RUSSIANS PREPARE TO ABANDON MUKDEN GEN. KUROPATKIN'S COUNTER BLOW FAILED JAP WINGS CIRCLE AROUND

Hope of Pulling Out a Victory.

Monday's Fighting Desperate and Continuous, Both Claiming Successes.

Tokio, March 7 .- Noon .- It is reported that the Russians are preparing to abandon Mukden and Fushan and to retreat to Tie Pass.

Oubenepusa, Monday, March 6 .- Midnight. - Events took an unfavorable turn for the Russians this evening. Afattacks, the Japanese ousted the Russians from an important position on the left center of the eastern army. The Japanese are also pressing the

There were heavy losses today on both sides.

St. Petersburg Gives Up Hope.

St. Petersburg, March 7, 1:55 p.m. able to turn defeat into victory is rap-The position of the creasingly desperate during the last road, to a point eight miles northwest forcing the Russians to give ground. of Mukden, where it has joined flanking column from the east.

Japan Is Confident.

Tokio, March 7. - All Japan is eagerly watching developments at the he must fight it out in his present posigreat theater of war in Manchuria, tion, and that it is impossible to extri-The people are confident that Field cate more than the remnants of his Marshal Oyama will defeat General At the war office it is said that the the blow he will inflict, and its effect upon the course of the war. It is bea line on the Hun River is already was resumed at daylight this mornassured, and many predict even a ing at lateneria. greater disaster for the Russians. and at daybreak a perfect hail of ar-General Kuropatkin seems to be de-tillery projectiles filled the air. If the voting his greatest energy to the pro- Japanese crush Gen. Kaulbars today, tection of Fushan, in order to preserve Kuropatkin's army will be almost sura line of retreat. He has sent masses rounded. There is the greatest fear of reserves there. The positions east that telegraphic communications may and south of Fushan have already be cut at any moment. The public is been the scenes of most bloody fighting. The operations of the Largeing. The operations of the Japanese plete defeat of Kuropatkin's army left and part of the center continue to with equanimity on the theory that a be successful. It is believed that the Russian victory would stiffen the back-Japanese will succeed in cutting the the Liberal view, the more the Govrailway north of Mukden.

ready sustained by the opposing forces are being made, but they are unreli- Hand-to-Hand Fight. able on account of the meagerness of New Chwang, March 6, via Tien the information at hand. The Japan- Tsin. - Traders arriving report that ese spoils of war promise to be heavy. last night 30,000 Japanese gained an Tokio. March 7. - The greatest con- the gates of Mukden. continues resolutely to defend the po- Government buildings, preparatory to sitions at Fushun. The operations in retreating. that vicinity do not indicate whether Kuropatkin intends to fight or retire, but he must hold Fushan to protect Japanese in the rear, and it is thought the army on the Shakhe River.

Gaedke on Kuropatkin.

Berlin, March 7. - Col. Gaedke, who tablished a temporary censorship, notreturned from the seat of war last Chinese officials. December, writes to the Tageblatt to- Behind Tie Pass. day, taking a pessimistic view of Gen. Kuropatkin's situation. Basing his opinion exclusively on Russian news, Col. Gaedke thinks it probable that the Russians are about to suffer a defeat There is every indication that the which will prove disastrous. He ex- great Japanese movement for the enpresses a very unfavorable judgment velopment of Mukden has so far met of Kuropatkin's generalship in letting with overwhelming success, and that the Japanese, extend their flanking that stronghold of the Russians will around the Russian right without undertaking energetic measures to check dertaking energetic measures to check fied central positions, and it is bethem, Col. Gaedke says that the Jap- lieved that the Japanese center is only anese, in executing such a movement, immediately before the Russian army. exposed themselves to great dangers, the railway. Gen. Nogi's third army and that if Gen. Kuropatkin had had from Port Arthur, has advanced far even a tolerable degree of initiative on the left wing, and swept all before and a strong will, he would have given it. Nogi's men are reveling in the field work, which they regard as sundered their army, "But what," asks Arthur. Col. Gaedke in conclusion, "are mere military theories compared with psychological influences, moral factors, which sometimes sweep triumphantly over all material presuppositions onward to victory?

