GREAT DEMONSTRATION MARKS PARDEE VICTORY

Thousands In Ovation Tendered Chief Liberal Whip.

Sarnia, Ont., Sept. 21.—Following are he returns to date, showing majority for each candidate in the different solling subdivisions:

Sarnia—Pardee 8.

Wyomin dward—Lesueur 15.

Wyomin Township—Lesueur 10.
Dawn Township—Lesueur 11.
Plympton Township—Pardee 122.
Moore Township—Pardee 123.
Moore Township—Pardee 124.
Moore Township—Pardee 126.
Courtright—Pardee 5.
Majority for Pardee, 131.
The Conservatives had engaged the town hall for receiving returns, but they could not get a crowd, and had to close the hall. A monster demonstration was held for Mr. Pardee, and Dr. Logie, the president of the West Lambton Reform Association. They were drawn through the men. The procession has dead by the Citizens' Band, and about 1.500 men marched through the principal streets to the Boys' Brigade Hall, where Mr. Pardee and others addressed a meeting.

DAVID MARSHALL AGAIN MEMBER FOR E. ELGIN

Conservative Candidate Won From Dr. Miller in a Warm Fight.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Aylmer, Sept. 21.—Mr. David Marshall, the Conservative candidate, was elected by a considerably increased majority today. The Township of Bayham did much better for him than usual for the Conservatives. Dr. Miller made good gains in Yarmouth and South Dorchester. Yarmouth is a tie, with two divisions to hear from.

The majorities are:

Marshall Miller.

E. W. Nesbitt, the Reciprocity Candidate, Increased His Majority by 169.

Woodstock, Ont., Sept. 21.—Once more N. Oxford stood true to Liberalism, and in spite of Conservative blandishments leturned the reciprocity candidate, Mr.
E. W. Nesbitt, by a majority of 293, this being an increase of 169 over his last majority, 124.

The city of Woodstock went strongly Conservative, giving J. G. Wallace 274 majority, in place of 75 at the last election, when D. Quinn, farmer, ran. In tense interest was take here, but there was little demonstration.

The farmers turned out in force to poil a large vote for reciprocity, which has been so well explained throughout the country. In front of the Sentinel-Review office, where the results for the Dominin on were flashed on a screen, as also in the opera house, large crowds gathered,
been in the conservatives and Libcrals alike.
