would think the sport there must be more or less of a joke. Pronta with 120 pounds, winning a race and being a 11 to 20 favorite. That is in itself sufficient evidence of the kind of horses running there. Nevertheless, way racing is conducted there. These may or may not be true, but it looks as if the tide was turning against the men who brought every influence to BOWLING. PRIZE FOR COLTS. A handsome prize has been offered by President Jackson, of the W. O. B. A. to the best rink of colt bowlers at the big tournament here in July. Those who have never before played in a tournament will be eligible.

WAS IN A CRITICAL CONDITION.

System was Run Down.

FELT DROWSY AND MISERABLE.

Burdock Blood Bitters

BUILT UP THE SYSTEM AND ADDED TEN POUNDS IN WEIGHT.

Mr. Ed. J. Harris, Newbridge, Out. was in poor health, but has now bees what he writes us: "Last spring I was in a very critical condition, my system was all run down. I felt drowsy and miser-able, and thought I would surely die if I Toronto to able, and thought I would surely die if I did not get something to build me up. After reading one of your almanacs I decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and before I had taken two bottles I had gained ten pounds in weight, and am new in perfect health, and I cas certainly recommend Burdock Blood Bitters to huild up the system."

Toronto to Montreal—Single $6.50, Return $11.50

Meals and berth included. Low rates between ports.

Steamers leave Hamilton 1 p.m., and Toronto 7:30 p.m., Mondays and Thursdays: on and after June 7, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

H. FOSTER CHAFFEE, western passenger agent. Toronto.

build up the system." BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS Is the best Spring medicine on the market to-day. You may need one this Apring. if so, get B.B.B.

A"Dye" Soap!

MAYPOLE is a cake of soap that dyes to any desired color or shade.
am ous the world over for brilliant,
st, clean, economical, easy, safe dyein home. As superior to the old fashione "powder" dyes as gold is to brass.

Maypole Soap Made in England, but sold everywhere 10c. for Colors—15c. for Black.

ABSOLUTELY PURE CREAM TARTAR

Nearly all goods in this line at the present time are adulterated and in fact unfit to use. GILLETT'S is used by the best bakers and REFUSE SUBSTITUTES.

GILLETT'S costs no more than the inferior REFUSE SUBSTITUTES. E.W. GILLETT COMPANY

RAILWAYS AND NAVIGATION

TORONTO, ONT.

ANCHOR LINE. United States mail steamships, sail from

New York every Saturday for Glasgow via Londonderry. Superior accommoda-tions at lowest rates for all classes of passengers. For rates, books of information for passengers and new illustrated book of tours, apply to HENDERSON

RAILWAYS AND NAVIGATION.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL "The Niagara Falls Route."

World's Fair, St. Louis, $16.05—15-DAY TICKETS. $21.40—60-DAY TICKETS. $25.70—SEASON TICKETS.

Victoria Day, May 24,

Single Fare for Round Trip. Good going May 21, 22, 23 and 24; valideturning until May 25.

W. RUGGLES, JOHN PAUL, G. P. A., Chicago, C. P. and T. A., 'Phone 205. London.

ST. LOUIS, MO.

From April 25 to Dec. 1 inclusive, the Wabash Railroad will sell round trip tickets to the Great World's Fair, St. Louis, at the lowest one-way first class fare, good for fifteen days; fare and a third good for thirty days; good either via Wabash direct line, or via Chicago, with stop-over privileges. Canadians going to this, the greatest of all expositions, should remember the great Wabash line is the shortest, quickest and best route. The only line that owns and controls its own rails direct to the World's trols its own rails direct to the World's Fair gates.
For timetables and descriptive World's Fair folder, address any ticket agent, or J. A. RICHARDSON, district passenger agent, northeast corner King and Yonge streets, Toronto.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY VICTORIA DAY

MAY 24th,

Single Fare for Round Trip, Good going May 21, 22, 23 and 24; valid returning until Wednesday, May 25, 1904.

WORLD'S FAIR ST. LOUIS, $16.05 Good 15 Days.

ON SALE DAILY. With stop-over privileges at any Canadian station, also at Detroit and Chicago. For tickets and further information apply to E. DE LA HOOKE, C. P. and T.

CANADIAN PACIFIC SINGLE FARE VICTORIA DAY

Going May 21, 22, 23, 24, returning until 25, between all stations in Canada Arthur and east. W. FULTON C. P. and T. A., London, A. II. NOTMAN, assistant general passenger agent, Toronto.

C. P. Railway. restored to full health and vigor. Here is HAMILTON-MONTREAL LINE MAY EXCURSIONS. Hamilton to Montreal-Single $7. Toronto to Montreal-Single $6.50,

ALLAN LINE

ROYAL MAIL STEAMERS.

From Montreal and Quebec every Fri-lay, to Liverpool, via Moville, First cabin, $65 and upwards; second rabin, $37.50 and $40; and third class, to Liverpool, Derry, Belfast, Glasgow and London, $25 and $26. Through tickets to South Africa, London Agents—E. De La Hooke, W. Fulton, F. B. Clarke.

-THE-

NTERCOLONIAL

CALENDAR FOR MAY SAYS-

"True eloquence consists in saying all that is necessary nothing what is necessary."

La Rochefoucauld. The fishing in the streams and lakes of Quebec and the Maritime Provinces and the ocean bordering those provinces is the finest on the continent. Write for Intercolonial detailed pamphlets to General Passenger Department MONCTON, N. B.

Steamers New York, Queenstown and Liverpool,

CELTIC......MAY 13, 4 P.M. CEDRIC.....MAY 18, 7 A.M. MAJESTIC....MAY 25, 10 A.M. .. MAY 27, 4 P.M. Saloon rates from $75 up. Second saloon from $45 up, according to steamer and accommodation. Third class rates to