New Hats of Satin or English Felt

Do you want a new hat for sports or for travel? It must be appropriate for immediate wear—but it must be in harmony with the fashion tendencies for early fall.

Here are two forward-looking types:

The English Felt Hat, which is almost a universal fashion for sports. It may have a mannish crusher shape, its brim may droop demurely, or be jauntily up-tilted. In russet brown, the dull blues, shutter green and in white $1.75 to $5.75

The other type for fall is the new Hat of Satin, of Satin with Velvet, or Satin with Bengaline. It is most frequently black or black with white. These hats show the influence of the "telescope" and squarish crowns, which fall fashions sponsor $13.75 and $15.00
