CANADIAN CLUB ADDRESSED BY TWO NOTED PHYSICIANS

Dr. Cullen Pleads for Education Along Lines of Public Health.

Stirring Address by Dr. Sampson, Oldest Member of the Association.

One of the most interesting side features of the Canadian Medical Association, now in session in this city, was the luncheon tendered to Drs. Thomas Cullen and L. F. Barker, of the Johns Hopkins University faculty, Baltimore, by the Canadian Club last night. Drs. Cullen and Barker are almost, but not quite, "London Old Boys," but they are two of the most distinguished Canadian physicians on the continent. Dr. Barker was unavoidably detained, but he was represented by Dr. Sampson, of Windsor, one of the best-known practitioners of Western Ontario, and the oldest physician attending the sessions of the association. Jared Vining, president of the club, presided at the luncheon.

Work For Public Health.

Dr. Cullen, the first speaker, recalled, in a humorous vein, some of his early associations with Dr. Barker, when they were medical students together at Toronto University. He also referred to his early visits to this city, and to the improvements that had been made here in the Victoria Hospital. The new Institute of Public Health, on the corner of the hospital grounds, was especially singled out for commendation.

"I hope to see many more of these institutes started, for they are foci to spread knowledge. More has been done for the education of the public along the lines of public health in the past few years than in the preceding fifty.

Government and Health.

"I am also glad to learn that there is a movement on foot for the creation of departments of public health. We have now our department of finance, our department of agriculture, but we have so far neglected our department of health. I hope the day will soon come when we will have a doctor as a cabinet minister as the head of a health department."

Dr. Cullen predicted that in the United States a department of that nature would be created shortly. He made a plea to have it taken out of politics in order that its proper usefulness might not be impaired.

Before he concluded his address, he made an earnest appeal to the doctors present to institute an educative campaign among the laity in reference to cancer, and what was being done to its cure. It was up to the doctors to do this, just as it was up to the laity to lend every possible support, financial and moral, in endeavoring to stamp out the disease.

Dr. Sampson.

Dr. Sampson's address was eulogistic in its references to the two young Canadian doctors honored by the club. He characterized Drs. Cullen and Barker as men who would likely be of greater service to the human race than any other pair that Canada ever produced.

"The measure of this life is not in riches or popularity, but in the usefulness to the race and the highest possible estimate is placed on human life, the saving of which they are engaged in."

The speaker, continuing in this vein, poured out a heartfelt tribute to the memory of Lord Lister, a man whom, he declared, had done more for the world than any man who had ever lived, with the one exception of the Saviour. His life he held up as a model to the young men of the profession.

Advance of Medicine.

Advances in medical science during the years he had practiced his profession were also referred to. Dr. Sampson recalled a meeting of the Medical Association in this city twenty years ago, and what had been accomplished since that time.

"I glory in the fact that my years have been spent in the most wonderful 50 years that the world has ever seen. During my lifetime there has been added six or seven years to human life through medical research and investigation, but when we realize that every year in the United States there are 600,000 persons who die from diseases that are preventable, the magnitude of the work before us is imaginable. It is along the lines of prevention that we must now bend our energies."

Dr. Sampson paid a tribute to the Western Medical College and its students, ni his concluding remarks.

FINE HARVEST LOTS OF FRUIT HAY IS SHORT

Strawberries Are Coming In Very Plentifully In Many Districts.

Grain Is Heading Out Rapidly, and Small Fruits Are Abundant.

Reports from all parts of the district indicate that the farmers are looking forward to a splendid harvest. While the hay crop will be short grain is in splendid shape and prospects are that the fruit yield will be a record-breaker. Apple, plum, peach and cherry trees are loaded with splendid fruit, and with the exception of strawberries the smaller fruits will be plentiful. In some districts the strawberries have not been severely hurt, but in many places the early fruit was killed by the frosts, and the rest was badly damaged during the dry spell.

Is Heading Out.

Grain is heading out splendidly, both wheat and oats being well along, and the barley showing up fine. Bean growers expect a good yield. Many growers did not put in nearly as many as last year owing to the severe losses they sustained. The season promises to be a splendid one for tomatoes, many hundred thousand plants having been set out.

Farmers say that the recent rain was worth thousands of dollars to them, and another good shower or two will help the crops immensely. Owing to the scarcity of help many farmers are working the longest hours that they have ever had to put in, but all are expecting to be well repaid for their labor by a splendid harvest.

LOTS OF BERRIES.
[Special to The Advertiser.

Ingersoll, June 25.—This has been a big strawberry week. It is doubtful if there ever was a time when more berries were marketed in so short a time. The rain of last week was of incalculable benefit, and the warm sunshine which followed has forced the berries to maturity. It may be that the growers will not find their crops so profitable as otherwise would have been the case, as they are kept busy marketing their fruit, instead of having a long period as has been the case other years. The merchants are buying heavily, and the price today dropped to ten cents, retail.

