Syndicate Buys Big Hotel From Telegraphs Governor Hughes in H. M. Douglass of London Fer $15,000

Port Stanley, March 27.-The deal for the Fraser House has been completed and that famous resort is for the life of her son, Chester Gilnow the property of the recently-or-lette, condemned to die at Auburn ganized Port Stanley Amusement Prison next week for the murder of

The consideration was $15,000. The closing of the bargain took place last evening, following a special meeting of the stockholders, held in the parlors of the Loney House here. Mr. Oberheide, of New York, was present and advised a thorough discussion of the valuation of the property, also that the members present go over the grounds personally and inspect the buildings before completing the bargain with Mr. Douglass, of London, the owner.

This advice was acted upon and the general impression was that $15,-000 was a reasonable price for the property. However, the stockholders went to the Fraser House and not only considered the purchasing valuation, but the prospects of improvement, and all were pleased with the outlook. On resuming formal business at the deal was forthwith closed. The Fraser House has naturally strong financial basis to undertake this work, and the remodeling and renovating will commence at once, so that visitors to Port Stanley from the very first this summer will receive the best accommodation to be had at any resort in Canada.

GILLETTE'S MOTHER IN LAST APPEAL

Final Attempt to Save Son From Chair.

Albany, March 26.-The final word from the executive chamber in the matter of the appeal of Mrs. Gillette Grace Brown two years ago at Big Moose Lake, in the Adirondacks, was written today in reply to a telegram from the distracted mother. This is the message received by Governor Hughes today from Auburn: "Can you say before your God that you have no doubt of Chester's guilt? Please wire. If you cannot, then his blood will be upon your head."-His Mother.

Robert H. Fuller, secretary to the governor, replied by wire that "Governor Hughes does not think himself justified in interfering with the decision of the court of appeals."

Mr. Fuller also wrote a letter, which Mrs. Gillette will receive tomorrow, making it plain that the governor has no doubt that Gillette is guilty of the murder of which he was convicted. He felt that he could not ignore her direct question.

The governor impressed it upon the newspaper men who asked him about Loney House the company decided to deeply sympathized with the heartaccept Mr. Douglass' offer, and the broken mother, and is greatly distressed that his conception of his duty fallen behind the times and there is He would not be quoted about the room for great improvement. The case, but it is known that he regards it as an extraordinary instance in which the evidence, while entirely circumstantial, leaves a reasonable man no room for doubt that the process of the law has reached a just conclusion.
