WILLETT HOLDS SOX TO TWO HITS

The Tigers Take Third of Series Lefthander Lasts But Three Inin Blanking Match at Chicago.

Who Is Touched Up for Ten Safe Giants Get Seven Safeties, But Are Singles—Score 3 to 0.

Chicago, May 3.-Edgar Willett, the blonde giant who was derricked by Jennings in the ninth inning of Sunday's eventful combat, after a belated rally had given him a chance to win it, went to the game, 4 to 3, by knocking Wiltse out work against the Sox today as though he pined to do something that would sear the soul of his manager.

Of the box in three innings. Drucke was effective, but the visitors could do nothing with Puelcer Score: the soul of his manager.

Possibly it didn't do that, for at the conclusion of the game Jennings seemed more satisfied than seared. He had sent Willett against the most successful of the Sox pitchers this spring, Frank Smith, and Willett not only outpitched his rival at every stage of the game, but he gave the most impressive performance shown by any visiting twirler this year, only excepting Addie Joss in his no-hit game.