DOUBLE THE CROPS.
[Special to The Advertiser.]

Whalen, June 25. — The recent rains have more than doubled the spring crops. The fall wheat and barley are headed out and promise to be splendid crops and early harvest also. The root crop and corn fields are looking admirable, and mangolds are being hoed. Corn is ready for cultivating. Farmers are busy getting these odd jobs done, as the hay will be ready to cut next week. The clover is very good in the townships of Blanshard, Biddulph and Usborne.

NEED MORE RAIN.
[Special to The Advertiser.]

Lambeth, June 25. — Farmers all through this district are well pleased with the outlook for a good harvest. Although the hay is short, and the yield not plentiful, wheat, barley and oats will be good. Fruit is in splendid shape. A little more rain will help all the crops greatly.

WHITE GRUB BUSY.
[Special to The Advertiser.]

Belmont, June 25.—The white grub did considerable damage to many fields of oats in this district, but the rest of the grain is in fine condition. Early potatoes are coming in. Grain cutting is not expected to start for about a month. This year the dairy output from this district will easily break all records. The big milk powder factory is away behind with many orders.

GOOD IN THE NORTH.
[Special to The Advertiser.]

Goderich, June 25. — This will be a record year for apples, plums, and many of the small fruits. Flax is in first-class shape and most of the grain is coming along splendidly. A little more rain is needed in some districts, but the prospects are for a fine harvest.

LOTS OF APPLES.
[Special to The Advertiser.]

Forest, June 25. — The fruit growers all through this splendid fruit district are more than pleased with the prospects for a big yield. All along the lake shore and through the Arkona and other leading districts the trees are laden with No. 1 fruit. Spraying has been general this year, and when the pack is shipped thousands of dollars will come back to the growers. Strawberries are coming in rapidly and are selling quickly at 10 cents a box for the finest.

POPLAR HILL'S GIANT PICNIC ENTERTAINS HUNDREDS: EVERYBODY THERE; HAPPY

Annual Township Outing and Old Boys' Reunion Was Held on Tuesday at Campbell's Grove.

Many old boys of Lobo Township journeyed to Poplar Hill on Tuesday to the school picnic and old boys' reunion held at Campbell's Grove. The festivities commenced at 1 o'clock, when the school children, headed by the Adelaide brass band, marched from the schoolhouse to the grove and had their flag-raising exercises. Immediately after the exercises the races were run, and some exciting finishes resulted. It was an ideal day, and the people for miles around had quit work for the occasion. Mothers were there with their children, brothers with their sisters, and some of them with other fellows' sisters. It was easy to distinguish those that were there with other fellows' sisters. They were more attentive than they could possibly be to their own sister.

Peanuts and Popcorn.

Most of the small boys consumed an amazing quantity of peanuts, popcorn, candy and ice cream. Most of their ambitions exceeded their capacity. An interesting program was provided in the afternoon by the Adelaide Band, London Lady Harpers, the Jones children, the Mack musicians, and others. Mr. E. T. Essery, of London, was chairman in the afternoon. Many of the picnickers listened attentively to the program, and were generous in the encores. A ball game in the afternoon between Greysteads and Strathroy drew as large a crowd as a league game in London. The game was fast, and, at times, exciting. Greysteads won by a score of 16 to 5, but had to use three pitchers to accomplish it. The lineup was:

Strathroy—Newton, 3b.; Hunter, s.s.; Calcutt, r.f.; E. McCandless, 1b.; Collins, 2b.; Davis, l.f.; McCandless, c.; Hindmarsh, c.f.; Gough, p.

Greysteads—G. Siddell, 3b.; F. Telfer, s.s.; J. Siddell, r.f.; H. Sinker, 1b.; L. Layng, 2b.; Charlton, l.f.; R. Siddell, c.; J. Watson, c.f.; C. O. Neill, p.

A Keen Contest.

The game was hotly contested for a few innings, but Greysteads gradually increased their lead, and the issue was never in doubt after the fifth. The attendance at the game was about three thousand.

In the evening a long program was put on by the following artists:

The Forest City Male Quartette, the Jones children, London Lady Harpers, Eddie Piggott, Adelaide Brass Band, Miss McLean, Miss Myrtle MacIntosh, and Miss Margaret Pringle. Sergeant Macdonald was there in full Highland costume, and the skirl of the bagpipes was heard in the afternoon and evening, and gladdened the hearts of the Scotsmen present. Eddie Piggott put on some of his famous impersonations of Harry Lauder, and had the audience in a continual roar.

The Prize Winners.

Many children were entered in the races, and it was difficult at times to judge the winner. The following were awarded the prizes in the various races:

50-yard three-legged race for committee—A. Campbell and M. McArthur, A. P. Malone and A. P. Malone, A. Fletcher and M. McLean, A. Blair and G. Zavitz.