Counter Attack Repulsed.

St. Petersburg Gives Up All the northeastern heights of Huantai, morning was a spectacular sight. The four miles, south of Machuntan, and regiment advanced as if on parade,

In the Shakhe River direction east of but were repulsed. Otherwise the situation is unchanged.

engaging the enemy occupying posi-tons east of Hanehnopao and Erthtaitzu. The enemy is resisting stubbornly. On the right of the Hun River Monwith 70 guns counter attacked in the vicinity of Tatchekiao, ten miles northwest of Mukden, but was repulsed.

50,000 Japs Engaged.

London, March 7. - According to a Gen. Rennenkampff's Headquarters usually well-informed Japanese correspondent of the Morning Post, a large portion of Japan's new fifth army is engaged in the battle now in progress under Lieut.-Gen. Kamamura, to whom has been intrusted the development of ter a day of a marked succession of Field Marshal Oyama's plans to the northeast of Mukden, and this development may prove as astonishing to the Russians as were Gen. Nogi's operations on the northwest. The correspondent contends that numerical superiority now is with the Japanese, who have at least half a million men right center hard. The Russians have engaged, reinforcement having left Jabeen expected to retake the position at the intended operations should not fail for the lack of sufficient men, Kuropatkin's Stroke Failed.

St. Petersburg, March 7. - Around the village of Tatchekiao the battle raged with terrible bitterness throughout yesterday, with all the reserves. hurried to the scene to block the All hope that Gen. Kuropatkin will be stroke at the Russian line of communications, Gen. Baron Kaulbars, who is defending this wing, is only able to hold his own. On account of the desperate situation there, Gen. Kuropat-Russian army has been growing in- kin has not attempted to drive home his counterstroke at the Japanese center, and his offensive, which was abor-24 hours. The gravest danger is from tive, has been abandoned. At the same time encouraged by the progress of the the Japanese left, which has been main turning movement west, Gen. pushed northward on the Sinmintin Kuroki again pressed forward from the

Waited Too Long.

It is rumored that Kuropatkin has already given the order, and that he is gradually withdrawing forces from the center, but experts are inclined to believe that he has watted too long that army.

Kuropatkin. The only question con-Japanese slege guns from Port Arthur, sidered is the extent and severity of with a range of eight miles, are causing at Tatchekiao. During the night the Russian retreat will be cut off and bone of the reactionaries. According to ernment is embarrassed, the more it Various estimates of the losses al- will be obliged to yield, entrenched position five miles west of centration of the Russians defending fighting until daylight followed without any advantage to either side.

Traders further report that the Russians defending out any advantage to either side. Tita to Machuntan. Gen. Kuropatkin sians, becoming alarmed, burned the

> One thousand Russians are reported to be moving southward of the east bank of the Liao River to attack the battle is imminent. The Japanese today occupied the telegraph office at Sinmintin, and eswithstanding the objections of the

New Chwang, March 6. - It is reported here that the scouts of Gen. required to hold its ground while the wings stretch far to the northward to encircle the Russian flanks or threaten Physicians Operate On Man Whose

Monday's Fighting.

has been increasing in intensity. The another force occupied a line of heights supported by two batteries, and atat Patzukou, seven miles south of tacked and captured two villages successively. The Japanese are said to be attacking Poutiloff Hill. Japanese the railroad Sunday night the enemy prisoners are filing past towards the counter attacked north of Tunghiafen, rear. They are ravenous with hunger. They say they started with provisions for three days, and were then ordered

West of the railroad our force is now to make them last for six days. They had not eaten since Sunday morning. Kuropatkin has ordered that they be fed, and they are eating as they march in. In the operations on Sunday the advance of the Japanese day morning one division of the enemy at Madzyapu and Niuchiatun was repulsed. The Russian losses were 1,500 killed or wounded. The attack by a Japanese division west of Hushitai at first was successful, but Russian reserves checked the Japanese. An attack by the Japanese on Elthanza also was repulsed. Retween Sandepas and Shakhe the Japanese seized the opportunity, while two Russian corps were changing front, to endeavor furi-ously to break the line. The Japanese thrust a wedge in the interval, but Russian artillery concentrated a terrible fire of eight-inch guns upon the attacking force and the Japanese ally were driven out with heavy loss.