50-yard boot and shoe race, for committees only—W. Chapman, A. Blair and O. Campbell.

75-Yard sack race for committees—W. Campbell, E. McInroy, A. Fletcher.

Deny Engagement of Princess Patricia

Famous Dancer Gives Complexion Secrets

[Aileen Moore in Beauty's Mirror.]

I've learned the secret of Dolores' entrancing beauty—the wondrous charm that has dazzled the courts of Europe and captivated vast audiences everywhere. The famous dancer abhors rouges and cosmetics. Yet, despite the strenuousity of her life, she retains the incomparable complexion best described as "indescribable." An intimate friend tells me the senorita regularly uses on her face what druggists know as mercolized wax. This is applied at night in the manner cold cream is used and washed off in the morning. It absorbs the dead particles of skin which daily appear, and a fair, soft, fresh, girlish complexion is always in evidence.

Dolores' skin is not marred by a single wrinkle, not even the finest line. She wards these off by daily bathing the face in a solution made by disolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint witch hazel. As your drug stores keep these ingredients, as well as mercolized wax (one ounce of the wax is sufficient), no doubt your readers will welcome this information.

DOCTORS ARE GIVEN FREEDOM OF CITY; SELECT EXECUTIVE

General Meeting of the Medical Association Held Tuesday Evening.

Dr. Cullen Pays Tribute to the Press for Aid in Its War on Cancer.

While waiting for hydro to condescend to get busy and light up the auditorium, about four hundred physicians waited outside the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening until after 8:30 to begin a meeting which was to have started at 8 o'clock. Comments on the uncertainty of the service were numerous, and there were those of the visiting physicians who were convinced that hydro was not all that it was represented to be. It was the first general meeting of the convention, and was largely attended. The president, Dr. H. A. McKidd, of Calgary, opened the meeting and introduced the president-elect, Dr. H. A. McCallum, who after a few remarks, called upon Mayor Graham for the address of welcome. Mayor Graham expressed pleasure at having so large a gathering of the representative men of the Dominion visit London, and extended to them the freedom of the city. His address was replied to by Dr. White, ex-mayor of St. John, N. B., who spoke of the great hospitality that had been extended to the delegates, and hoped that the Maritime Provinces would soon be the scene of an annual meeting.

Dr. Moorhouse read the report of the committee on arrangements, enumerating the various forms of entertainment that had been provided for the delegates during their stay in this city.

The Executive Council.

The report of the last annual meeting, held in Edmonton, was read, showing an attendance of 354 members as compared with an estimated attendance in this city of five hundred or more.

Address on Surgery.

Dr. J. Alex. Hutchison, formerly of Goderich, and now assoeiate professor of surgery in McGill University, was then introduced, and gave the address in surgery. It was a carefully-prepared paper, and while of a highly technical nature, had many points of interest for the layman. It dealt largely with the subject of fractures, and illustrated many of the most modern methods of reducing them. An interesting phase discussed was the legal aspect, as presented in court when people sue their physicians for improperly set bones. The evolution of the X-Ray has made it more of a problem for the physicians to successfully combat such a case, which often is decided against him, because neither judge and jury are competent to properly interpret an X-ray plate.

Tribute to Press.

Dr. T. S. Cullen, of Baltimore, a former Canadian, eminent in American medical circles, gave an address on cancer. He paid a high tribute to the press of this country and of the United States for the help they had extended to the medical men in spreading abroad facts about this malignant disease and the necessity for early treatment if it were to be successfully dealt with. He urged a more careful record of all cases dealt with among physicians who are fighting the disease.

The afternoon session was taken up largely with technical papers in the various sections. Papers of great interest to the profession were presented.

Sultan's Son-In-Law Executed for Murder

Expected Pardon, But Was Hanged With Eleven Others.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, N. Y., June 25.—A cable from Constantinople says:

The impossible has happened. The Sultan's son-in-law, Salih Damad Pacha, shared the ignominous fate of eleven common assassins executed yesterday in Bayazid Square for the murder of Mahmoud Shefket Pacha, the grand vizier.

Huge crowds saw the body swinging beside those of the other murderers.

Until the last moment Salih Damad Pacha expected the Sultan's pardon, but when shown the warrant for his execution, maintained a remarkable sangfroid. He sent a farewell message and a bunch of keys to his wife.

Police Think Woman Killed Her Husband

[Canadian Press.]

Spokane, Wash., June 25. — Frank Fromm, champion repolver shot of the United States in 1909, and his wife, were found dead in a tent back of their home here yesterday. From a note in the dead woman's handwriting the authorities believe that Mrs. Fromm shot her husband through jealousy and then committed suicide.

In the note two young women of this city are named as the cause of the tragedy, and the request is made that the dead woman's jewelry be sent to a sister whose address is given as Miss Joseph Hurbert, Norwalk, Ohio.