> tacks, especially at Madzyapu, which were unsuccessful. Evening - Today's artillery lasted until sunset. The firing was fiercest at Fanziatun, which was on fire by shells. Shrapnel was responsible for nearly all the wounded. Today's fighting probably was only preliminary shelling. Night attacks on the center and left flanks were repulsed. The Japanese left 2,000 dead in front of Gao Pass. Headquarters. Gen. Rennenkampff's Oubenpusa, March 6 .- Morning .- The Japanese again attacked Tupintai and other positions on the extreme left at 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning but were repulsed. Along the whole front there has been a scattering rifle fire, but at this moment it appears to be slackening.

The Japanese made several night at-

It Rivals Waterloo.

Mukden, Sunday, March 5.-(Delay ed.)—A correspondent has just re-turned from spending the entire day of March 4 with the Russian vanguard on the right flank where General Nogi is attacking desperately at Machiapu, where there is a crossing of the Hun River four miles below the railroad. He says that all the Japan ese attacks were repulsed but only through the most heroic fighting, which was renewed this morning. The day being clear and sunny, the movements on both sides were distinctly visible. Charge followed charge, attack, re-Japanese fighting viciously for every foot of ground and clinging like grim death itself to every Chinese cottage and mud wall, the only covers in the the scene of struggles rivaling those of the famous Lahaye Sainte at Water-loo. The villages of Sahoudyapu and several times. Lanshanpu finally passing into the hands of the Japanese March 4. The Japanese used grenades emitting a suffocating gas. A desperate attack of the Japanese today on Putiloff Hill resulted almost tragically to them, the Russian artillery turning lines of Japanese into heaps of bleeding bodies which survivors quickly converted into breastworks from which they were driven by a bayonet charge and the murderous fire of the artillery. On the left General Linevitch holds the hills

WINNIPEG HOCKEY MAD

Greatly Excited Over Coming Stanley Cup Series.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Winnipeg, Man., March 7. - There is great excitement in the city over the outcome of the Stanley cup hockey match tonight in Ottawa, as westerners believe the cup is coming west. Dozens of places will bulletin the progress of the match. Weather is springlike, and since 1879, nothing equal to its mildness has been known.

ANARCHY AT BARCELONA

Bullets and Stones Fly During Demonstration of the Unemployed.

Madrid, March 6. - Revolvers were fired and stones were thrown during a demonstration of the unemployed at Barcelona yesterday. A number of arrests, including well-known anarchists, Nogi's and Gen, Kuroki's armies are were made. A bomb was discovered already in touch behind Tie Pass. today in front of the palace, of the Marquis de Puebla here. It was removed in time to prevent an explosion. The Government believes that the incidents at Barcelona are part of a general anarchist plot which veloped there prematurely before the and fair and comparatively mild in Mani-

SPLICED SPINAL CORD

Back Was Broken.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 7 .- Should and a strong will, he would have given field work, which they regard as Edward Farrell successfully pass the Japanese severe punishment and child's play after the siege of Port through the convalescent period of the operation performed upon his spinal cord on Saturday night in the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital the surgeons of that institution will have achieved a Ottawa Mukden, March 6.—Noon.—Fighting began this morning as soon as the fog cleared, and up to the present time breaking his backbone. As a result of breaking his backbone. As a result of Counter Attack Repulsed.

Tokio, March 7, 5 p.m.—The follow-Tokio, March 7, 5 p.m.—The follow-Taken Tsuanvanche, Fantziatun, Tin-that the only chance to save the man's the control of the chance to save the man's the chance to save the chan Tokio, March 7, 5 p.m.—The following dispatch was received today from headquarters of the Japanese armies in the field:
In the Singking (Yenden) direction the enemy in the neighborhood of Tita made several counter attacks Monday, which were repulsed. Our attacks against Machuntan, despite the obstinate resistance, proceeds. Part of our force on Monday occupied The attack by one regiment this pital, where the physicians decided that the only chance to save the man's life was to operate. Portions of the spinal cord were cut out and the ends spliced. Farrell stood the operation nicely and yesterday was said to be in a most satisfactory condition. Only once before within the last five years has a similar operation been attempted. The attack by one regiment this will recover.

WAS FROM STRATFORD

Making Up Train at Dauphin.

Winnipeg, Man., March 7.—A. Ben-net, a brakeman, was killed at Dauphin morning, while making up a train. His head was squeezed between the buffers. His parents reside at Stratford, Ont. He was 26 years of

THE DEVOLUTION SCHEME

by MacDonnell. London, March 6. - Lord Dunraven writes to the newspapers today to explain that his devolution scheme that he favored devolution.

VLADIMIR DOOMED

A. Bennet, Brakeman, Killed While Has Again Been Picked for Assassination Despite Czar's Rescript.

St. Petersburg, March 7. - Grand Duke Vladimir, it is reported, again has been picked for assassination, in spite of the promises contained in the recent imperial rescript. On account of the receipt lately of several warnings and Terrorist notifications, the sentries about the grand duke's palace have been doubled and ordered to exercise special watchfulness, According to a current report a Terrorist disguised in the uniform of the general attempted to gain access to the grand Dunraven Says It Was Not Originated duke on Saturday. On being searched the man was found to be armed with a loaded revolver.

British Immigrants.

Montreal, March 7. - Fourteen hunwas not originated by Sir Anthony MacDonnell, Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, but by landed from the steamer Bavarian, members of the land conference com- passed through Montreal yesterday in mittee. MacDonnell, Lord Dunraven special coaches. Among them were a says, was consulted after the move- number of mechanics, who will make ment started, because he was in pos-session of useful information, but his intend to engage in ranching. A tew responsibility was limited to that ad- with capital to invest will go to British vice, and I had no reason to believe Columbia, but the greatest number will take up land in the west.

CONSERVATIVE PARTY A WRECK SAYS ORGAN ABOUT TO QUIT

the Conservative party, which is in blind person.

French Conservative morning paper of of much energy and money. Since the ject. this city, announces the final issue of defeat of 1900 and 1904, the Conservathe paper this morning, and in connec- tive party in the Province of Quebec tion with its demise reads a lesson to has walked into the fatal pit, like a the defense of the interests of that to say to the Conservative party; 'Cure party, for which we have suffered and yourself when there is still time.'"

FOR THE FAR EAST

Send Out a Fresh Army.

London, March 7.-The correspondan additional 400,000 men to the far

A QUADRUPLE MURDER

A Woman and Her Three Children heads covered with Chinese blankets Found Butchered.

Danville, Ark., March 7 .- A quadruple murder has been committed at Whitely about 12 miles from Danville. the victims being the wife and three children of James Ince, a farmer in that locality. The dead bodies of the woman and children were found today by neighbors. An axe had been used by the murderer and the heads position has become a valley of death, of the victims were split open and and corpses strew the debatable crushed. The four victims had been ground from which neither side can slain as they slept. The first news of the tragedy was brought here by Ince. He said his wife and three children that he knew the neighbors would accuse him of the crime, and he was afraid he might be mobbed. He came to surrender to the officers and was taken into custody.

Overturned in the Air. Chicago, March 7. - Overturning high in the air, on the Lake Street Ela-Railroad today, a passenger coach with 80 persons aboard, escaped being dashed to the granite pavement below. One woman was pinioned on the tracks within a few inches of the deadly electric third rail.

THE WEATHER.

Tomorrow-Cloudy With Sleet.

London, Tuesday, March 7.
Sun rises. 6:44 a.m. Moon rises. 7:30 a.m.
Sun sets. 6:13 p.m. Moon sets. 7:46 p.m.
Toronto, March 6-8 p.m.
The weather has been fine and cold from Lake Superior to the Maritime Provinces, and fair and comparatively mild in Manitoba and the Territories.

Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Calgary, 32—46; Qu'Appelle, 26—34; Winnipeg, 12—32; Port Arthur, 14 below—20;
Parry Sound, 2 below—18; Toronto, 12—24;
Ottawa, 4—16; Montreal, 10—14; Quebec, 2—14; St. John, 14—22; Halifax, 12—26.

Tuesday, March 7-8 a.m.
Today-Easterly winds; milder; light snow or rain in some localities during the night.
Wednesday-Cloudy, with sleet or rain. TEMPERATURES.

FORECASTS.

8 a.m. Calgary Winnipeg Cloudy Parry Sound..... Montreal Quebec Father Point... The sign - indicates below zero. WEATHER NOTES.

The cold wave which covered Ontario yesterday morning has now been transferred to the Maritime Provinces, the outlook being entirely colder. An extensive rain area, covering the Mississippi Valley, is spreading towards the lake

LOCAL TEMPERATURES. The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the local observatory for the 24 hours ended at 8 p.m. Monday were: Highest, 27 above; lowest, 2° below.

Montreal, March 7 .- The Journal, the | fought during five years, at the cost part as follows: "By a combination of "Feebleness in high quarters, indifunfortunate circumstances it has be- ference in the lower, lack of equilibcome impossible to continue the pub- rium, and the impossibility of doing lishing of the Journal. The demoral- any better, and there you have the ization of the Conservative party, the condition of the Conservative party. A indifference of our friends, and the un- party organ cannot complain to the disguised hostility of certain party entire world, and the Journal has not chiefs, have left us without any ambi- done so, but its frankness will be tion to further consecrate ourselves to pardoned, if, before falling, it exercises its right to put a finger on a sore, and

IS BATTLEGROUND

Positions Strewn With the Corpses of Russ and Japs.

Headquarters of General Rennenreserves. If he received positive in- ous file of two-wheeled Chinese carts, of the most complete in its patkin will hurl his entire force to- mony of the valor with which the army After the hour set no train was At a preliminary meeting of the war of the ground over which it has been is almost too utter for them to feel pain. Scarcely a groan or cry is heard, not even the moans of the dying; only the dismal creak of rude wheels and the thud of the ponies' hoofs are audible.

Most of the wounded have their or dirty coats stiff with coagulated blood, hiding wan and dirty faces, distorted with pain, sunken eyes and expanded nostrils. Here and there is see a cart with two wounded men be tween, whom is a corpse, which with every jolt pounds against the helpless living comrades of the man whose death has sealed the distortion of unbearable agony.

The valley in front of the Russian remove its dead. Again and again the Japanese charged down the slope and up the had been murdered in their beds and hill. Again and again the Russians counter attacked, trying to gain possession of the "hill with the tower." No quarter was asked for or given by to advise with counsel as to what was either side. The enemy ceased only best for him to do. Ince was advised in death; the wounded, with breasts torn open by shrapnel or bayonet, essaying another shot with their last

Here sits a Japanese upon a stone. a moment's pause for rest having stretched him out into eternity. There lie two foes with bayonets sheathed in each other's breasts. Everywhere orpses, corpses, corpses. For two days the Russians had been concentrating a heavy artillery fire on "the hill with the tower," stopping the Japanese sappers' work. At 2 o'clock in the morning yesterday the Russian skirmishers head a noise at "the hill with the tower." Creeping forward Creeping forward they discovered that the Japanese were heaping up corpses as defenses. The Russian field batteries immediately opened fire and forced a cessation of ation in the subway. It was bettered

At dawn vesterday the Japanese attacked the Russians near Ubenepusa. The attackers were scarcely recognizable as valiant Japanese so mechanically did they move forward, and withal with undying persistence attack and be thrown back. They repeated their attacks, and at 10 in the morning after a preparatory artillery bom-bardment had reached the Russian trenches, where a bayonet fight en-

At the crucial moment General Alleff. commanding the vanguard, arrived on the scene with two companies and turned the scale against the Japanese. Among the wounded was Lieut.-Col. H. Rostitsky of the general staff, who nevertheless remained at the front. Toward the evening the fight slack-The Japanese employed an ingenious scheme to deceive the Russian artillery, whose shells, though having the when skirmishers reported that the Japanese were exploding small mines and even throwing dirt in the air with military reforms, and particularly on that arrangements are about perfected spades to effect a deception.

The Third Pacific Fleet

ONTARIO LIBERALS IN CAUCUS DISCUSS SCHOOL CLAUSE

Full Attendance of Members, Headed by Messrs. Mulock, Scott and Paterson.

AMENDMENTS PROPOSED BY GOVT. SATISFACTORY

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, March 7. - There was a when the Northwest school question were present Sir William Mulock, Hon, R. W. Scott, Hon. Wm. Paterson, and a full attendance of Liberal members. appear. The matter was discussed at length, and it is understood that the amendments proposed to the clause by the Government were satisfactory. The of trade has appointed Messrs. Ashidea of the caucus was to get the views down and Strange of the city to wait of the different members on the sub- on the Dominion Government, to press

Ottawa, March 7. - The clause which the Government has proposed to put in the autonomy bill in place of the pres- two delegates

Settling Day at Toronto. Toronto, March 6. - The local assignees report that March 4 settlements passed off without any special indications of trouble. Although the applications for extension were numerous, they appeared to be on satisfactory grounds, and were largely complied with on the terms of the ap- of Toronto Presbytery this morning the plicants. As a rule the delays were attributed to the interference with business in certain parts of the province by snow blockades.

Council of War Proposes to The Spaces Before the Russian 5,000 Operators On Subway and Elevated Lines

New York, March 7.-A strike by ent at St. Petersburg of the Times kampff, near Ubenepusa, Saturday, 5,000 employes of the Interborough telegraphing March 6, says: Reassur- March 4, 8 a.m., via Mukden, March Subway and Manhattan Railroad ing dispatches to night claim that the 6.—The road northward is crowded as elevated lines in this city, which took pulse and counter attack, Russians and Japanese already have used all their far as the eye can reach by a continu- effect at 4 o'clock this morning was formation on this point General Kurofull of Russian wounded, the best testipatkin will bur big online formation on this point General Kurofull of Russian wounded, the best testiYork.

rich bottom land. Every village was morrow south and southwest of Muk- of the east, fighting continuously for started with union crews and the latden and try to break Oyama's army. a fortnight, has defended every inch ter quit their train when the terminals of the various lines had been reached One union motorman on the Ninth lieved the possession of Mukden and office till this hour is that the battle Lanshanpu were taken council today (Monday). General Dra- compelled by superior numbers to re- avenue elevated line refused to desert gomiroff president, General Gripenberg tire. Each cart bears from three to with the remainder of the crew and, was present. It was proposed to send five wounded men, whose exhaustion so far, his was the only defection rean additional 400 000 men to the far is almost too utter for them to feel ported. Many of the ticket sellers remained at their posts because they are under bond, but posted signs announcing the strike and refused to sell tickets. Crews of strike-breakers were hurried to the northern ends of the line, but not many were found who understood the manipulation of their brakes. In the subway, crews were assorted for a few trains which were run up and down over short stretches in an effort to teach the new men the method of operation. Similar efforts were made on the elevated lines. No violence was fault, since they declare Russia should reported at any point up to 8 o'clock. Pickets from the strikers' ranks men for the damage done to the boats by the Russian fleet. Pickets from the strikers' ranks were posted everywhere outside stations, and warned persons who attempted to enter that the strike was on and declared that it was dangerous or to ride on the trains. They asserted tial reputation of the officers who displayto ride on the trains. They asserted that safety devices and emergency brake cords had been removed. Free access was offered to all persons who wished to ride so far as the officials which might happen to appear suspicious. wished to ride, so far as the officials of the company were concerned. In which on their face appear so contradic fact few of the ticket booths were oc- tory, one has to take an account of the cupied and passengers desiring to ride struggle which must have been were admitted at their own risk.

reds of thousands of persons accustomed to being whirled downtown on one side, and the other the profound horror inspired in every sailor by the allexpress trains, and who knew nothing destroying torpedo. of the strike until they reached the public opinion in both England and Russtreets after breakfast, hustled for the sia has declared itself satisfied with the nearest car line. On the upper east justice of the commission and accepted side long before 7 o'clock every car its decision without question.

Alone the French Nationalists have was jammed to its utmost capacity, Alone the French Nationalists have and in many streets, passengers could verdict, they have done their best to use be seen riding on the roofs. Similar it against their own Government. France, conditions prevailed in every section they declare, used her influence with the of the city.

For the first few hours after the word against Russia. Naturally this mischievof the city. had been passed to strike, practically not a wheel turned on the great system. But the company was prepared, and strike-breakers, who had been held in readiness, were put to work, and soon an irregular service was in operlittle by little as the morning wore on until by the great rush hour the number of trains in operation had been materially increased. The service was slow, but it helped to relieve the sur- confronts, a revolutionary crisis at home

HUNGARY ON THE VERGE OF REVOLT

face lines.

Huns Unless Differences Are Settled.

ranges, appeared to be exploding in ports received from Budapest a conthe wrong direction. The officers were flict between the crown and the Hunchief inspector of emigration agencies, about to resort to experimental firing garian nation appears possible, and has just returned from an extensive Tangier, Morocco, March 7. - The that it is impossible. Neither side and settlers will come to the Dominthird Russian Pacific squadron is coal-ing at the Gaffarin Islands off the Riff coast.

Shows signs of weakening, and the ion from across the line this year, as against forty-six thousand last year.

ent educational clause, merely makes section 92 of the B. N. A. act apppliccaucus of the Ontario Liberals today, able to the Territories, as if it were a subject to the school ordinances passed Archie Campbell presided, and there by the Territorial Government down to date. It is a short clause of six or seven lines. The objectionable section in regard to Dominion lands does not

Manitoba Wants More.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Winnipeg, Man., March 7.-The board on the attention of the cabinet a resolution advocating the extension of the boundaries of Manitoba so that it will equal in size one of the two new provinces. The city council will elso send

TORONTO PRESBYTERY

Rev. James Wilson, of Glencoe. Sustained in Call to Toronto.

Toronto, March 7. - At the meeting call from Brampton to Rev. James Little, of Central Church, Hamilton, was sustained and accepted by Mr. Little. The call to Rev. James Wilson, of Glencoe, to Dovercourt Church, Toronto, also was sustained, and a telegram to this effect sent to London Presbytery. In the case of the resignation of Dr. Armstrong Black, from St. Andrew's,

to appear at the next meeting of the WANT DUTY ON PINE

Toronto, the congregation were cited

British Columbia Deputation Ask for

$2 Per Thousand.

Ottawa, March 7. - A deputation waited on Mr. Fielding today, representing British Columbia lumber Subway and Manhattan Railroad terests, and asked for a duty of $2 a thousand on pine lumber. This, it is said, would give the Pacific early Coast men control of the Northwest J. R. Booth, G. H. Peelev M. P. and others, from Ottawa, supported the

ACCUSE THE ADMIRALS

A promise of consideration request.

was made.

French Nationalists Say They Ald Britain in North Sea Case. Paris, March 7.-The international commission which assembled in Paris to pass on the respective merits of the North Sea incident has published its findings. These findings may be characterized as prudent, but they failed to please the French Nationalists, who are seeking political Surface lines reaped a harvest. Hund- ers between their natural sense of human-ous charge fell to the ground, but it has succeeded in stirring up the wrath of the But whatever the lights and shadows of the case may be, one fact stands out in bold relief. That is, that the arbitration idea is now firmly established; war which in other times would have been almost inevitable has been turned aside. As for Russia, she has been rendered a first-class service. She has been saved at 60,000 COMING FROM THE U. S.

Vienna, March 7. - Judging by rehe use of the Hungarian language in the Hungarian army, as the language of commands declares that this reform must be instituted, and the Emperor ada. He believes that fully sixty thous-

Conflict Between Crown and Another Great Migratory Movement From Uncle Sam's Land to Canada.

> Ottawa, March 7, - Mr. W. J. White ment from the United States to Can-